ELECTION EVENTS BEGAN MARCH 26

Once again it is election time at Nevada Southern. Student body officers, Who's Who personalities, and Cotillion Queen must be nominated and voted upon.

A petition with 20 signatures of students who hold activity cards will nominate a candidate for a CSNS office. Cotillion Queen and Who's Who candidates must have submitted two separate petitions, each bearing the signature of one student holding an activity card. All petitions must be turned into the CSNS office by 5 p.m. on March 30.

Qualifications as stated in the CSNS Constitution for its officers are as follows. The President and Vice-President must have completed 25 semester hours at the time of candidacy. They must be full-time students, have and maintain a 2.0 grade average, and not be on probation. The Secretary, Treasurer, and Historian must be full-time students having completed 12 semester hours, have and maintain a 2.0 grade average, and not be on probation.

There will be four categories of Who's Who representatives: Most School Spirited, Most Intelligent, Most Humorous, and Most Likely to Succeed. For each group there shall be a boy and a girl elected. If there is anyone you feel belongs in any of these groups, don't fail to turn in a petition.

The honor of being Cotillion Queen is one that every girl desires and few deserve. It is indeed the greatest compliment that can be paid a CSNS coed. Carefully considered candidates are your assurance that a girl who is school-spirited and active in school functions, as well as personable, will be your Cotillion Queen.

Following is the schedule for nominations and elections.

March 28: Qualifications shall

CLUB NEWS

Biology Club — Doctor Deacon's planning on giving a talk and showing a film on his recent trip to the coast. The talk and films will be presented to the members of the club.

Psychology Club — March 30 is the date set for a tentative meeting at 2:00. Please watch bulletin board for further announcement.

Newman Club — Tucson here we come!

Sigma Gamma — The fraternity sponsored a very fashionable Leprechaun Ball.

Nu Sigma Upsilon — had a slumber party on March 24th.

Sigma Theta Chi — is sponsoring an April Fool's Dance March 31st. The "April Fool" of NSU will be announced at the dance.

Masquers — This club has money in the bank. It has not been active for some time but it would be wonderful to create interest in this fine organization. The aim of the club is to provide its members with knowledge of the fine arts. Anyone interested in this club is asked to contact Lee Strange. More facts about Masquers will appear in the next edition of the paper.

Deseret Club — Will be going through the Valley of Fire and on to Warm Springs on March 31. They will be leaving from the Seventh Ward Chapel at Twenty-Fifth and Tonapah at 8:00 a.m.

The girls are providing the food and the fellows are providing the transportation.

Regular meetings are held every Wednesday and Friday from 6:00 to 7:00 at the Eighth and Franklin Chapel.

ST. PAT'S DAY CELEBRATED

The second annual Leprechauns' Ball held in the Gold Room of the Convention Center, March 16, 1962, drew many Nevada Southern students. The music was supplied by the "Stardusters", along with elegantly served refreshments. The outstanding feature of the dance, sponsored by Sigma Gamma, was the crowning of the number one male, Dan Porter, and his two attendants, Norman Johnson and George Hoover. They were crowned by Sigma Gamma's lovely sweetheart, Ricki Gobell.

Seven door prizes were awarded by Corky Poole. They were: A ten dollar gift certificate from Johnson's to Janet Chatterton, one piece of jewelry from the University Bookstore to Hank Nolte, one pair of slacks from the Knight and Squire Men's Store to Henry Sylvestri, one large pizza from the Pizza Den to Kay Hargraves, a two dollar gift certificate from McKay's Bookstore to Karen Brown, a five dollar gift certificate from Christensen's Jewelers to Toby Rott, and a pair of cufflinks from Clover Jewelers to Lisle Lowe.

REBELS BEAT GRAND CANYON

Nevada Southern University won its opening baseball game of the season, Friday, March 16 at the expense of Grand Canyon College of Phoenix Arizona.

The defeat of 7-3 handed out by the Rebels made six losses in a row for Grand Canyon. However, the tables were turned Saturday as the Reb's were defeated in the late innings 12-6.

