

HRIBAR MEETS REGENTS

Regent-CSNS Coalition Sought

Less than 24 hours after he was officially pronounced C.S.N.S. president for 1965-66, Tom Hribar led a Nevada Southern student leader delegation into what was to become a "head-on" clash with the University Board of Regents on Saturday, May 8, at Frazier Hall. The meeting, which according to Hribar was originally designed to SIMPLY ACQUAINT the board with the "need" for a more closely-knit student-regent relationship at N.S.U., assumed the appearance of a north-south clash in the state and local press.

While the new student president did cite the fact that student attitude at Nevada Southern is extremely anti-regent and University administration (U. of N.), Hribar also stressed the need for a mature relationship between the regents and students at Nevada Southern so as to mitigate the tendency of students to blame all failures on the board and University President Charles Armstrong.

However, the argument of "mistreatment" was given fuel at the 9 a.m. conference when Regent Fred M. Anderson lashed out at Clark County School Trustee Helen Cannon for her critical attitude toward Armstrong and the board. He suggested that the critics obtain the "facts" before condemning the officials.

Armstrong reverted to the tactic of placing the blame for a lag in N.S.U. building and curriculum expansion on the monetary policy of the state legislature which again this year cut the total University budget.

In reference to the current lag in the construction of N.S.U.'s first dormitory facility, Hribar stated that if students understood the truth about the lag, they would be less prone to impromptu demonstrations. "... The current problem is the fact that the bond approval for the dorm is trapped in the Home and Housing Commission, a federal agency," said Hribar. "What we hope to do this coming year is create a close bond between the student leaders at N.S.U. and the regents so as to make possible quick action on our needs," he added.

Those student leaders attending the meeting included Fred Bohlander, current C.S.N.S. second vice-president; Jack Abell, first vice-president-elect; Chuck Crawford, C.S.N.S. senator; and Ben Knowles, president pro tempore of the Student Senate. All reflected the revised position of student leadership that the answer to the inconsistencies within the University administration is not through "wanton demonstrations that have the tendency to incite only anger, and not concrete changes," as Abell explained it.

Also discussed at the conference was the plan for a C.S.N.S. student union set for an early 1966 beginning. Leaders asked for procedural advice from the regents and University officials at the meeting. Student government has already organized a Student Center Committee headed by A STUDENT CO-ORDINATOR, Robert Jensen, which is currently working to create a favorable civic reception to the eventual campaign in the community for financial donations.

In a poll of student reaction to the meeting and the proposed plan of the new administration, the REBEL YELL received a split interest. Most of the students quizzed felt the move to be generally wise, and some added that demonstrations

Piano Concert To Open Social Science Lecture Hall

Guido and Silvia Roetter, duo-pianists, will appear in concert on the Nevada Southern campus Sunday, May 23, at 3:00 p.m. in the new lecture hall of the Social Science building. This will be a "first" for the lecture hall, which has been carefully designed for presentations of this kind. Also as "firsts" will be Mr. Roetter's own arrangement for two pianos of Mousorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition" based on the composer's original score for piano. The other is the performance of "Three Andalusian Dances" by the contemporary composer, Manuel Infante. The Roetters will also play Schumann's "Andante with Variation."

Mr. Roetter graduated from the Conservatory of Trieste and toured Europe for many years as soloist and accompanist. Mrs. Roetter graduated from the Academy of Santa Cecilia at Rome, later studying with Mr. Roetter. After their marriage they appeared in many of the leading musical centers of Europe as successful duo-pianists.

This concert is open to the public without charge and is made possible through a grant from the Recording Industry's Trust Fund and the cooperation of Musicians Protective Union, Local 369.

ADULTERY AT FRI. CINEMA

A gigantic film from Spain full of great suspense and intrigue climaxes Campus Cinema's foreign film series for the semester. The movie won the International Critics Award at Cannes and is titled "DEATH OF A CYCLIST" or "AGE OF INFIDELITY."

It is the story of an adulterous love affair that brings about an accidental death which explodes into a web of lies, blackmail, and terror.

Campus Cinema presents as its last program a tremendous movie in which morality and immorality race at a lightning fast pace. "AGE OF INFIDELITY" is for adults only.

Show times May 21, are 3:00 p.m., 8:00 p.m., and a special 10:00 p.m. show. Campus Cinema is located in Grant Hall, room 129. Admission is $1.00.

