CSNS Richer Than They Knew

Neumann Uncovers 6,000 Dollars

A $6,000 increase over their anticipated revenue has been received by CSNS. This announcement was made by Mr. Reuben Neumann, newly reappointed to the position of Faculty Fiscal Advisor, at the Executive Committee meeting, Nov. 17.

Several other important matters were discussed at the meeting, stemming from special committee reports. Chuck Crawford stated that the Senate has set up investigation commissions to discuss the Student Bill of Rights, ROTC, and resolutions to amend the CSNS Constitution by-laws regarding loans to campus organizations.

Terry Lindberg was present to report on the Student Union Conference which he and Miss Schwaegerle attended. He stated that he felt it was urgent that a Student Union Board be elected as soon as possible to insure student representation. He also announced that a bid had been made for NSU to be the site of the regional convention next year. However, NSU lost the bid by one vote — Reno's.

Two appointments were made at the meeting. Mr. Neumann was named Faculty Fiscal Advisor to CSNS, and Mimi Kissner was appointed Epilogue Business Manager.

A bill concerning The Freedom Shrine, a memorial which will house famous United States documents to be placed on the first floor of the new Student Union, was passed by the Executive Board. However, the matter still must be considered by the Student Union Board which will be elected in January and by the Senate.

Bruce Heskett and Chuck Crawford were appointed Chairman and Co-Chairman, respectively, of Model United Nations. Crawford stated that MUN would consist of a class of approximately 19 students. This is a greater number than was expected, so more delegates will be sent to the national convention. MUN therefore requested a $200 increase in their budget, which was granted by the Executive Committee.

Several announcements should be noted by students and organizations according to Mike Clark. They are posted on the CSNS bulletin board on the first floor of Tonopah Hall.

The student directory is expected to be out next week. ID card listings have been received, but the cards will not be printed until Senate recommendations concerning using Athletic Department cards have been made. President Clark stated that NSU participation in the YMCA is going well and several persons will be attending the YMCA Conference in Santa Maria, California, this week.

All students are welcome to attend Executive Committee meetings, which are held every other Friday in President Mike Clark's office, Room 119, of Tonopah Hall.

3 LV Regents Miss Meet; Humphrey Sets Up Office

By GREG WADDILOVE

Despite the absence of three out of five Las Vegas regents, Nevada Southern University profited handsomely at the Oct. 30 Board of Regents meeting held in Reno.

Missing from the Las Vegas contingent were Mr. Thomas Bell, Mr. Paul McDermott and Mr. Archie Grant.

Acting University President Neil D. Humphrey announced that he will maintain an office at NSU one day a week and make additional visits as necessary.

Mr. Humphrey's action came as a result of recent and intense criticism of administrative attitudes and policy toward NSU, which culminated in the resignation of University of Nevada President Charles J. Armstrong.

Acting President Humphrey said he took this course of action to inform himself better of NSU's particular problems.

Also initiated was the activation of the President's Advisory Cabinet (PAC). Provided for in the University Code, the PAC had not been utilized by President Armstrong for several years.

NSU's interest in the PAC is twofold. The function of the Cabinet is to advise the University President on the needs and problems of both campuses as well as to formulate the agenda for the Board of Regents meetings.

The President's Advisory Cabinet will include Chancellors Donald C. Moyer and N. Edd Miller and the Vice-President of the University, Wendell Mordy.

When the PAC develops the University's ten-year budget, and the 1969-71 biennial budget, the chairmen of the faculty senates from both campuses will be appointed to the cabinet. Professor Robert Rieke is the NSU faculty Senate chairman.

NSU officials and CSNS representatives have been generally laudatory of President Humphrey's actions, feeling that they will aid NSU to gain equal status with Reno.

Others are more skeptical, pointing at the recent Sagebrush article which ridiculed NSU's position, calling it young and unworthy. It is felt by many here that that is the prevailing northern attitude toward NSU.

Most important to Nevada Southern is the yet-to-be-decided question of administrative reorganization of the state university system. This will be determined at next month's Regents' meeting.

The reorganization plan sought by NSU is being presented to the Board of Regents by Dr. Herbert Childs, Professor of English, Oregon State University.

The purpose of the NSU-sponsored plan is to elevate the two chancellors to a position of authority similar to that now held by the president of the University. Furthermore, this would serve to make the men as well as the institutions they represent equals in fact to the Board of Regents.

Student Body President Mike Clark and CSNS First Vice-President Charles Crawford, attended the Nov. 11 Regents' meeting. Clark will be on the agenda for the next meeting and will voice his opinions on the reorganization question.

JFK's Close Friend, Fay, To Lecture Here Monday

Paul B. Fay, one of John Kennedy's closest personal friends and author of the newly-published book, "The Pleasure of His Company," will appear here Dec. 4, as the second speaker in the University's Lecture-Concert Series.

The program will be held at 8:30 p.m. in the Social Science Auditorium, with general admission set at $1.00.

Fay's unique lecture is titled

"John F. Kennedy, a Book Subject and a Friend."

Fay, Under Secretary of the Navy during the Kennedy administration, served on Navy PT boats during World War II with the former President and was one of his closest personal friends from 1942 to 1963. His new Harper and Row Book, "The Pleasure of His Company," recounts many of the experiences resulting from this relationship.