The Rebels jumped into 2-0 and 6-4 leads before the winners rallied to pull the game out of the fire on a pair of home runs.

The big gun for NSU was Marshall Deutch, who highlighted the fifth inning with a bases-loaded toppel to help the Reb's score four times in that inning. Dan Taylor's single chased home Deutch with the last tally.

All CSNS candidates who wish to have their campaign stands publicized in the Rebel Yell must submit their Copy at the candidates meeting to be held Monday, April 2, at 5:00 p.m. See Lois Arends for details.

Why Vote? Because . . .

Most editorials that aim at persuading students to vote in their colleges' or universities' student body elections use a very negative approach — that is, they tell the students what they'll get if they don't vote, instead of telling them what they can have if they do vote.

This negative attitude may help discourage students from voting, as they are likely to get the feeling they'll have an inefficient government whether they vote or not. What most students don't realize is that they can take the first step toward producing better student government — by voting in student elections and by choosing the candidates that seem to have the most potential leadership and the initiative to raise their colleges' or universities' governmental standards.

CSNS elections are just around the corner (in April), and it is the responsibility of Nevada Southern students to GET OUT and VOTE!! Why? Because students owe it to themselves and to their classmates to take part in electing the student officials that are the sole "go-betweens" of the administration and the Confederated Students; they constitute the co-ordinating element that unifies Nevada Southern itself.

"Well," a student may ask, "what CAN we have if we DO vote?" If students DO vote — and if they vote wisely, basing their choices upon careful consideration of candidates' abilities — then a responsive and responsible students government can be had. Students need only to show an interest in their government, and that government will respond to the students. But students must do more than show their interest but once a year at election time; they must maintain that interest throughout the year.

If we, as NSU students, do not have an interest in our government, then the April CSNS elections can serve as the starting point. Do vote wisely! Keep in mind that voting is the first step, and that if the first step is weak, it will take a long time before the succeeding steps will be strong. If the first step is a strong, solid step, however, the succeeding steps will come easily. We must learn to walk before we can run!

Lincoln has said: "... the government for the people, of the people, and by the people, shall not perish . . ." We must take care to insure that government is of us and by us. Vote!!!

Newmanites To Arizona

By MARY LOU SAVAGE

NEWMANITES — Mary Lou Savage, Toby Rott, Linda Muzio, Joanne Favero, and Father (Shades) McFaddon, really "cut-up" on their last Arizona trip. (Father McFaddon Photo)

Pack your bags and get ready to hit the road for another "Newman weekend." The Southern Nevada Newman Club is now an official member of the Arizona Province. We have already made two previous trips to this state. On our past jaunts to Arizona, we have acquired an off key choir director, a half dozen squashed tuna sandwiches, and one over worked but under tranquilized chaplain.

However, none of these things have lampened our spirits. We are now making plans for our next convention. Our destination will be Tucson which is only 63 miles from the Mexican border. If enough people will cooperate, we may try to by pass Tucson and go to gay "Meheco!" Bull fight anyone???

The convention will keep us too busy, and we probably won't have time to visit our southern friends. But it would not have been a bad idea. The theme of the convention is "the responsible Newmanite." At the convention many important issues will be decided on. A whole new slate of Province officers will be elected. We are hoping to gain some prestige by getting some Las Vegans in offices. If you are a member of the Newman Club, and you would like to go on this trip, please contact George Bubnis or Mary Lou Savage. The total cost is $12.50 and the dates are March 30, 31, and April 1. The convention in the past have been very helpful in explaining the purpose of the Newman Club and how we can make our organization more effective.

One of the most interesting Newman meetings was held March 18. We had several guest speakers besides our regular business meeting. This was the evening of our first marriage discussion entitled "adjustment in marriage." The two couples who spoke were Mr. and Mrs. A. Siani and Mr. and Mrs. J. Rowan.

REBEL YELL DRAWS PRAISE, CRITICISM

(Editor's Note: The following letters were received from two students at Saint Mary's College in Orchard Lake, Michigan. They are being reprinted in their original forms.)