A NOTE

In September of 1964, this student assumed the position of REBEL YELL editor with much idealism. It was the mistake of my inexperience at that time to ever think that the editorship at N.S.U. would be mechanically easy or beyond the range of attacks by critics, regardless of their motives.

It is now May 20, this is the last issue of the REBEL YELL until the fall semester, and my editorship has drawn to a close. As a result of my experiences this year alone, I now have a completely altered outlook. The operation of the news publication at Nevada Southern is not mechanically easy in spite of its limited scale, and both the editor and his staff are, in actual circumstances, the first individuals to bear the brunt of attacks by angry "student protestants."

Indeed, I learned much about both C.S.N.S. government and the problems of N.S.U. as editor, working both with student leaders and faculty members. As first vice-president, it is my sincere hope that this actual experience can be utilized to make more efficient the total C.S.N.S. function.

This editor learned much from the criticism that was directed at him during the year. While I often fought both the criticism, and its source, I accepted it, and now seek to draw from the inconsistencies and strong points of the criticisms so as to mold a more unified student force at N.S.U., a student force dedicated to the mitigation of the University's REAL problems and not the preservation of personal vendettas.

Regarding the topic of editorial policy, I found that the majority of students and faculty at Nevada Southern favor the RIGHT of any editor to set editorial policy. Recently, a student at N.S.U. commented that at this stage in the development of both C.S.N.S. government and Nevada Southern University the REBEL YELL must, through the editorial policy of its editor, interpret major issues in the best interest of the total student body, and to be deficient in this responsibility would be a gross disfunction.

To be sure, the student who related the above explanation of editorial responsibility was concise. For any editor of a university publication to be afraid of going out on a limb and taking an "artillery blast" in the defense of editorial freedom is, in itself, a crime.

As Nevada Southern grows, I am confident that with it will be a strong, INDEPENDENT, REBEL YELL. A journalism division will do much to improve the mechanical expertise of N.S.U.'s newspaper, but only one policy will ever insure its continual independence and true collegiate tone, a strong defense of EDITORIAL FREEDOM by all students.

Let me wish Chuck Crawford, next year's editor, the best of luck, and may I now express my gratitude to the students of Nevada Southern and the administration of William Daley for their support. It is reassuring to know that the majority of students have supported my staff.

Finally, I would like to relate to you a final verity which has proven itself valid on most university campuses in the na-

47% Election Vote

The student turnout for the May 6 and 7 C.S.N.S. General Elections was 425 out of a possible voting list of 900 students.

The total, although short of the numerical record of 440 registered in the class elections of 1964 (spring), was the highest percentage turnout for any C.S.N.S. executive election, 47%.

In the presidential race, Tom Hribar defeated Fred Bohlander by nearly a 3-1 margin, 299-128. Jack Abell and George Clark were elected to the offices of first vice-president and second vice-president respectively. Both ran unopposed.

C.S.N.S. treasurer post went to Dennis Gomes by only a two-vote margin over Mike Cox. Judy Plant defeated Vicki Sims for the office of C.S.N.S. secretary, and all of the candidates for Senate posts were elected unopposed. A single Senior Senate seat remains open, and will be filled by an appointment of the first vice-president in June.

The next elections on campus will be for freshman class offices in September.

★ EDITORIAL ★

Due to the obvious controversy that arose over the editorial in the May 5 edition of the REBEL YELL, the editors have chosen to explain their editorial policy to the readers of this publication in order to avoid future misunderstanding.

Being a college newspaper, the REBEL YELL must conform to certain in accepted journalistic practices. The first responsibility we have as its publishers is to report the news. This is not, however, our only responsibility. As a college publication the REBEL YELL has the opportunity to express opinions freely, both of its editor and of interested readers. We believe this to be the greatest virtue of a college publication. We have tried to maintain this free expression of ideas with every issue of this paper. In doing so we have, at times, caught the disfavor of certain groups who do not agree with our ideas and instead of disputing what we say, choose to dispute our right to say it. Our editorial policy is simple, and in essence, is stated clearly in every issue with the words: "I disapprove with what you say but I will defend to the death your right to say it,"

We cannot state it better than that. We feel that it is our right, as editors of a college publication, to express our opinions on any matter that concerns the students, even though at times we may be criticized for those opinions. As long as we express those opinions in our editorials openly and do so in the interest of the students then we are not abusing our designated authority as editors.