Nevada Southern Becomes 100th Chapter of Phi Kappa Phi

The 100th chapter of Phi Kappa Phi was established at NSU Nov. 20, and an investigation of possibilities of bringing Phi Beta Kappa here is now underway.

Phi Kappa Phi is a member of the National Honor Society Association and must maintain high standards to retain its membership. Consequently, NSU can be assured that it is definitely becoming academically recognized.

There are 23 faculty and 7 student charter members of Phi Kappa Phi on campus who will select the first group of NSU members. Limited selections will begin in Dec. and Jan. while the full-scale operation begins in the spring.

Requirements are scholarship and character. Seniors must have at least a 3.20 GPA and must rank in the upper one-eighth of their class. Requirement for juniors is an overall 3.60 GPA, also in the upper one-eighth of their class. A 3.75 or above is needed for graduate students. There are no "major" requirements.

Mr. Dallas W. Norton, Director of Admissions, who is spear-heading the movement, states, "This is a goal to which students can aspire from their first semester."

Dr. John Steinbeck, head of the language department here, has been appointed chairman of a committee to investigate the possibility of

'3 Sisters' Tryouts Set for Next Week

Dr. Jerry L. Crawford, Dean of Faculty and Professor of Drama, has announced preliminary tryout dates for the spring play he will direct, The Three Sisters, Anton Chekhov's classic Russian tragicomedy.

Tryouts will be held Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 6 and 7, from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. in the Little Theatre, Grant Hall 125. Copies of the play are presently on reserve in the Library for reading purposes. There are major roles for 5 women and 9 men.

Dr. Crawford plans to cast the play early to increase the time for actors to study their parts. The cast will meet once a week for discussion until February when actual rehearsals begin. The play opens in late March and will run seven performances during the spring Fine Arts Festival.

Dr. Crawford urges all interested persons to tryout for The Three Sisters.

Crawford Announces Dates For Spring Pre-registration

For the first time in Nevada Southern University's history regular full-time students will be able to pre-register for the Spring Semester which begins Jan. 29.

Those who intend to carry seven or more credit hours will be eligible to pre-register Dec. 4 through 15. Formal advisement by faculty members will be available during that period, according to Dean of Faculty Jerry L. Crawford, and class cards will be available in the various school offices.

Although pre-registration is held each Fall, this is the first time it will be tried for the Spring Semester.

Spring schedules will be published shortly before Dec. 4, Registrar Miss Muriel Parks reports.

However, no student will be permitted to pre-register without first obtaining his adviser's signature on a card verifying that a program has been approved, Dean Crawford said.

Miss Parks cautioned the students, however, that no changes can be made in the schedules of pre-registrants once the process is completed until Spring classes begin.

Special students signing up for six or fewer credits will enroll during their regular registration day on Jan. 31.

It's after mid-terms . . . it's before Christmas . . . in other words it's term papers.
 It's Reader's Guides . . . it's choosing sides . . . it's taking out books it's getting dirty looks . . . it's finding the right page . . . it's being trapped . . . in a cage . . . it's writing footnotes . . . it's tallying poll votes it's new outlines . . . it's library fines.
 Oh . . . it's . . . term papers.

We often wonder when we hear students complain about homework. Usually, they're the ones that go to school, go home, go to sleep, wake up, go to school, etc. They're never the ones that hold two or three paying jobs while also actively involved in campus activities and carrying 20-some odd credits. Never.

Why don't these "students" start doing something — anything — so they can have something to complain about? It seems absolutely untrue that school and work (paying or nonpaying) can't go hand in hand. In fact, the person who merely concentrates all his energies into the classroom is missing vital new experiences equally, if not more, important than book knowledge.

There is undoubtedly something waiting for everybody — even the laziest. With a little ambition, there should be no reason why anyone shouldn't be able to find some kind of a job. The bulletin board outside Student Affairs has dozens of prospects alone. Has it been checked lately?

Have you checked yourself lately? Are you making use of what you may find later to be precious time? Think about where you're going and get moving.

Everyone kids the dining hall. . . .
 It's typical on any campus. When there's nothing to write about, kid the dining hall. Naturally, you're criticized for doing it. But what the hell? Kid the food. Kid the service. Kid the accommodations.

But—when the Dining Hall starts disobeying health regulations—when students start getting sick—when hospitals become involved—when doctors diagnose food poisoning—
 Maybe the joke is over.

Sakatamy, baby. . . .
 In case you haven't noticed, the Checkmates are in town . . . and it seems we're taken advantage of every minute of it, rockin' them into our dances, concerts, benefits, and what have you. Can't tell what these five guys got more of—good nature or energy. But whatever it is, we should be awfully thankful (especially after Thanksgiving) that they've got it . . . no other group could be pulling in the money for us like they are.

You know, if you really want to give thanks, I bet the guys would love to see NSU represented at their out-of-sight C.P. Nero's Nook sets. One problem only—3 x 7 age minimum.

Maybe we should make them honorary students or something?

We guess NSU really is on the move . . .

The Confessional

There goes ROTC, there goes the University Presidency issue, there go any number of other issues which are of great importance to the Nevada Southern University campus, BUT, we, as representatives of the student body, cannot allow the election and nomination of the third Homecoming Queen to go by without taking a very strong stand. This issue is just too important!