Dear Editor:

The other day ago, I received a letter from one of my buddies who attends Southern Nevada, and in it was the Rebel Yell. I was completely shocked to see that it was a paper coming from a university, I couldn't believe my eyes. I've seen better grade school papers.

First of all the layout, it's extremely difficult to decipher some of the material which is contained on page three and then said to be continued on page six. The little bits of information contained at the bottom of some pages to fill in the pages is downright simple, any two year old can scribble something like that. Let's get something more contemporary and more college, this isn't a kindergarten special, although it appears to be that.

The new yell section is absolutely a first class farce. Those cheers there are so old they stink, in fact I heard them when I was five years old. Come on they let's do something about that. If I was on the team and heard them yell out those stupid things I think I would quit.

This publication sure detracts from my positive outlook of colleges in that vicinity and it also gives a down grade to Las Vegas. Let's get on the stick and do something positive, fix up that publication, Please!

(Signed) A Depressed Reader,
Ray Woje

Please note in the above letter, that the writer suggested we do SOMETHING, however, he neglected to offer his priceless advice as to what COULD BE DONE to "fix up the publication." Now that's what I like . . . good constructive criticism. EDITOR).

Dear Miss MacDonald:

My roommate and I had a heated discussion on the literary value of the Rebel Yell. As a result he sent you a very sarcastic letter degrading your publication, however, I don't think his was fair at all. The fact of the matter is — he is an extremely narrow-minded person.

I, however, would like to congratulate you on the edition published on the thirty-first of January. It was a very good example of what a university paper should be. It has the basic form and information which makes reading very enjoyable. I've been on the editorial staff of our college publication for some time now, and I've read numerous other college publications. I must admit that this is one of the most interesting I've ever read.

In reading your paper, I found it, for the most part, very complete and very stimulating. The entire picture of college life was depicted quite well. I noticed that you covered the social, recreational and athletic aspects quite comprehensively. However, I noticed one shortcoming, i. e., the lack of news pertinent to the academic aspect. I hope that you will include a bit more on this topic in your forthcoming issues.

In fact, I am enclosing $1.50 to obtain as many forthcoming issues of this publication as possible.

Wishing you the Best of Luck in the ensuing issues and hoping to receive your next one, I am Yours Truly,

(Signed) Joe Nicewicz

Well, I am impressed, but could it be this letter was written with a "tongue-in-cheek" attitude? EDITOR).

One of the easiest things to do on this campus is to sit back and criticize. There are people attending this school who can find nothing good about NSU. They cannot understand why our campus lacks in spirit and tradition. Our school has only been in existence for about seven years yet these people sit back and compare Nevada Southern with institutions that have been in existence for more than 50 years.

It would be very nice if we could build schools with prefabricated spirit but this is impossible. We would be on the right road to solving this problem if we had fewer critics and more workers. I doubt if anyone ever stops to think how much work goes into our little school.

I spent a few hours in the government room the other day and I was amazed. I had always pictured the life of a school officer as a glorious and prosperous one. Believe me, there is no time for glory for these leaders. They have studies to keep up with and deadlines to meet in their classes as well as social deadlines for the school. They probably have to work 28 hours a day to keep up with all their work. But somehow they get it done. However I think the biggest jolt I received was when I discovered how despondent these leaders can get. For example, one girl wanted to just have three whole days to herself with not another person around while a few others were considering dropping the whole idea of life itself. However these people continue to work and work hard! It must be very encouraging to them to have someone walk in the office and begin a dissertation on why Nevada Southern is such a poorly organized school. Believe me these people are breaking their backs to make Nevada Southern a great school but they alone cannot do the job. It takes more than this small body of leaders to keep school spirit alive.

The only thing these leaders can do is provide activities where we can display our school spirit and build up traditions. The student body has to take advantage of these opportunities. We have a newspaper, a yearbook and many other activities on campus that we can participate in. In each activity there are responsibilities such as newspaper deadlines and yearbook deadlines; each time a person meets his deadline he is doing his part to build up school spirit and tradition.

Our school will gain spirit and tradition if the student body really wants it. We are very fortunate at present to have a fine group of student officers; with elections coming up it would be wise to consider people who will be able to take on the responsibility, beside popularity. As I said before we need fewer critics and more workers. I have just signed up to be a worker!