tion, and which is of paramount importance here at Nevada Southern University. JUST AS IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE EDITOR TO ACCEPT AND DRAW FROM CRITICISM, IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE STUDENT BODY TO DEFEND HIS RIGHT TO INTERPRET. THE STUDENT BODY WHICH FEARS CRITICISM OR THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF A UNIVERSITY PAPER REVERTS TO ONE POLICY, ACADEMIC AND EDITORIAL REGULATION. It is my sincere hope that the day will never come that the editor of the REBEL YELL is deprived of his right to editorial freedom, for that will be the day academic freedom takes a back seat to the virus of noncriticism.

Pep Commission To Organize for 1965-66

Crawford Next Yell Editor

Chuck Crawford, current freshman senator and C.S.N.S. editor of the REBEL YELL, has been nominated by Jack Abell, REBEL YELL Editor for 1964-65, to assume the position of editor for the 1965-66 term.

Crawford has been active in journalism throughout the year at N.S.U., and also retains a background in high school news reporting. A varied student leader, he has also been co-ordinator of the recent Freshman-Sophomore Talent Show, and has remained close to major C.S.N.S. officials on student-government projects this year. He is a member of the I.K. fraternity, and a B. Ad. major.

The appointment is expected to be confirmed when the new Senate meets in late May or early June.

Interested students are already being screened for positions in the fall, 1965 Pep Commission which is undergoing a complete change. Those individuals interested in yell leading, the pep band, or song leading are urged to contact co-chairmen Jim Bowan or Cal Robeck in Grant Hall, Room 114.

Basically, the commission is going to be built on a different scale next year so as to provide more efficiency and a collegiate flavor. Yell leading will be done exclusively by the men, three in number, and there will be three or four song leaders who will work exclusively with the pep band.

While many of the position appointments are not to be opened until September, organizational work will be done during the summer.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, REBEL YELL:

Due to a lack of cooperation and participation and due to the growing sympathy with a plan to abolish the I.O.C., I, Fred Bohlander, C.S.N.S. second vice-president, have adjourned the I.O.C. for the remainder of the academic year 1964-65.

If anything of importance should arise, a special meeting can be called.

Thank you,
 Respectfully submitted
 this 11th day of May,
 1965,

Fred Bohlander

C.S.N.S. OFFICES TO EXPAND

C.S.N.S. first vice-president Jack Abell disclosed yesterday what was described as an "ambitious expansion and modernization" of the C.S.N.S. office facilities for 1965-66.

The general plan as outlined by Abell included the remodeling of Grant Hall 114, the current offices. The room will be outfitted in new paint, drapes, and doors for increased privacy. Those divisions of student government in the room next year will include the REBEL YELL, The Publicity Division of C.S.N.S. In addition, there will be included a conference room.

C.S.N.S. has obtained office space on the second floor of Grant Hall. The new executive offices in room 135 will include the C.S.N.S. president, first vice-president-Senate, and the SEC and SCC. These rooms will be designed to afford officers privacy and working space.

Also planned is a modernization of the office equipment for C.S.N.S. use. Emphasis is being placed on heavier regulation of student office procedures and access to offices by students without business also.

STUDENT TEACHING REMINDER

Seniors who plan to student teach during the fall semester must get their applications into the Education Department no later than May 25. The applications can be acquired from either Dr. Scritchfield or Mr. Rose in the Secondary division, and from Dr. Hendrix or Mr. Boord in the Elementary division. According to Mr. Rose, those who make early applications will probably find it possible to get whatever assignments they want. Those who wait until next fall may have to take what's left; so, applicants, don't wait!

Those seniors who are student teaching this semester are: in the Secondary field which is under the supervision of Mr. Rose: Jerry Budd, Ben Knowles, I. Louise Ray, Mrs. Carole Sapp, Johanna Schaming, Mrs. Ruth Smith, Sharon Stiles, and Byron Tanner; and in the Elementary field which is under the supervision of Mr. Boord and Dr. Hendrix: Mary Laird, Mrs. Denise Bourlain, Mrs. Mary Rhude, Mrs. Kallen Yocum, Mrs. Alice Bowes, and Mrs. Helen Zornes. On May 21, these student teachers will have concluded their first teaching assignment; most of them will probably be beginning upon their first permanent teaching position next fall, so good luck present, and future student teachers.

