

HOMECOMING BREAKS LOOSE

Nevada Southern University's tenth anniversary will be celebrated by present students and alumni Dec. 11-18, with a basketball game against Reno highlighting the activities.

The official kick-off of the third Homecoming celebration will be at 6 p.m. Dec. 11 when the 25 foot campus Christmas tree will be lighted in front of the library. There will be a cake celebrating NSU's tenth anniversary, and carols will be sung around the tree.

At 5 p.m., before the lighting of the tree, there will be a snowman building contest between organizations on campus. Trophies will be given for first, second and third places. The contest will be held in front of the library.

Earlier that afternoon at 3 p.m. in the gym, a CSNS lecture with Dr. David Smith from Haight-Ashbury, will speak on "The Hippie Society." This lecture is free to all CSNS members.

That evening at 8 p.m. at the Convention Center, the NSU Rebels will play the University of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

A Boo-Bee Bowl game will be played at noon on Tuesday, Dec. 12 on the athletic field. This is a powderpuff football game between the sorority girls and the independent girls.

The Intersorority Council has challenged the Interfraternity Council to a basketball game at 7:30 in the gym. (Rules for this game appear in a separate story in this edition.)

All day Wednesday, anyone may participate in the building of the 16-foot snowman.

At 7 p.m. on Wednesday night, there will be a pajama rally starting at the parking lot of the downtown post office. The cheerleaders will lead the rally. All should come wearing pajamas. The rally will go through the casino center.

From 9:30 to 11:30 that evening, there will be an Ice Skating Party at the Las Vegas Ice Palace. The party is free to all NSU students, and the skates will be provided. The rink has been reserved for NSU students only.

A Homecoming parade (motorcade) at 3 p.m. will lead Thursday's festivities. The parade will progress from the dormitory parking lot down Flamingo Rd. to Convention Center Drive and into the Convention Center.

NSU will meet Reno in its traditional intrastate rivalry basketball game at the Convention Center Thursday at 8 p.m. The Homecoming queen will be crowned there at halftime. The Homecoming dance will follow the game in the Gold Room.

A CSNS concert featuring the Byrds, Sunshine Company and the Jet set will take place

Friday evening at 8 p.m. in the gym. CSNS members will be admitted free, and others will be charged $2.00.

The climax of the Homecoming celebration is the 1967 annual Sno-Ball at the Italian-American Club on Sahara Ave. at 8 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 18. The semi-formal dance is free to all CSNS members.

The Homecoming magazine to be produced by Terry Lindberg will be out this Monday. The magazine will include queen candidate pictures, concert pictures, an alumni page, and a schedule of activities.

The
Nevada Southern University
REBEL YELL

Vol. 13, No. 12

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

December 8, 1967

STUDENT SPIRIT was strong, even during the first Homecoming in 1965. Pictured above is the first frolic on Fremont Street for the pajama-clad collegiates who annually take over Casino Center.

Dr. Smith To Probe Hippies

Dr. David E. Smith, the Director of the Haight-Ashbury Medical Clinic in San Francisco, will speak here Monday at 3 p.m. in a program of the CSNS Lecture Series.

Smith not only has a professional knowledge of drugs and sickness, he knows how to listen, and he believes in education as an effective cure. A sign on the door of his seven-room clinic reads: "Haight-Ashbury Medical Clinic Loves You."

In addition to controlling therapeutic policy at the non-profit clinic, Dr. Smith is Director of the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Screening Clinic at San Francisco General Hospital, state consultant for court cases involving drugs (expert witness) and is currently teaching the Drug Abuse course at the University of California Medical Center in conjunction with a position he holds in the Pharmacology department.

Look and other national magazines, as well as nationwide television, have made Dr. Smith and his work known throughout the country. Born in 1939, he was Phi Beta Kappa at the University of California, receiving his M.D. as well as his M.S. in Pharmacology in 1964. He holds a post-doctoral fellowship at the university in 1965-67.

His writings have appeared in leading medical journals, and he is active in research in the field of Psychopharmacology. He has been the recipient of the S.A.M.A. Research Award, and Survey of Anesthesiology Award.

Dr. Smith is the Editor of the Journal of Psychedelic Drugs. He sees the hippie movement as a product of the communications gap, and one that can be bridged only when constructive educational and medical programs are established. "Programs that young people can believe in."

His dedication to the young and his awareness of the entire social scene have made his contributions to our society increasingly valuable and important.

DR. DAVID SMITH

AKY Now Distributing '67 Student Directories

The 1967-68 Student Directories came out Monday and are presently being distributed by Alpha Kappa Psi, business fraternity, and Phi Gamma Nu, business sorority, in Frazier Hall.

The 72-page directory costs CSNS members 15 cents and non-CSNS members are charged 25 cents.

The directory includes a list of campus organizations with the president's name, address and telephone number; a directory of university office numbers; a list of faculty with their names, subjects taught, extension number and office; student listings with addresses, class, major and telephone numbers and a classified buying section.

There will be a supplement printed by Alpha Kappa Psi early in the second semester to include those not listed and correcting any mistakes.

This is an Alpha Kappa Psi project and no CSNS funds were involved. Miss Martha McCameron, Phi Gamma Nu, did all the typing for the directory.

New Activity Cards Available in TH 119

CSNS President, Mike Clark, recently announced that Student Activity Cards are now available in Room 119, Tonopah Hall. Clark commented that the cards will be good for all home basketball games as well as numerous other CSNS Activities, like the Homecoming concert on Dec. 15 featuring the Byrds and the Sunshine Co. Clark said that the Homecoming concert tickets may also be picked up in his office, Room 119.