Is it? Recently it was decided by vote of the Homecoming Committee that women's groups on the campus should nominate candidates for the honor of Homecoming Queen. However, the next day Mike Clark, CSNS President, came to Joe Lendini, CSNS Second Vice President and Homecoming Committee chairman, to inform him that he planned to take a "strong stand" against Lendini concerning the manner in which the Queen will be nominated. WOW . . .

Clark did—and the nomination procedure was changed at the next meeting.

On to more trivia . . . recently the

TO THE EDITOR:

With basketball season here, I feel that it is time to boast; and I certainly am proud of the large group within the Pep Commission this year.

First of all, the J.V. games will be a little more exciting this season because there will be five energetic J.V. cheerleaders on the floor. They are Connie Bonnafini, Toni Mau, Helene Fiori, Madelene Klenke and Marilyn Hall.

The Varsity cheerleading squad should certainly prove to be one of the best groups to come out of NSU. They attended Redlands University Cheerleaders Clinic and walked away with all blue ribbons this past summer.

Members of the squad are Vicki Wilson (head cheerleader), Darlene Workman, Connie Fortier, Marie Warner, Marcia Nelson, and Marsha Goodwin. The yell leaders are John Lundquist (head yell leader), Gary Nelson, Rick Duke, and Mike Rior-don.

There is another attractive addition, too—that of the NSU Re-belles. This group consists of 12 rhythmic girls who are always in step when they are working with their pom poms. The girls are Judy Fleishman, Susan Kiddy, Jill Mc-

CSNS Senate, by a vote of 5-0-0, revoked the lifetime membership of a former student body president, Jack Abell. In addition to having been president, Abell served in a number of other capacities during his four years at Nevada Southern, and even now, after graduation, continues his many hours of work.

Why was it revoked? Well, according to Charles Ivy, who made the motion, the Constitution states that a president who is nominated for life membership must not be present when he is voted upon. Jack Abell was present when they voted on a motion which received unanimous approval. Mike Clark, the present CSNS President, proposed that motion.

Since Ivy was a Senator last year when the original vote was taken, and since the only reason lifetime membership was revoked was Abell's presence during the voting, we must assume and EXPECT that a new vote will be taken at the next joint session, which should be coming up soon, to PROPERLY reinstate Abell's lifetime membership. That is, unless, of course, Ivy's motion was made for another reason?

What about this, students? The other night at a Homecoming Committee meeting it was brought out that there are certain social groups on campus which would not participate in all of the Homecoming events because they have, as yet, not been recognized by the Campus Organization Commission.

However, a member of the committee then stated that these groups no longer had to be bothered with CSNS because they would, henceforth and forever more, be recognized through the Office of Student Affairs and particularly Dean A.T. Smith and Mr. Paul Schofield.

This is all fine, but what happened to CSNS? Shouldn't the "students" government have something to say about the student groups that come on campus? There has been no legislation from the CSNS Senate which calls for the re-evaluation of the duties of COC. Therefore, without such legislation one must assume that the role of student government in the area of student groups remains unchanged.

Advice from administrators individually or from administrative committees is one thing, BUT when advice suddenly becomes policy. . . .

A Letter to the Editor

Coy, Rita Haddad, Linda Clark, Karen Jenson, Myla Blom, Margo Blom, Linda Dopico, Sandy Spayer, and Marcia Faunce.

It is said that the best is usually saved until last. Well, in this case, all groups are tops, but the Pep Band this year has really improved over last year's effort. It has grown from 6 members last year to the present group of 20.

I would like to thank many of the departments, for without their supervision I do not feel our success within the Pep Commission would have been as fruitful.

Mr. Keith Moon of the Music Department has been extra generous with his time in helping to co-ordinate the Pep Band. Also, we owe a special thank you to Dr. Howard Chase who set up a credited class for the Pep Band.

Mrs. Todd and Miss Pierson of the P.E. Department have had their hands full in teaching over 27 girls (and that is a lot!) in one class.

I hope everyone will be as happy and proud of the 1967-68 Pep Commission as I am. The way students can show their pride is by supporting the commission and coming to the games.

Apathy Strong on Campus

"I don't care what happens, as long as I get an "A" out of that class." How many degrees will be bestowed this year across the nation to students who no more deserve degrees than fly? For many, the only objective in sight, as far as college goes, is a degree, but we wonder if these goal oriented intellectuals aren't missing something along the way.

Where would we be today without empiricism, science, and logic? Well, let's see where we are. As ridiculous as it may seem, few people know and fewer have bothered to even wonder. Caught up in the all-important humdrum of daily tribulations, the world outside of our individual phantasma is slowly eaten away by apathy. Subjectivity occupies the highest echelon of unconscious activity as we almost systematically devolve into cold indifference. Whatever became of empathy and sympathy, and all the attributes accorded to those who care, feel, and try to understand? Whatever has become of man?

Let us make application of the above to NSU. Hundreds of students here have heard of CSNS, never read a copy of this newspaper nor have any knowledge of its existence, and refuse to recognize the fact that they are partaking freely from an academic community, yet are exerting no effort to compensate in any way for services rendered. Such members of our glorious student body can possibly be referred to as "low man on the totem pole."