NAT BASSING'S

Momentous Trivia

Many of us do not have a choice when it comes to planning our personal summer program. Some of us must work, must go to summer school, must visit a sick grandmother in Hawaii, or we might have the duty to picket for civil rights for all in Plentywood, Montana.

Also many of us get advice on what we should do during the summer period. Plus we get advice on what we should not do. Here is a copy of a letter written in 1844 by a man in Ohio to his brother in Connecticut, advising him not to ship out on a whaler. In it he wrote:

"I received a letter from Lucy and was much pleased to hear that you was well, much better than to hear that you intended to try the whaling business for a living. Now don't think Charlie, that I wish to influence you. Once I did not wish anyone to dictate to me about my future career. I took my own way and soon learned I was barking up the wrong tree and resolved to quit the game. Should I ever be forced against to pursue a maritime life, I should choose any other branch sooner than whaling.

"I have since come to the conclusion that it would be better to be sold to a Southern planter than be doomed to the forecastle of a whale ship. It is not only unpleasant but very uncertain and dangerous—exposed to all kinds of weather and the roughest kind of living, and compelled to associate with the scum and scourings of infamy.

"Don't go at all events until I come home. If you wish to spend a pleasant life, find a good natured girl and cage her up. Be steady and take everything easy and you will slip through this world like a streak of lightning down a greased Liberty pole. They are not all good natured. Some of them are cross enough to make a cat bite her own kittens.

"They will snuggle it up before you and try to make a fellow think they was born to live and die a-laughing. There is lots of them here in Ohio—you had better come out here than go a-whaling. You won't get a sight of anything in the shape of a woman the whole voyage and the first one you see when you come back will look so pretty that you will bite out a piece of her cheek before you know it.

"And now for the last time, let me say to you, don't go to sea. Take the advice of your friends. In after years you will have the satisfaction of knowing while you was pleasing them you was escaping care, hardships, and toil and danger. They say that Polk is elected. If so, there will be a chance for a war with John Bull and a chance for privateering—a heap better business than blubber hunting in the South Seas."

What can I add? How about just have a pleasing and profitable summer, either in the wallet, brain, or heart.

BOB JENSEN

IN A REBEL'S EYE

One week from today it will all be over for this semester. Most of you will "retire" for the summer and will be out of touch with your school chums until September.

The foregoing is a fact that I find difficult to live with. The reason is mainly that the summer function of the SCC depends entirely upon students. As a student you have undoubtedly seen stacks of questionnaires around campus asking for your name, address and so on. There are other questions which are equally, if not more important. They pertain to your ideas and whether or not you are interested in summer employment. One of the formats of the SCC is to provide employment for NSU students. I have yet to meet a college student who did not need money.

The SCC is YOUR committee. It is not mine or anyone else's any more than is the Washington Monument. It belongs to everyone on campus. If the SCC is to work for you, it needs your co-operation. Out of the 1700 or so daytime students, only about 60 have filled out one of these questionnaires. Sure, the ultimate goal of the SCC is getting a student center, but in order to do so the students have to co-operate and give a little assistance to the drive.

I am not trying to praise those souls who have so generously contributed their time and effort, nor am I trying to condemn those mildly apathetic students who have not taken the small amount of effort it takes to fill out a SCC Student Questionnaire. Rather, I am soliciting the support of the student body to help the SCC get a student center for the student body. So, IF YOU HAVEN'T ALREADY DONE SO, TAKE A FEW MOMENTS AND FILL OUT ONE OF THESE QUESTIONNAIRES AND RETURN IT TO THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ROOM, GR. 114.

Well, that's the last time I'll harp on apathy this semester. In writing this column this semester, I can realize the feeling a writer gets for his reader. It is a good feeling when I know that sitting in front of this typewriter gives SOMEBODY SOMETHING, even if it is only me. I want to thank Jack Abell for letting me have this column and I want to tell all of my readers that I love you. God bless you.

THE CAMPUS SCENE

University Band For Fall Semester

NSU is going to have a band in the Fall of '65! Plans are now being finalized which will lead to the organization of University Band under the direction of Keith Moon, one of the outstanding musicians and musical directors of the community. Students now on the campus who are interested in joining the band are asked to contact Dr. Howard Chase (Room 140, Social Science Hall during the summer), or leave word at the faculty office, Grant Hall.