Tennis Team Organized

Tennis time has rolled around again, and Nevada Southern for the second year has an up and coming tennis team. This team will eventually be a varsity team and will participate in matches away from school.

The first tennis match was held on the NSU campus against Western High on March 21. However the tennis team did not come out victorious in its first match.

Members of this year's team are Larry Latham, a veteran of the '62 team; also new members George Bubnis, James Dunks, and Roy Turner. These boys will be working very hard the rest of the season to pick up victories for Nevada Southern.

Here are the scores of the first match:

1. Bubnis lost 6-1 6-2.
2. Latham lost 6-0 6-4.
3. Dunks lost 6-3.
4. Turner lost 6-0.

Soccer Fans Attention!

In the October 29, 1961 issue of the "Rebel Yell" there appeared an article urging the adoption of Soccer as a school sport for the fall semester. Since then many people have been wondering as to what happened to this proposal.

Immediately after the article appeared in the paper I inquired about the possibility of having a soccer team here at Nevada Southern. It was said that there is a chance of the school having a soccer team in the near future.

Due to the overwhelming interest here at NSU, and the increasing popularity of this sport in this area, I shall endeavor to pursue the matter more closely.

NSU Opens Baseball Drills

Nevada Southern's baseball team began its first outdoor drills Tuesday, March 6 at Hadland Field, 25th and Stewart.

Some 23 aspirants, three of them returning lettermen, constitute coach Michael Drakulich's team — the second in the history of NSU.

Coach Drakulich is confident that with returning lettermen, Jerry Gayeneche, Lee Syphus and Dan Taylor, the 1962 Rebels will better last year's 4-11 record.

Drakulich praised the talents of seven of his newcomers — Joe DeMarco, Marshall Deutsch, Mike Fenell, Hank Halverson, Richard Jenkins, Andy Miller and Chris Stanfill.

The Rebels opened their 22-game campaign in Phoenix, Arizona on March 16th against Grand Canyon College. The most important game of the season, however, is NSU's first diamond series with the University of Nevada. The Rebels play the Wolf Pack here in a night game on May 4th, then in a double header the next day.

Gayeneche did everything but keep score last season. Basically a third baseman, he also pitched but wound up with a 0-4 record, however his performance at the plate was a little better, batting a .321.

NSU will play their home (daytime) games at Cashman Field and its night games at Municipal Field.

Is everybody ready to pick the April Fool at NSU? Come to the Slop Hop sponsored by Sigma Theta Chi in the Gym, March 31, at 8:00 p.m.

The Spring Play, or plays, are progressing nicely. They are to be held April 27, 28, and 29 and May 4, 5 and 6. Be sure to buy your tickets as soon as they go on sale or you may not get them.

Congratulations are in order to Dan Porter, NSU's "Most Preferred Male." Dan and his date Joan Seaman were the lucky recipients of two tickets to that night's showing of Flower Drum Song at the Thunderbird. Norman Johnson and George Hoover were runners-up for Most Preferred Male; both received green "bowler" hats to wear for the remainder of the evening.

Wedding Bells are ahead for Vronna Harris and George Hoover, Dalene Sinderson and Ray Demmon, Juanita Houchin and Steve Rimmel, and Virginia Backus and Eddie Conter. Lots 'o Luck to all of you.

Jessica Sledge will finally be 21 on the 29th of March, and she says that Norman Johnson is going to take her to the Thunderbird for the free cocktail hour.

Tollice Johnson, an old Nevada Southerner, will marry Richard Barry April 20th. Some of the "old crowd" will give her a rousing spinster party on April 19th.

Extra! Bids are open for a new parking lot to be built in back of the library, sometime in May. Think of it — parking spaces!!!

Nominations for CSNS officers, Cettillion Queen, Helledorado Queen and Who's Who must be in by 5:30 on March 30.

Election will be April 9, and 10. This time, everybody get out and vote! Not to be caustic, but this is called Responsible Government. This is an excellent opportunity for all those who have spent this entire year criticizing the present student government, to actually do something.