As we continue up the ladder of subtle mediocrities, the next step is occupied by the critics. "The REBEL YELL is one of the poorest college papers I have ever seen." Yet we see no one madly rushing front page news to the Editor. If we pass the hat around for contributions for a more adequate student newspaper, the same 20 or 30 people who do everything else for CSNS would end up sole contributors.

"The Senate is a classic collection of moronic do-nothings." At 9 o'clock every Monday night, a Senate meeting is conducted in the dormitory. But where are all these enthusiastic liberals clamoring for their rights? Meeting time was even changed to the afternoon to increase student body participation, but the same people make their appearances and no one else bothers. If you do not exercise or realize your rights, you have and deserve none.

So much for the critics.

Well, you complete your four years of systemized processing without any notion of the meaning of creativity, no knowledge that satisfaction comes from trying and giving, not necessarily possessing. You have accomplished prescribed goals: broadened your vocabulary, soaked up assigned reading material, rotely memorized a concept or two, and for this you now possess that coveted prize — a degree.

"What kind of student are you?" isn't the important question now, rather "What kind of human being are you?" The roles played by the college student are in many cases indicative of the degree to which one will involve himself in affairs which should be his own.

We need leaders and we need activists and we need them now. There is much to be done but the same people cannot continue to it all. The most prevalent aspect of this campus is a pejorative one — apathy — and if you can't fight it here, on a small scale, what are you going to do in a world full of it?

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"YES, THAT'S RIGHT—I WANT 1800 GET WELL CARDS."

To Focus on Understanding

United Ministry Plans New Center

By SONJA MOSSE

Chancellor Donald C. Moyer called and hosted a meeting for nine leaders of the religious community to discuss strategy and further direction of a possible campus ministry at NSU.

Reverend Jerome G. Blankenship, pastor of the University Methodist Church and Professor of Sociology conceived the idea of a University Religious Movement. Dr. Ben Owen and Chancellor Moyer have been working with Blankenship on his suggestion.

Religious leaders who attended the meeting include The Reverends William Roberts, Douglas Harrell, Melvin Pekrul, Kenneth Roush, Duane Zimmerman, Mike Friedman, Father Robert Simpson, Bishop William Wright, and Rabbi Aaron Gold.

This committee of local clergy has been assigned the formulating interdenominational program. They have the active cooperation of the United Ministries in Higher Education (a united Protestant commission of seven denominations), the Roman Catholic Diocese of Reno, the Episcopal Diocese of Nevada, the Los Angeles Area of the Methodist Church (which includes Southern Nevada), and other theological groups.

"Such a movement would present a united and cooperative approach to the religious needs NSU community, despite sectarian differences," Reverend Blankenship commented.

Dr. Owen feels that it would be a very worthwhile program for students, especially those away from home and those who do not belong to any certain church group.

It would be a unique, creative "United Ministry," he explained, centering on the pursuit of truth, the support of human values, concern for individuals, and a sense of involvement in the ethical and moral decisions of our day.

"It focus will not be the uniqueness of Jesus Christ in history, but rather the recognition that our commitments take different forms and involve different understandings."

It is hoped that some structures and programs for the interdenominational movement can be worked out within the next six months. Its program will be designed especially for the NSU campus but perhaps could be a model for other universities.

NSU Debates at Sacramento Meet

"Should the Federal government guarantee an annual cash income to all citizens?" This national question and many other locally selected topics are regularly debated by the NSU Forensics club.

The most recent battle rounds took place at the Western Speech Association tournament last Saturday and Sunday at Sacramento State College. Approximately 75 per cent of the colleges and universities in the Western United States were represented there.

This student organization is composed of its moderator, Mr. Mike Wallinger and debaters Dennis King, Larry Trunkey, Mike Myers, Bob Runkle, Bruce Adams and Sid Goldstein.

Formed on this campus a few years ago, the group is now active in many contests throughout the Western states.

Mr. Wallinger explains its primary purpose and scope is "to give each individual student training in both logical thought and oral presentation of that thought."

He added, "There is more than just competition involved."

During the past month, the NSU Forensics group has been involved in several meets. On Oct. 21, the group traveled to Arizona State University, at Tempe, Ariz., and recorded a modest record of two wins and three losses.

"We are a young team," Wallinger explained, "and we need more experience, but I am fairly optimistic about our future."

Later that month the group traveled to Brigham Young University, at Provo, Utah, and came back with an improved record of six wins and six losses.

The motivation of this group is reflected by the work involved. "On the average, a student spends from 8 to 12 hours research on a topic, plus the fact that many of the students in this group are only involved as an extra curricular activity," Mr. Wallinger said.

Mr. Wallinger expressed a desire to host an inter-collegiate tournament at NSU, but, he explained, "the school doesn't possess the physical facilities for an event such as this. Las Vegas is a tremendous draw, and I know that we could get a terrific response to our invitation."

As far as future plans go for a debate tournament at NSU, Mr. Wallinger stated that he is presently organizing a tournament here that will include all of the high schools within Clark County. Mr. Wallinger then went on to explain, "I eventually would like to expand this program with the high schools to include high schools throughout the Western states."

Dorm Meeting Set

The lounge on the third floor of Tonopah Hall is now co-educational on Monday through Thursday, between the hours of 7 and 10 p.m., Friday and Saturday, 7 through 12 p.m., and Sunday, 2 through 10 p.m.

