

REBS DROP TWO IN SEATTLE

★ ★ ★ POOR PLAY KEY TO TOURNEY

By JACK ABELL
From Seattle

Nevada Southern University's basketball Rebels left McCarran Field Thursday morning of last week with high hopes and a clear conscience. The order of the day was relax on a jet flight to Seattle, Washington. The atmosphere during the flight was one of good humor.

When the Rebels returned to Las Vegas Sunday night, the situation was marked with a different tag. The flight was enjoyed by all, and there were some laughs; but N.S.U. was the big loser of the NCAA Far West Regional Tourney, a title that comes complete with embarrassing feelings.

In the first round game with Fresno State College, the nation's number eight rated small college team, N.S.U. had its first glimpses of the man they call Lonnie Hughey, the most valuable player of the tourney. Prior to the contest, Ed Gregory had given his chargers a two point formula to victory, contain Hughey and rebound like hell.

During the first half, the plan worked well with Bob Moon leading the way. Although Hughey scored 13, the Rebels had a better field percentage, 38.2 to 37.5, and more rebounds, 28 to 24. As a result, the score leveled off at 32-31 for the half, Fresno leading.

The second half was marked by the old Rebel plague, poor rebounding, and Hughey's crew took good advantage of the situation. They held the Rebels to one shot, usually a miss, and nabbed nearly every rebound. In the end, the score stood at 74-61. For the game, Fresno hit 46.2% from the floor, the Rebels 35.8%. The rebounding situation had been altered too; Fresno ended in the lead 56-42. Individual scoring was led by Hughey with 27, and Moon of N.S.U. in second with 22 for the night.

The key to the game was the magnetic shoes of the Rebels in the second half, and their cold shooting from the line (12 for 21). They lost their poor chance of a fast break, the one thing that could have cooled off Hughey and the Bulldog zone.

Saturday night, action was switched to the Seattle Arena on the grounds of the world's fair. The stadium was readied for basketball Friday night, the floor having been moved into the 6,000 seat hall from the Seattle Coliseum where it had been used for the state high school basketball tourney.

Saturday's game was in the consolation bracket between N.S.U. and San Francisco State which had lost to Seattle Pacific 107-78 the night before. The game was a picture of incongruous play. The Rebels, who had the over-all "banpower," let the Gators run away with the game in the first half. S.F. seemed to hit every shot they attempted. They were led by Everet Adams, a little player with fantastic moves. Before he fouled out, the short man pumped in 21 markers.

The entire game was dominated by poor play on both sides, and finally the Rebels were able to cut the lead to 77-73 with four minutes left. But a three-point play by the men from the bay city cooled the Rebels for the rest of the game. Bob Moon ended the contest with 29, Hughes had 15, and Payton was great on defense; Sy Stepp came through with 19. The Rebels lost the game again due to poor hustle and weak rebounding. The score ended at 85-78, S.F.

Student Leaders Make Trip To Nevada Legislature

By CHUCK CRAWFORD
C.S.N.S. Editor

Two days last week four members of student government journeyed to Reno in hopes of bringing back a big feather for NSU's cap. They brought back no feather, but be assured that the hands of Tom Hribar, Bill Daley, Fred Bolander and Ben Knowles are now well warmed by hand-shaking senators and one very encouraging governor. They also have come back with their minds already fabricating new ways to bring the much-needed financial recognition to Nevada Southern.

Most of the time in Reno was spent in conferring and learning about NSU's chances of surviving the problem. If nothing else the V.I.P.'s involved now know that we need the aid desperately. Unfortunately, the trip ended in the dim light of failure, at least according to the Review-Journal, but perhaps there is more than meets the pessimistic eye. Perhaps our four campus crusaders now have the knowledge of politics that will make the next move "check-mate." Let's hope so.

CINEMA FEATURES SWEDISH FILM

Is it eroticism you are after, or are you for Rabelaisian humor? All are contained in the Swedish movie, "The Magician." Ingmar Bergman combines rich comedy and melodrama as well as deep philosophical thought to bring a thrilling motion picture masterpiece to his audience.

Campus Cinema, hosted by John Lewis and Jerry Schurr, offers a foreign film that is not only of good cultural value, but is also highly entertaining. This film has been accorded many of the highest international movie awards.