Both Dr. Chase and Mr. Moon feel that with all of the fine talent available on the campus and prospects of more to come from this year's high-school graduating classes, there should be a first-rate lineup of band musicians at registration time in the fall.

ALPHA OMEGA

Alpha Omega seems to be spending a great deal of its time supporting other organizations on campus in various activities ranging from the Wednesday night discotheques, which have been sponsored by Sigma Gamma, Nu Sigma Upsilon and the ATO's, to the mortuary party on May 6 for the Beta pledge class of Sigma Gamma.

That time of the year has come now so that new officers will be elected and installed. The nominations for president include Sally Moore and Margie Haddad. The nominee for the office of vice-president is Judy Stanley. Judy Plamondon, Sylvia Schott, and Linda Shelton are running for secretary, and Sue Field and Dale Hop are running for the office of treasurer. The office of parliamentarian will be filled by either Allison Derman or Meredith Garris. Donna Shedy and Diana Crow are running for the job of historian. Gayle Hawkins will retain the office of pledge chairman.

At the meetings on May 2 and May 9 we celebrated the birthdays of Judi Collins and Judy Stanley.

Congratulations are in order for Sigma Gamma for the wonderful job they did at the Cotillion. Alpha Omega also extends special thank-you's to Jim Bowman for all of his extra work in decorating the Elks Hall. Everyone who attended the ball had a really wonderful time.

We decorated the patio for the Awards Dance which was held on May 14. Sue Field, social chairman, headed the decorating committee. We are considering several different summer activities—one of which we hope we can have with Nu Sigma Upsilon. (We still have not forgiven them for winning that bowling match.) A car wash and a party are also on the agenda.

In closing, Alpha Omega would like to congratulate Tom Hribar, Dennis Gomes and Judy Plant on their election victories, and wish all five of the new officers (Tom Hribar, Jack Abell, George Clark, Dennis Gomes and Judy Plant) and the new senators best of luck in the coming year.

NEWMAN NEWS

Congratulations to the new C.S.N.S. officers and to the recently elected officers of other campus clubs. And while we're at it, let's not forget our own officers for the coming year: president, Frank Joy; vice-president, Dave Chovanak; recording secretary, Dorothy Welch; and historian pro-tem, Sandy Rydzewski. By the time this goes to press we should have filled the remaining positions—or we may find our treasury has moved to Rhode Island!

Welcome home to the gang who attended the area seminar in Tucson. The purpose of this weekend was to orient the new province officers of the entire Southwest. Excepting the U. of A., NSU had the largest delegation there: Mike Barry, Frank Joy, Dorothy Welch, Susie Strickland, and Sandy Rydzewski. Did you know that the Santa Fe province officers are also from Las Vegas (New Mexico, that is!)?

As we plan ahead into the summer we wish a hearty thank you and God bless to all who have aided the Newman apostolate this past year: to the administration and faculty, for their help and interest; to the CSNS officers and staff, for continuous help, cooperation, and loan of facilities; to the REBEL YELL and the EPILOGUE, for including us in their publications; to all other clubs on campus for their cooperation, especially to our neighbor in the desert, Deseret (we'll move in next door yet!); to Gordon Lane, for use of the A-V room and equipment; to all others on and off campus who have worked with us or have exploded with criticism (we welcome both!); and most of all to our chaplain, Father Caviglia, without whose help we would have accomplished little, both as individuals and as a club. Largely because of these efforts we can truly say Deo Gratias—it's been a wonderful year!

YOUNG DEMOS

There is a meeting today of the Young Democrats Club and all interested people are urged to attend this meeting as delegates to the Convention will be elected. JOIN NOW! The meeting will be held in Grant 112B at 1:00 p.m.

New officers were elected for the club at the last meeting. They are: president, Sam Ballinger; vice-president, Bill Koot; secretary, Marcia Griffin; treasurer, Lorenzo Alackiff. Congrats to these people!

A party is planned for the members in June. It will be a swimming party at the home of one of the members. We would like to give special congratulations to the newly elected officers of NSU Tom Hribar, Jack Abell, George Clark, Judy Plant. We would like to offer our services to these people in the coming year.

GOOD LUCK in your finals and have a very nice summer!