A lecturer from "Vista" will give a talk and show films and slides on Dec. 7 in the third floor lounge. All are welcome.

College Students Sought For Federal Traineeships

In an effort to motivate young college students towards careers in Federal government, the Job Information Center in Sacramento, Calif., has opened a Student Trainee announcement appropriate to all Federal agencies in California and Nevada.

The announcement offers pre-professional training during the summer vacation to college students. Upon graduation, the students are eligible for a continuing career position in their chosen field.

Practically all options of professional engineering are covered by the announcement as well as positions in the Life Sciences, Agriculture, Physical Sciences and Accounting.

While on the job, student trainees will work under the guidance of professional personnel in the specialized field which they select. Although working primarily under guidance, students will have the opportunity to assist in a variety of projects.

According to the Civil Service Commission, this opportunity should not be construed as temporary summer employment. Rather, persons selected will initially receive permanent appointments and will be eligible for professional positions upon graduation from college. They are retained on Federal rolls during the entire scholastic year in a leave without pay status and reemployed each summer.

Applicants for GS-3 level jobs will be rated eligible if they have at least one year of academic study completed, 30 semester or 45 quarter hours, and if they pass the written test. Eligibility at the GS-4 level requires at least two and one-half years of completed academic study as well as a passing test score. The GS-3 starts at $82 per week while the GS-4 starts at $92 per week.

Interested students should contact the Federal Job Center at 300 Las Vegas Blvd. So. Test sites, which are located in 54 California and Nevada cities, will be listed in announcements available by contacting the Federal Job Centers.

After the registration fiasco of some weeks ago, our able-minded Registrar's Office has come up with a new program — preregistration — which, from what we hear, means students can start registering in December, thereby relieving so much of the pressure and confusion that surrounded last semester's signing-up. It will also eliminate last minute cancellations of class sections and, in general, just the usual mess.

Give thanks again.

Exams for Summer Jobs Now Open

The Civil Service Commission today announced a new summer employment examination for 1968 which will replace two separate nationwide exams given last year.

Seasonal assistant jobs in the postal service and a number of jobs in the grade range of GS-1 through GS-4, such as typists, stenographers, clerks, and engineering and science aids in other Federal agencies, will be filled from the new examination.

To assure all applicants an equal chance to compete for the jobs that will be open next summer, candidates who achieved eligibility or employment last summer must recomplete if they wish to be considered for summer work in 1968.

The examination will be given throughout the Nation on December 9, January 13, February 10, and March 9. Federal agencies will begin making selections after the second test has been processed, so the Commission has urged interested persons to apply early.

Complete information about all summer job opportunities with Federal agencies and complete application procedures, may be found in the Civil Service Commission's Announcement No. 414, "Summer Jobs in Federal Agencies."

The announcement is available at the Interagency Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, Room 1-1614, Federal Building, 300 Las Vegas Blvd. South, Las Vegas, Nevada, 89101, telephone number 385-6345.

Parents To Visit Kappa Sig House

The actives and pledges of Kappa Sigma fraternity have invited their parents to visit their house at 3390 Oneida Way tonight at 8 p.m.

This will enable the parents to familiarize themselves with the fraternity, its officers, actives, and pledges.

Actives and pledges will also tour Palm Mortuary to raise money.

Saturday afternoon, the actives of Kappa Sigma and Chi Sigma Chi will compete against their pledges in a football game on the athletic field.

The Selective Service Sez: Read, 2-S-er Your Life's at Stake!

Question:

I am now deferred in Class II-S as a college student. If I enlist in the National Guard what, if anything, will happen to my student deferment?

Answer:

When your local board receives evidence that you have completed such enlistment, you will be reclassified from Class II-S to Class I-D (member of a Reserve component).

Question:

I have received my Order to Report for Induction. Is it too late for me to enlist in the Regular Navy?

Answer:

If you can present convincing evidence to the State Director of Selective Service of the State in which your local board is located that a representative of the Regular Navy is prepared to enlist you on or before the date set for your induction, your Order to Report for Induction may be cancelled to permit your enlistment.

Question:

My local board has classified me in Class I-S(C). I am a junior in college and was wondering how long I may retain that classification?

Answer:

You may be retained in Class I-S(C) until the end of your academic year or until you cease to satisfactorily pursue your course of instruction, whichever is the earlier.

Question:

If a person liable for registration with the Selective Service System failed to register within five days after his 18th birthday, what should he do?

Answer:

He should go to the nearest Local Board of the Selective System without delay and register. He should follow this as soon as possible with a letter to his Local Board of jurisdiction explaining the delay.

Question:

When a Local Draft Board declares a registrant to be a delinquent is he called ahead of other registrants and what is a delinquent?

Answer:

Yes. Delinquents are called ahead of all other registrants. A delinquent is a person that is required to be registered under the Military Selective Service Law who fails or neglects to perform any duty required of him under the provision of the law.

These duties include: late registrants; aliens ignoring obligations; failure to keep registrant's Local Board advised of a change of status or change of address; not having a Selective Service registration card or current classification card in his possession or mutilating or abandoning his registration card or his current notice of classification; failure to report for examination or induction.

Question:

If a person is over age 26 and is declared to be a delinquent, can he still be inducted?