"The Magician" is a suspense filled movie full of extraordinary thrills. This fine film will be shown Friday, March 12, at Grant Hall, room 129. Tickets go on sale at 2:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Showtimes are 3:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. Admission is $1.00.

WHAT PRICE MUST WE PAY AN EDITORIAL

THIS EDITORIAL is not going to be sweet, and it is designed to get action. In essence, its purpose is to get you, the students of Nevada Southern, angry so as to insure some active support of William Daley and the student leaders on this campus who feel a dire need for a spirited attack on the out-of-place attitude toward the University of Nevada that has been displayed by the citizens and legislators of this state. To be sure, the people of Las Vegas are more guilty, for they refuse to aid NSU while at the same time looking at the University as representative of southern Nevada.

EXACTLY WHAT is the situation? Well, we have a legislature that feels higher education comes like magic, and without continuous monetary aid. We have a governor who is truly afraid to "get in and fight for what he knows is right." We have a legislative committee set-up that is ruled by elderly men from "cow counties" who think in "Radical construction" terms. But foremost, we have a local citizenry that could care less. These people include local leaders, citizens, and gamblers who refuse to realize the great publicity that could be gained from aiding this school. They sure give away the free drinks, though! Of course, there was the lady who made the tremendously ridiculous statement at a City Planning Board meeting, "I am in favor of doing ANYTHING to help our university, but I love the name of Maryland Parkway." All this paper asks, lady, is which is more important?

THE NEXT STEP is simple. It involves YOU, YOU, and ME. Get off of your seat and work for this institution. The REBEL YELL urges every student to get behind a program of letter writing and DEMONSTRATIONS THE LIKE OF WHICH THIS CITY has never seen. Don't ask Bill Daley to do the work. Help him, damn it. This means every organization on campus. Nothing would shake the shams more than 2,000 students in a sit down strike on our "million dollar Strip." The time to move is now while the "lawmakers" are in Carson City.

IN ALL SINCERITY, what price does this paper and the student government have to pay to make you STUDENTS realize that you had better move, and show that you are MAD over the situation. The onus is yours, and to be sure, you are currently acting like the draft dodgers in South Viet Nam.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS COMMITTEE COMPLETES TOUR

A group of nine Rebels, acting as representatives of the People's Republic of Hungary traveled to Fullerton, California last weekend to take part in the Regional Model United Nations activities which were held for one day, March 6, at California State College of Fullerton. The activity was aimed at preparing the delegations for their participation in the plenary session of the Model United Nations to be held April 7-10 at Claremont College, Pomona, California.

The Regional was a shortened version of the plenary Model United Nations. At this session the delegations participated in committee meetings during the late morning and early afternoon with the activities ending in a meeting of the General Assembly, where nearly fifty schools were represented.

The plenary session in April will be a simulated version of the activities of the real United Nations. In this session over 100 schools will be representing 114 countries.

Nevada Southern's participation in this activity is aimed at gaining a better understanding of the United Nations and its workings throughout the world, and also the achieving of recognition for the school.

MOYER TO VISIT TOMORROW

Dr. Donald Moyer of Eastern New Mexico University, Nevada Southern University's new Chancellor, will be on campus tomorrow for an informal day of acquaintance.

His general agenda of activities includes meeting with the University's faculty and student leaders, and a tour of the campus facilities.

Moyer, who assumes his duties as Chancellor on July 1, will replace Dean William Carlson as NSU's chief administrative head. He was appointed to the position by the University Board of Regents in December after a five-month period of "screening" conducted by a faculty committee. Carlson is expected to return to teaching here at Nevada Southern next semester.

The southwestern educator comes to NSU at a time of tremendous growth for the campus, and he is expected to work in close association with University President Armstrong in all school affairs.

LIBRARY ANNOUNCES NEW FINE SYSTEM

As of March 15, all periodicals will be for library use only. In addition, there has been a change in the library overdue-book fine structure. For 2 week books, the charge will be $50 for the first day and $10 for every day thereafter. On 7 day and three day books, it will again be $50 on the first day, but $25 and every day thereafter. For two hour and overnight books, the fines will be $50 for the first hour, and $25 for every hour thereafter.