TWO SENSE

BY MIKE BARRY

Nevada Southern University students demonstrated today. The students had no gripe against the administration, or the Board of Regents, or the Legislature this time; they were not spurred by some new political move; they were motivated by just one thing: the students (all men) were on an old-fashioned panty raid.

The interaction of souls was staged just outside the north door of the new girl's dormitory. There was some fear that the beautiful facilities might be damaged as the activities were something ferocious. One of the more enterprising men crept into the east entrance and set off the fire alarm hoping to bring the imprisoned contingent to the ground floor and out onto the emerald green of the lushly landscaped grounds. The effort ultimately failed however as the dorm mother locked the doors from the inside and told the girls to return to their rooms. The girls were further instructed to lock their mahogany-paneled doors and glistening windows, and to dowse their lights, thus throwing the fascinating facility into dismal darkness.

The men were finally dispersed to their respective dormitories by the Buildings and Grounds Department's police force, who used tear gas and water balloons to intimidate the carousing gentlemen.

The Dean of Men said he would take action immediately to punish the offenders. He cited the possibility of denying them access to the Dining Commons or the Student Union for a period of time as possible reprisals, but did not commit himself as to the action he would take at this time.

Awards Dance, Beach Party End Calendar

C.S.N.S. social events reached a successful end during the weekend of May 14-16 with the annual Awards Dance on last Friday and the first annual Spring Beach Party held on last Sunday at the Vegas Wash on Lake Mead.

Nearly 200 students attended the Awards Dance at which the

C.S.N.S. Executive Committee presented its appreciation citations for 1964-1965. Those receiving gift awards included members of the Senate, and the Executive Committee. In addition, various students associated with the co-ordination of student events were given certificates of appreciation. These awards were given to members of the C.S.N.S. social and publicity committees (SEC), and also to student publications.

Lifetime C.S.N.S. activity cards were presented to Bob Moon, David Shay, Don Hughes, Jerry Dick, and George Small, all associated with university athletics, and to Ben Knowles, the current President Pro Tempore of the Senate. William Daley, 1964-65 C.S.N.S. President was elected the most outstanding student of 1964-1965.

Sigma Gamma

The Spring Cotillion, presented by Sigma Gamma, was held May 7 at the Elks Hall and was deemed very successful. We wish to thank Bob Maize, Lloyd Johnson, Jack Larsen, and Joe Bernier for their contributions. Also, the Elks, for borrowing (?) our balloons and decorations.

We held annual elections May 9 and our glorious officers are: Pat Stafford, president; Dave Gartenberg, vice-president; Guy Nesbit, secretary; Drew Rounds, treasurer; Steve Moore, parliamentarian; and Louis Hilligas, pledge trainer.

The dwindling Beta pledge class hosted a barbecue for the actives May 15 and presented them with paddles. No meeting was scheduled for the 16th, so that members could attend the N.S.U. picnic at Boulder Beach. We are looking forward to a busy summer as we will be working on the Community Fair. Everyone is invited to attend.

We wish everybody good luck on their finals and the following celebrations. Sigma Gamma.

should not be discarded as completely useless. All felt the time had come for some type of student action, and that in the "over-all" perspective, N.S.U. was being given the "short end" of the money tree.

Regardless of the present, Hribar has committed his administration to a strong stand toward the regents and University president based on closer communication. Beyond a doubt, this facet of his program should alone provide enough excitement to make 1965-66 a fantasia of C.S.N.S. initiative in the final round a sparring between N.S.U. and the remnants of the so-called "anti-Nevada Southern faction."

I. K. NEWS

Congratulations to Tom Hribar and other C.S.N.S. officers for their victories in the elections two weeks ago. Now maybe we can all get some sleep.

The Intercollegiate Knights had their elections for next year's officers on May 9. The new officers are as follows: Bill Koot, Duke; Chip Mills, Earl; Don Malone, Scribe; Mike Spaulding, Chancellor; Dick Cansdale, Expansion Officer; Bill Cunningham, Executioner; and Ralph Hoffman, Barron. Congratulations to these people. They will all have a big job presenting next year's national convention in addition to our many regular yearly activities.

We would appreciate it if the next time our vice-president decides to get lost in Goodsprings, not knowing exactly where he is, he would let us know when he plans to come back. It is somewhat troublesome to drive 75 miles the next day looking for him.