Answer:

Yes. A registrant deferred on or after June 19, 1961, remains liable for training and service until age 35. Additionally, any person who has failed or refused to report for induction remains liable for induction and shall be immediately inducted, regardless of age.

Honors Program Burgeoning at NSU

"NSU is now attracting a higher percentage of honor students than ever before," stated Dr. Richard H. Byrns, co-ordinator of the newly established Honor's Program.

"To provide an intellectual challenge for those students, several Honor's courses are offered in both upper and lower divisions."

The basic requirement for admission to Honor's is an overall GPA of 3.00 or above. However this does not guarantee admittance since the classes are of limited size.

Freshmen were notified of eligibility during the summer while upper division students entered the program by contacting their advisors.

Dr. Byrns commented, "The program is rapidly expanding and double sections in the lower division classes of English, Political Science, and Colloquia are anticipated in the future."

Freshman candidates for the Honor's Program with grade point average of 3.50 and over this year were:

Patty Abraham, Duane Bartle, Glenda Beahm, Chris Beecroft, Charles Briggs, Wanda Jo Christensen, Arnie Cunningham, Gerald Wesley Davis, Susan Ferrell, Donald Jay Ferris.

Diana Goff, Robert Guilford, Rita Haddad, Sandra Havas, Joni Hurst, Catherine Jones, Rex Lundberg, James Moody, Henry Nelson.

Rita Ogron, Louise Papile, Walter Robinson, Tanya Stanworth, Andrea Toulouse, Ursula Vasilko, Melody Waesdn.

Those candidates with GPA's of 3.00 to 3.50 were:

Charlene Adams, Robert Anderson, Susan Anderson, Carol Andrews, Carolyn Barsanti, Lawrence Brown, Savannah Brown, Kim Butler, Jerry Calvanese, Donna Clarkson, Catherine Crockett, Rheta Croxton.

Marcella Dawes, Robert Dibble, Susan Fox, Anita Graham, Salvatore Gugino, Bonnie Hickson, Allen Humble, David Johnson, Jeanine Kingsbury, John Lansford, Elaine Lucas.

James B. Neal, William O'Dea, La Vonne Odegard, Kim Olson, Jeni Pryor, Jay Ressler, Candy Schumacher, Myron Seegniller, Linda Smart, Richard Sommers, Judy Trim, Frances Wright, Cynthia Yeager.

Members of the honor's program in the upper division are:

Opera Tryouts Will Be Held At NSU

Local aspirants to the opera stage will soon have an opportunity to display their vocal talents and compete for one of the coveted Metropolitan Opera National Council awards when the Las Vegas auditions are held at Nevada Southern University, Dr. Howard Chase, chairman of the NSU Department of Music and recently appointed Las Vegas District Director of Auditions for the Met has announced.

Application forms are now being distributed and are available at Dr. Chase's office, Rm. 139, Social Science Hall.

All interested singers should write or call Dr. Chase immediately so that all arrangements will be taken care of well in advance of the audition date, which is Jan. 6 at 2:00 p.m., in Social Science Lecture Hall.

Judges for the auditions will be Mrs. Marjorie Andersen, a former Met auditions District Director; Mr. John Gutowski, a former member of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and Professor Douglas Peterson, voice coach and conductor of choral music at Nevada Southern University.

Winners of the local auditions will have an opportunity to attend the Regional Auditions in Los Angeles on February 17, and, if selected, will compete in the finals in New York in the fall of 1968.

Mr. Howard J. Hook, National Chairman of the Regional Auditions, has just announced the awards of the 1967 winners. While no Metropolitan Opera contract was awarded this year, there were several large cash awards presented which will allow the winners to continue their study or launch a concert career.

"The world of opera is always in need of fresh, young talent and the directors of the great opera houses never know from which part of the world a voice of great promise is going to come. It has been Iowa City, Iowa and Jackson, Mississippi, and it may very well be Las Vegas, Nevada," Dr. Chase said.

"At any rate," he continued, "we want every qualified singer who feels he has a good opera potential to try for a placement on the Las Vegas auditions, and we want the public to come out and hear them when they audition."

installing Phi Beta Kappa at NSU. There are five charter members on campus. However, it is projected that it will be at least three years before this can become reality and his estimation has it between three and five years.

Phi Kappa Phi officers are Mr. Dallas W. Norton, president; Mrs. Mary H. Wells, vice-president; Dr. John S. Wright, president-elect; Dean Angeline T. Smith, secretary; Mr. Reuben Neumann, treasurer, and Mr. Robert W. Davenport, historian.

The other charter members are Dr. Charles Adams, Dr. W. Glen Bradley, Dr. William D. Carlson, Dr. Howard Chase, Dr. Jerry L. Crawford, Dr. James E. Deacon, Dr. Herbert A. Derfelt, Mr. Herbert Diamante, Mr. Malcolm Graham, Dr. Harrie Hess, Dr. A. Rex Johnson, Dr. Irving Katz, Mr. Chester L. Landaker, Mr. Robert C. Rieke, Mr. Ralph Roske, Dr. Robert B. Smith, Mr. Richard B. Strahlem, Mr. Jerry Vallen, and Mr. Josef Zemek.

Students cannot be charter members but the following have been elected to membership and become affiliated with their chapter as "first" members: Amalie A. Austin, junior; George T. Austin, graduate student; Miss Linda L. Curier, graduate student; Carol J. James, junior; Mrs. Dorothy N. Rounsaville, senior, and Miss Jacqueline Womble, graduate student.