Calendar

- Mar. 12 - Campus Cinema, "The Magician," 3 p.m. and 8 p.m., Grant Hall, 129.
- Mar. 15 - Lecture - Hans Conreid, Gym, 8 p.m.
- Mar. 20 - St. Patrick's Day Dance, Las Vegas Convention Center, 8 p.m.

ASIS Still Has Some European Employment

GRAND DUCHY OF LUXEMBOURG—The American Student Information Service announces that there are still more than 20,000 summer jobs available in Europe to U. S. college students. The jobs are being filled on a first come, first served basis and the ASIS is granting a $390 travel grant to each of the first 5,000 applicants.

Some positions pay $400 a month with no previous experience or foreign language ability required. Room and board are often included. The most requested jobs are resort work, office work, lifeguarding, sales work, shipboard work, factory work, child care and camp counseling work, farm work and restaurant work. Interesting summer work not found in the U. S. is living as a guest of well-to-do European families in return for teaching their children English.

Job and travel grant applications and detailed job descriptions (location, wages, working hours, photographs, etc.) are available in a 36-page booklet which interested students may obtain by sending $2 (for the booklet and air mail postage) to Dept. IV, ASIS, 22 Ave. de la Liberte, Luxembourg City, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

An open letter to the students of Nevada Southern University from Dr. Sigrid Moe:

This year William Warfield, distinguished American baritone, gave one single recital in New York City. The admission prices ranged from $3.50 up to $8.00. This year William Warfield made one appearance in Las Vegas, Nevada, and the cost to a student who held a season membership to the Community Concert Association would have been approximately $.75.

You students who fail to take advantage of membership in this organization are depriving yourselves not only of a great cultural experience, but of a tremendous economic bargain as well.

This year for the price of four dollars, you can hear the Paris Chamber Orchestra, the world-famous Westminster Choir of 40 voices together with two additional numbers to be announced later. Even a third-rate movie costs at least a dollar to attend.

Buy your membership now from any of the following instructors: Dr. Orleans, Dr. Moe, Mr. Boord, Dr. Chase; or see one of these students: Mike Sloan, Amalie Austin, Sandra Jackson. Tickets may also be purchased during this week, and until March 12 in the foyer of the library.

Momentous Trivia

In Nevada, some people advocate lowering the voting age from twenty-one to eighteen years of age. In Alabama they are also wrapped up in voting issues. When a person registers to vote in Alabama, a test is given. This test is supposed to screen out those prospective voters who have a limited education. But as college students we are supposed to be able to answer correctly any basic questions on government. In Alabama, they claim that a person with only a limited education can pass this test and therefore can vote. It is not that easy.

Here are the actual questions asked of men and women trying to register to vote in Alabama. There are many more questions than I have space for, but this is a good sample. The answers are below . . . no cheating now.

1. When the Constitution was approved by the original Colonies, how many states had to ratify it in order for it to be in effect?
2. Does enumeration affect the income tax levied on citizens in various states?
3. Appropriation of money for the armed services can be only for a period limited to years.
4. Who passes laws dealing with piracy?
5. Of the original 13 states, the one with the largest representation in the first Congress was
6. If a state is a party to a case, the Constitution provides that original jurisdiction shall be in
7. The Constitution limits the size of the District of Columbia to
8. How many votes must a person receive in order to become President if the election is decided by the United States House of Representatives?
9. If a person flees from justice into another state, who has authority to ask for his return?
10. If the two houses of Congress cannot agree on adjournment, who sets the time?

Answers: (1) nine; (2) no; (3) two; (4) Congress; (5) Virginia; (6) Supreme Court; (7) 10 square miles; (8) 26; (9) Governor; (10) President.

Sixty-eight of these questions were given to a UCLA class of 36 upper division and graduate political science students. The highest scorer missed 16 questions.

And you thought these tests were to determine literacy!

N.S.U. LANGUAGE INSTRUCTOR TO LEAVE

MADAME BORDEAUX

Mrs. Jean Bordeaux, a member of the Foreign Language Department of Nevada Southern University, will leave the faculty at the end of the current semester. She will spend the summer months in Kentucky, and will depart for Aix-En-Provence, France, in the fall. Mrs. Bordeaux will serve as an advisor and lab assistant at the University of Aix-Marseilles under the auspices of the Institute for American Universities. She intends to spend only one semester there, and then travel through parts of France, Spain, and Greece at her own convenience.