Thanks to Mr. Clark, Mr. Amaru, Mr. Bazar, and myself, Tom Hribar's billboard was adequately protected, well somewhat protected anyway, through the night before the C.S.N.S. elections. I have learned that Buildings and Grounds would appreciate it if the next time Mr. Bazar and I decide to sleep in the new Social Science building we would please remove our cars from in front of the library before classes begin the next morning. It creates somewhat of a disturbance on campus.

Congratulations go to Judy Plant for her victory in the election for Cotillion Queen. Judy was the I.K.'s candidate for this honor.

On Saturday, May 8, the I.K.'s and Sigma Gamma were invited to a party in Henderson. The party was staged by Nu Sigma Upsilon at the residence of Gigi Espinosa. The event was very successful and we would all like to extend our thanks to Gigi for putting up with all the noise.

Our Service Center will close soon so buy some of our fresh doughnuts; we need the money!

We would like to extend our sincere appreciation to all those concerned for helping us make this our most successful year yet. We hope that next year will be greater, and from all outward indications it will be. Have a good summer and we will see y'all next year.

COED SEEKS BEAUTY TITLE

Joanne Stefanatos, a second-semester sophomore at Nevada Southern, is seeking to become the Nevada representative in the 1965 Miss Universe Pageant to be held at the Tropicana Hotel Saturday, May 22, at 12 noon. The competition brings together some of the most beautiful girls in the state.

Born in New York City, Joanne attended Julia Richman School there, which is an honor institution. At N.S.U. she is majoring in Pre-med, and currently maintains a 3.0 GPA.

She stands 5'6" tall, weighs 116 lbs., and measures 34-22-34.

This year's pageant is being sponsored by the Tropicana Hotel, Franco Perfumes, Great Lords of London, and the Tropicana Golf and Country Club Motor Hotel.

The Nevada Southern University Athletic Department held its fourth annual All-Sports Banquet last Tuesday night at the El Cortez. Alex Hannun of the San Francisco Warriors of the N.B.A. was the guest speaker.

Robert Comeau gave awards to all those connected with cross country track and field, and freshman basketball. No awards were given in cross country or track and field because both programs are quite new at N.S.U. Mention was given, although to Art Hughes for his fine efforts in both the discus and javelin. The Outstanding Freshman Player Award went to Harry Maloney for his contribution to both the school and the team.

Ed Gregory, who coached the Rebel's basketball team to a 21-8 record and a play-off berth, presented the basketball awards. The Most Valuable Player Award went to Silas Stepp as did the Top Scorer Award and the Top Rebounder Award. Sy's contribution to both the team and the school qualifies him to be called Mr. Basketball N.S.U. The Best Free Throw Award went to Bob Moon and Roosevelt Lee who both shot 82%. The Sportsmanship Award was given to Jerry Dick who played and lettered three years of varsity basketball. Life Membership was given to David Shay who graduated last year and now is a coach at Boulder City. Jerry Dick was also given a Life Membership Award.

Athletic Director Chub Drakulich presented the baseball awards. This was N.S.U.'s first winning season and to commemorate the event Lee Syphus presented a plaque to Chub. A plaque was also given to Jerry Goyeneche, the assistant coach. The Outstanding Pitcher Award was given to Bruce Berman who had an 8-3 record. The Outstanding Hitter Award went to Bruce Layne who played first base and hit .382. The Most Valuable Player Award was given to second baseman Bob Knepp.

The Banquet was the highlight of a very successful season for athletics at N.S.U. All students can be very proud of the athletic program at N.S.U. because of the fine performances turned in and because of the athletes.

PACK POWER

Rebels Drop Two at Reno, End Slate

The Nevada Southern "Rebel" baseball team dropped both ends of a two game series to the University of Nevada at Reno, at Moana Stadium in Reno last weekend. The two wins gave UofN a decisive edge in the series with NSU. UofN has won eight of nine games between the schools.