The vice-president of the organization is always a student and, this year, as mentioned above, is Mary H. Wells, a junior.

Students Attend Foreign Aid Seminar

Four NSU students from foreign countries attended an AAUW sponsored meeting last Monday to discuss their respective countries' foreign aid program with a committee of the Las Vegas branch of the Associated American University Women, which is currently engaged in a seminar on the United States' foreign aid policy and its role as the "Great Image Creator."

Moderator Mrs. Marie Winks, who conceived and organized this first assembly, introduced the group and guest speaker Prof. Antonio Lapitan, Assistant Professor of Political Science.

The reasons for the growing gap between rich and poor nations were presented and debated, then followed by questions and suggestions addressed to the four students: Manuela Trapletti, a German major from Italy; Guillermo (Willy) Skelwes, an English major freshman from Chile; Dimitrios Bozini; a graduate student of physics from Greece; and Ku-rosh Kalhor, a business major sophomore from Iran.

These students explained the basic problems of their countries, the most urgently needed type of aid, and the effect of the U.S. program.

Mrs. Joyce Standish, state publicity chairman of AAUW, believes that this meeting of foreign students and AAUW will become an annual event because of its great success and enthusiastic acceptance by the audience of about 60 persons.

"HOLD IT RIGHT THERE, PROFESSOR SNARF, WE WANT A PICTURE OF YOU FOR OUR YEAR BOOK."

Dr. Chase Offers Christmas Vespers Concert

Dr. Howard Chase, Chairman of the Music Department, announced the presentation of the First Annual Christmas Vespers Concert on Sunday, Dec. 10, at 3:00 p.m. in the Social Science Lecture Hall.

The University Chorus and Chamber Singers accompanied by the Woodwin Ensemble, organ, harpsichord, and harp, under the direction of Prof. Douglas Peterson, will perform "The Christmas Story" by Heinrich Schutz, and "The Ceremony of Carols" by Benjamin Britten.

Soloists will be announced next week.

Students and faculty are urged to attend this fine musical program. There will be no admission charge.

Dorm Health Center Dedicated To Records

The main purpose of Tonopah Hall's health center is to keep the student accident insurance records up to date. This is accomplished by Mrs. Bonnie Davis, R.N., and Mrs. Charlotte MacDonald, R.N., who work in the center, room 100, from 7:30-11:30 a.m. and 12:30-3:30 p.m. Monday thru Friday.

Their other responsibilities include keeping the medical records of resident students on file and contacting medical doctors in case of injuries or sicknesses more serious than those requiring first aid. There have been over 60 such incidents this year.

Students should be aware that if an emergency arises when the health center is not open, the resident managers should be notified in Room 101 and the student will be taken to the emergency room at Sunrise Hospital where staff physicians will attend to him.

Delta Sigs Expand

Touchdown-Red and Gray '68 Schedule Announced

By DOMINIC CLARK

Score some points for NSU! Though it took the University of Nevada more than 40 years to reach the level of football they are now attempting, NSU is scheduled to reach that point next year as the infant Rebel football squad faces its first season of foes and a whole new era of Nevada Southern history.

In its initial season, in 1968, NSU will face opponents U. of N. only this year added to its schedule. Then the stage will be set for NSU's first gridiron encounter with Reno on Nov. 22, 1969.

Sept. 14, 1968, is the date set for the beginning of NSU's first intercollegiate football season with a game here against St. Mary's of Moraga, California.

The 1968 grid schedule was announced recently by Coach William Ireland, premiere football mentor for the Rebels, at a meeting of the Nevada Southern University Football Foundation at the Stardust Auditorium.

The Rebels now have a seven-game schedule with one date remaining to be filled. Coach Ireland said that the opponent for Oct. 12 will be selected from a list of interested schools and will be a home game here in Las Vegas.

Ireland also previewed the teams the Rebels will encounter in 1968.

St. Mary's resumed football this fall after a 15-year absence and the galloping Gaels are still remembered for their colorful teams of yesteryear. Ireland noted that "their traditional battles with the University of Nevada Wolf Pack in Kezar Stadium often attracted as many as 60,000 spectators."

The Rebels' first road trip will be to San Bernardino, California, to tangle with Coach Crandall's Azusa-Pacific Cougars. The Cougars play a schedule comparable to that of NSU and at this time have two wins and four losses for the season.

On Sept. 28, the Rebels will invade historic Kezar Stadium, the home of the 49'ers, to take on the rapidly improving Dons of USF. San Francisco, like St. Mary's, is back in football again after a long lay-off and just four weeks ago was stopped on the one-yard line in the closing seconds to drop a 21-20 nod to the University of Nevada Wolf Pack.

The Rebels' third road trip carries them to Los Angeles and a Saturday night meeting with Loyola University. The Lions, another former West Coast powerhouse, just recently returned to football and are enjoying a very successful first year, having lost only once, that a thrilling 20-17 contest with St. Mary's.

College of Southern Utah provides the opposition for Nevada Southern's home game on Nov. 2. CSU is probably the longest standing rivalry on the Rebel sports schedules and a strong football rivalry is expected.