When asked how she felt about leaving, she replied, "I have mixed feelings. I will say that I have broken a record by staying here six years. The students whom I have encountered has been the most congenial and hardest working of my career."

Any students wishing to correspond with her can contact Mrs. Bordeaux at her office in Grant Hall. She will be glad to give the necessary information.

A NOTE

from JACK ABELL

By now, all of you have read the editorial on the front page of this issue of the REBEL YELL. I hope all students on this campus will take the suggestions to heart. To me, the key to the problem lies in our organizations.

Here is your chance to gain some real recognition. Or is it a fact that all you want is to see your name in a little column of the paper? I ask you by name: Dave Gartenberg, Elliott Lieb, Pat Stafford, Mike Barry, Phil Alred, Brian Wilson, Glenn Alred, Judy Plant, Judy Stanley, Tom Hribar, Tom Wingfield, Ed Bazar. You individuals are members of major campus groups. Are you in favor of some demonstrations in this city, and bitter-toned letters and telegrams to newspapers and legislators?

In one week, provided a concerted effort of the students on this campus, the attitudes of many citizens toward the University would change. They need to be shaken, don't you agree?

BOB JENSEN IN A REBEL'S EYE

The reason that "Campus Cinema" looks so much like a professional production is because it is. John Lewis has managed theatres for six years and Jerry Schurr is an advertising man.

The "Cinema" is a nonprofit venture and is laudable for bringing townspeople out to our corner of the desert. At the afternoon showing of "Romeo and Juliet," not much more than 15% of the capacity audience was from NSU.

You REBELS who have not noticed the polish and professionalism of the "Campus Cinema" are missing a good thing. So, go notice. . . .

Look for further easing in the Reno-NSU "cold war" which has been raging up to now. The Board of Regents seems much more amiable towards the University of Nevada (both campuses) when we get along with our older sister.

The problem has been represented as the campus that fights the hardest gets the most money. This is not the case. The biggest reason that Reno has been a party to the "cold war" is self defense. They do not have the growing pains that plague NSU and actually Reno would like to see NSU grow the same as we would.

We seem to have no other alternative except demonstrations to wake the people of Nevada up to the fact that one way or another, we plan on becoming a major university.

Plan on not being apathetic about this demonstration, REBELS. It will be a big thing and you will hear much more about it.

Dr. Moe tells me that Stauffer Chemical Co. of Henderson donated $3,000,000 (count the 0's) to UCLA. Oh well, I can't think of a thing that NSU could do with three million dollars. If we had 10% of that amount, we could build the best Student Union in the country.

This type of thing is happening all over the Vegas Valley. There is so much money for worthy causes floating around, it would make your head swim. Vegans do not seem to think that NSU is a worthy cause, however. One of the reasons for the forthcoming demonstration is to flex a few muscles and prove that we are a worthy cause.

The Chamber of Commerce does not seem to realize the value to the Las Vegas "image" of having a great university here. They are always trying to dispel the notion that L.V. is a "sin city," and here is a way to do it.

Regardless of any criticism the Building and Grounds Dept. has been getting, the parking situation is much better than in previous years. Until the "cop" shoots somebody, don't knock it.

TRACK AND FIELD

SPIKE TEAM SET FOR BIG SEASON

March 27—Claremont Relays
April 3—Riverside (U.C.)
April 30—Dixie (here — tentative)
May 1—Pamona (Cal Poly and Pepperdine)
May 8—Dixie (there—tentative)

This spring, for the first time, Nevada Southern will be fielding a track team under the direction of Mr. Comeau. The outlook is good, mainly because of the cross country program which was started during the first semester of 1963. Most members of the distance runs have been participating in the local A.A.U. meets and are well in shape.

The team will have great depth in the one, two, and three mile runs, and because of this great depth should have four good men for the mile relay. Running from the cross country team will be: Cornel Wong, Neal Chappel, Charles Hawkins, Jim Whipple, and Bill Longwell. Running the 880 will be Mike Reese and Rod Pahor.