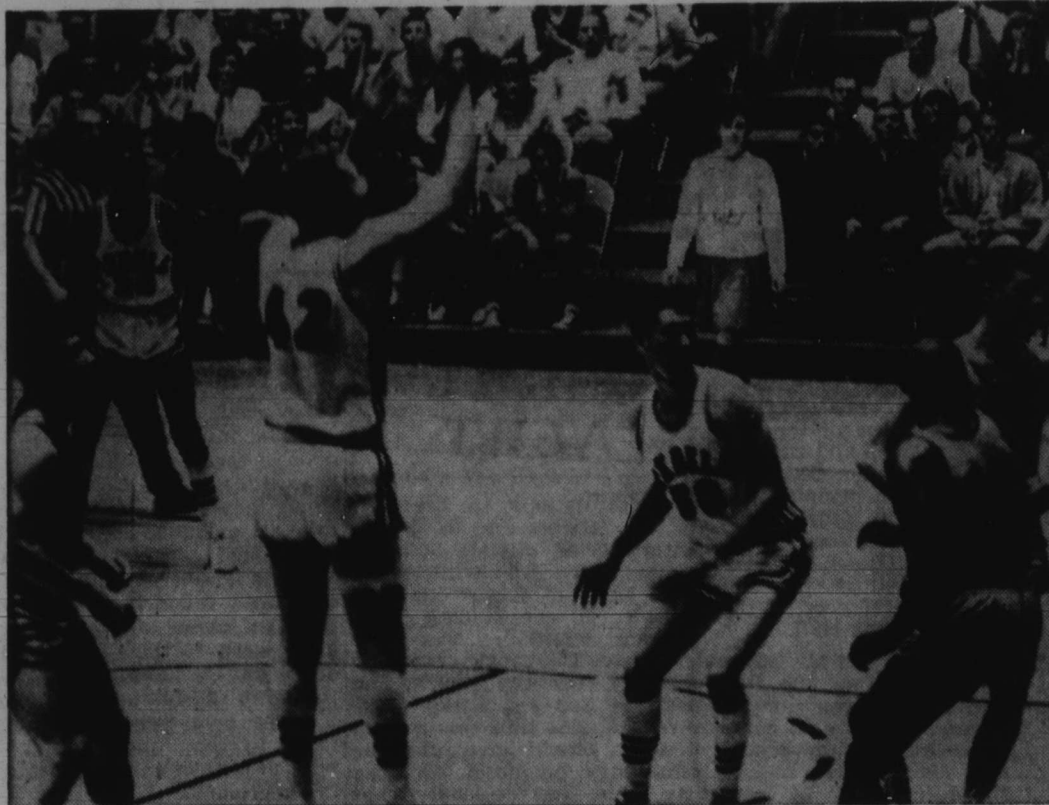

Keith Stauffer led UofN in the first game with two home runs and two doubles of NSU's starting pitcher Bruce Berman and Lee Syphus who came in in the third inning. The Wolf Pack added three more extra base hits in an 18-hit attack. Bruce Layne hit a solo home run for NSU and Frendy De-Jong hit a triple. The final score was 11-9.

The Wolf Pack took the second game by a score of 11-2. The pitcher Dan Keller had a shutout going to the seventh inning when the Rebels came up with their only runs of the game. Keller also went 2-4 at the plate and Gilliam hit a home run for U. of N. Steve Overstreet was charged with the loss as he went all the way for NSU. It was his third loss with two wins. Caponetto provided the only power for NSU with a triple.

On May 3, NSU was in Flagstaff to play Arizona State College. Lee Syphus started and picked up the loss in the first game. The score was 10-4 with ASC getting all their runs during the fourth and sixth innings.

On May 6 and 7, the University of California at Riverside was here for three games. NSU won all three games by the scores of 8-3, 6-1, and 9-6.

ACTION BEGINS NEXT DECEMBER—Rebel basketball will again feature the University of Montana in the 1965 Holiday Classic in December. This shot is from the 1964 game between the Rebs and Grizzlies. Currently, the Rebels are undergoing spring drills.

WARRIORS LAMENT CHAMBERLAIN TRADE

Alex Hannem, coach of the NBA San Francisco Warriors, was guest speaker at the 4th Annual Nevada Southern All-Sports Banquet held at the El Cortez Hotel on Tuesday evening. A man of subtle talk, Hannem sought to stay away from the big question of the evening, why did the Warriors trade Wilt Chamberlain, the "greatest scoring" machine in the history of basketball in the United States?

Hannem's prepared text obviously lacked any reference to the trade this year between San Francisco and the Philadelphia 76er's which stunned fans of NBA cage action. However, in a question from the floor, Hannem was forced to express just why Wilt was traded.

He explained that the greatness of Chamberlain, being of the immense nature it is, forces many fans to root against him. As a result, and specifically in San Francisco, the Warriors were paying an immense salary to a great player, but were not getting any return at the gate.