Cal Tech will travel to Las Vegas to close out the 1968 home season. The Engineers, under the great Bert LaBruce, former head coach at UCLA, have a history of fine football teams and should provide some real excitement for this home season finale.

The last game of the season finds the Rebels on the road to encounter the always tough Cal Lutheran College of Thousand Oaks, Calif. Coach Bob Shoup has built a strong football program for the Kingsmen who last year posted an amazing 8-1 record and currently stand 5-2, playing a much rougher schedule.

Ireland stated, "All in all, the 1968 football season promises lots of thrills and excitement and, hopefully, the birth of a great tradition here at NSU."

The Rebel coach also mentioned that the team needed two things. "First we need a little time, then we need a little help."

"We do not aspire to start football at the very top, nor by the same token do we plan to be at the bottom. We will have a responsible football program here at NSU," added Ireland.

"But, at whatever level we do enter football, there will be no double standards," he went on. "We do not wish to hurt our institution."

The crackling, but consistently level-headed Rebel leader emphasized what he thought football will do for NSU and Las Vegas:

"I want something that people here can point to with real PRIDE because they realize we must crawl before we can walk, and we must walk before we can run."

Cagers To Journey To UW, Denver; Will Tackle Chico In Home Opener

Coach Roland Todd and his battling red and gray basketballers hit the road today for two tilts, one in Denver and the other in Wyoming slated for Dec. 1, and Dec. 2.

According to Rebel Coach Todd, Denver and Wyoming must be considered two of the fiercest foes that NSU tackles this season.

Friday's first game in Denver University's Fieldhouse pits the crimson and gold Pioneers against a Rebel squad fresh off of a 109-74 victory over the Alumni.

The Rebels should have their hands full as Coach Troy Bledsoe is expected to unleash some of the nation's finest basketball talent in All-American guard Harry Hollines who had a 24.8 scoring average last season, and 5'10" sophomore guard Horace Kearney who dazzled fans last year when he hit for a 25 point game average as a freshman. The Pioneers finished last season as an independent with a 13-12 record.

The Rebels scoot over to Wyoming after the Pioneer contest to face the University of Wyoming Cowboys Saturday in Memorial Fieldhouse.

Coach Bill Strannigan in his ninth season as Cowboy coach puts most of his hopes on the line with 6'2" forward Harry Hall who has averaged 18.4 tallies a game against major opponents in the past. NSU trounced the Cowboys soundly here 91-74 last season.

The Rebels are expected to start All-American Elburt Miller and 6'4" Jerry Chandler at guards, 6'5" Don Lyons and big 6'7" John Trapp in the forward positions and 6'6" Cliff Findlay in the post.

NSU comes back to Vegas the following two games for an 8:15 p.m. clash Tuesday at the Convention Center with Chico State College from California.

The cardinal and white Wildcats nailed down a 11-16 won-lost record last year.

Rebs Outgun Alumni 109-74

By DAVID KATZMAN
NSU basketball ripped into the sports limelight Nov. 21 with crushing overtones, as the Rebel hoopsters banged away a resounding 109-74 victory over the Alumni.

An over-capacity crowd packed the campus gymnasium to witness Coach Roland Todd's hustling varsity outshoot and out-manuever their Alumni opponents in a contest marred by poor officiating.

Jerry Chandler led the home squad to a 50-43 margin at intermission.

The second half burst wide open when the Rebels, aided by five players hitting double-figures, unleashed a powerful of-

SNSCC States Dec. Activities

The recent Ralleye held by the Southern Nevada Sports Car Club was a success, although it was hampered partially by dreary weather. Eighteen cars started the Ralleye, and fourteen damp contestants finished. The Ralleye was won by Bill Ueckert and Dory Gleason in a TR-3. Second were Russ Harvey and Eric McLamma in a Mustang. Trophies from this Ralleye will be given at the Christmas Party.

Founder Mike Curley told the R-Y that the newly formed club is enjoying considerable success in its infant stages. Already in the plans, are a Gymkahanna on Dec. 3, and a Ralleye on Dec. 10.

A Gymkanna is a test of driver's skill, and car maneuverability. It will be held in the parking lot of the Boy Scouts building, across from the University. Allowances will be made so that American Cars will be competitive.

Further information can be obtained from Curley in Room 409, Tonapah Hall, or from any club member.

BULLETIN

Athletic Director Michael (Chub) Drakulich recently announced that tickets for the Football Dinner are now on sale and can be purchased from either him or Coach William Ireland. The price for the Dec. 10 affair is $50 per plate.

Freshmen to Display Talented Squad

"We will be a fast breaking, pressing team and our depth will make the difference." These words of Freshman Basketball coach, Bill Scoble tell his prediction of this year's squad as they face their season-opener Dec. 1 against Victor Valley Junior College (Calif.) and their home-opener against Barstow College at the Convention Center on Dec. 5.

Coaches Scoble and Les Reese said that a starting lineup could not yet be announced as there are nine players that could "easily do the job". They went on to say that "Jim Arrington, Larry Lisby, and Bob Riley will start for sure, but the other two starting positions will be tough decisions to make."

"The other positions could be well-filled, Scoble added, by Tom Farnsworth, John Garland, Terry Hunt, Mike Messner, Ken Mitchell or Jim Tener.

To aid the team this year academically, Coach Scoble has started a study-hour. It will be held every day following practice from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m.