From Western HS last year will be Gary Halko running the 440. Halko was one of the best 440 men in the state last year and is expected to develop into a good college sprinter. For the 100yd and 220yd, Coach Comeau will rely on Tom Wilson and Charlie Payton. Payton will be out at the end of the basketball season. Both are from Las Vegas HS. Bob Cummins will be running the 180 lh and the 120 lh.

For the field events the turn out has been poor, but those coming out are all well experienced high school participants. High jumping will be Vonzie Drummonds who has gone 6'3" in high school competition. According to Coach Comeau, Drummonds has great potential and should come through with some good showings for the team. In the pole vault will be Doug Schroeder from Bishop Gorman HS. Schroeder was the best vaulter in this area last year and this year has gone 13'. Payton has done well, in high school, and should do the same in college at the broad jump. Art Hughes from Virgin Valley HS, will throw both the discus and the javallin.

Coach Comeau thinks that because of the success the cross country team has had that this will give added spirit to the team. The team is small but most of the members have a lot of high school experience, and there are a few members with no experience in their event.

- 100yd—Payton and Wilson
- 440—Halko
- 880—Pahor, Hawkins, Reese
- One Mile—Wong, Chappel, Whipple, Longwell
- Two Mile—Same as one mile
- Three Mile—Same as one mile
- Pole Vault—Schroeder
- High Jump—Drummonds
- Discus—Hughes
- Javallin—Hughes

FROSH CAGERS END WITH 10-8 RECORD

By LARRY KEEVER

Coach Bob Comeau's Freshman basketball team, winning seven of their last eight games, has completed the year with an impressive 10-8 record.

The powerful Leavitt Insurance five stopped the JV's five game winning streak with a hard-fought 93-87 victory. Hustling Joe Coon put in 18 points, while Von-Drummonds and Art Diaz followed with 15 apiece. Ex-Rebel varsity star Gary Tapper pumped in 27 points for Leavitt.

The Frosh came back strong and knocked off Las Vegas High School 51-45. Coon dropped 13 points through in the first half before fouling out. Harry Maloney picked up the scoring slack in the second half, and finished the night with 16.

The JV's closed out the year by handing the Rancho Rams a 80-67 loss. It was again another team effort as every Frosh saw action throughout the contest. Hot shooting Joe Coon again led the team with 21 points.

NCAA LOSES FACE IN SEATTLE

By JACK ABELL

The trip to Seattle was indeed a milestone for this school, for it was the first time that the university had received any type of recognition.

This space is to be devoted to those who worked on the trip, some side comments, and an editorial note on what was the blunder of the 1965 NCAA Far West Regional Basketball Tourney.

To begin with, some credit in this publication must be given to Mr. Gary Hickle, President of the Associated Students of Seattle Pacific College, and his colleagues who did so much to make our group comfortable on the beautiful SPAC campus. Although the rules may have been inconvenient, the treatment was fine, and appreciated.

A tremendous amount of recognition should go out to our Yell Leaders and Beau for a job well done. They were the only group there from the visiting teams. They had fun, but cappe dit with a real sense of devotion to the Rebels.

Finally, we would like to quietly thank Mr. Len Howard for his sharp wit on the air. His devotion to the team was miserable, and we would suggest that KLAV find some way to educate him to the art of sports casting.

We must also congratulate Seattle Pacific for its win over Fresno, 82-68. However, we have more to say on the outcome. It was not true in any sense of the word, for SPC was not the best team at the tourney, Fresno State was.

The tournament featured well-rounded teams, but was highlighted by major inconsistencies in the management and staging of the event. The blame must be given to the NCAA only. What were the issues? They included: holding the tournament at a home site; not bringing in officials from out the regions involved. The officiating for an NCAA tourney was ridiculous. Calls were hesitant, often out of context, and the officials had a fetish for technicals.

To make the whole situation more distraught, one of the officials has been refereeing Seattle Pacific games for 10 years.

Nevada Southern landed two men on the top four scoring list; they included Bob Moon, the event's leader with 51 points in two games, and Big Sy with 31 points for fourth.

N.S.U. didn't play like a nationally-ranked team, but out of the ridiculous situation at Seattle we learned much. In any case, hats go off to Ed Gregory and a team that tried.