13 Campus Leaders Attain Recognition in Who's Who

Thirteen Nevada Southern University students have been recognized by the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

The students are Mike Clark, Chuck Crawford, Miss Diana Crow, Mrs. Bari Earl, Miss Trina Hornefus, Charles Ivy, Miss Carol James, William Ostrowski, Robert Russell, Miss Nancy Thomas, Mrs. Carol Utz, Mrs. Mary Wells and Mrs. Joann Wilson.

Each student will receive a certificate of recognition awarded by Who's Who to be presented by Dean Angeline Smith at the Awards Convocation in the spring of this year.

They will also be recognized in the Who's Who annual publication in the form of a write-up of his college and personal record and a listing in the index under the college that nominated him.

Some qualifications for Who's Who are: regular junior or senior standing, considered, minimal 2.49 GPA, and a record of leadership, integrity of character and promise of effective, constructive leadership in past-college life.

A nominating committee composed of faculty-student-administration representatives recommends students to represent their schools. The nominating committee considers the student's scholarship, leadership, co-operation in educational and extracurricular activities, general citizenship and promise of future usefulness.

Each college is given a quota of students to represent that school. This eliminates any competition between institutions. Then the national Who's Who decides who will be featured in the publication.

Vespers Concert Set For Sunday

The first annual Christmas Vespers Concert will be presented on Sunday, Dec. 10, at 3:00 p.m. in the Social Science Lecture Hall free of charge.

The University Chorus, the Chambers Singers, and the Woodwind Ensemble will perform Heinrich Schutz's "The Christmas Story," and Benjamin Britten's "The Ceremony of Carols," featuring the outstanding talents of the following soloists: Dr. Howard Chase, organist; Mr. James Greenwood, harpsichordist; Miss Barbara Allen Bondelid, harpist; Prof. Douglas Peterson, Arthur Robinson, Jean-Marie Libotte, Carol Andrews, Kathleen Anderson, James Greer, Donna Karr, and Gloria Palmer, vocal soloists.

An Editorial

Examines Diamante Dismissal

Under what circumstances is it all right to be arbitrary, discourteous, and accusatory?

When rules and regulations meant to serve are applied so as to victimize.

The purpose of laws and regulations should be to protect man and engender respect and dignity. The use of laws and rules in a manner that denies any of these is not consistent with a rational humane society.

Actions deemed illegal, not proper, or out of order can be judged so only in a limited reference. In other words, just because a statute says something is wrong doesn't necessarily make it so. The "gotta-draw-the-line-somewhere" rationale is sophistry at best.

The most foreboding feature of statutes and regulatory laws is that they usually pit some monolithic institution such as a state or a university (sometimes both) against one single person.

The University has some rather captious codes, most notable of which for present purposes is the one that says in effect that teachers are through at age 65 unless the Board of Regents grants them an extension known as "post-retirement".

Shortly after the beginning of the present semester, Assistant Professor of English, Herbert Diamante, was in a state of separation or non-being from the University (to say he quit, or was released, would be insufficient) because there was the possibility that he ran counter to certain codes dealing with age requirements.

It was discovered at the departmental level that there were contradictions in the records concerning the date of Mr. Dia-mante's birth, and thereby casting aspersions on his legal right to teach.

Incredible as it may seem, doubt was the only criteria for judging Diamante's status, and action was taken precluding any substantial factual knowledge.

Without the counsel, or knowledge of the University Chancellor or the Dean of Faculty, Mr. Diamante was "given the opportunity to resign."

One would suppose that retracted resignation would be accepted as well as a resignation. For legal reasons, this is not so. Therefore, ex-English Professor, Herbert Diamante, born in 1900, aged 67 or born 1910, aged 57, is a kind of non-person.

The feeling for Mr. Diamante's situation voiced by the administration is one of concern and regret, and it is probably sincere.

Chancellor Moyer and Dean Crawford plead "no control" over the rules governing the situation. That is justifiable — so is Frankenstein.

A faculty ad hoc committee, appointed by the University President will investigate fully, but the ultimate judgment rests with the State Attorney General; it is in his hands now.

Official records from Czechoslovakia (if they arrive) can only help Herbert Diamante, for legally the oldest document (in this case the least helpful) is the one that must be accepted by the Attorney General. It's the law.

Two things must be considered: Mr. Diamante's conscious knowledge of his misdeeds, if any, and personal animosities against him, if any.

What takes precedence, man or a man's creations?

Dear Editor:

This letter is sent to the REBEL YELL in an effort to clarify vague statements made out of ignorance by Mr. Randy Frew in the last issue of the paper. One issue Mr. Frew concerned himself with was that of Jack Abell's CSNS Honorary Lifetime Membership. Revocation of this membership was passed unanimously at the Senate meeting on Nov. 20; therefore, I do not feel that I could possibly have imposed my personal feelings upon the other Senators.

In reference to the Campus Organization Commission, of which I am chairman, Mr. Frew left out certain pertinent facts concerning groups which have and have not been recognized. On Sept. 20, 1967, I sent a letter to all organizations which were active last year, such as the Young Democrats, the Intercollegiate Knights, the Psychology Club, Delta Phi Delta, and the Biology Club. I enclosed with the letter an excerpt from the CSNS Constitution regarding regulation and recognition of On-Campus Student Groups. This was done as a courtesy to facilitate compilation of the necessary materials by each group. Several groups responded. In a recent issue of the REBEL YELL, I further publicized COC regulations and urged all organizations to contact me. On Nov. 17, I sent a letter to the advisors and presidents of delinquent groups and notified them that unless I received the necessary materials within one week I would assume that they were no longer active on campus. I personally feel that the CSNS Constitutional regulations concerning recognition of organizations were well publicized.

Mr. Frew also made a rather misleading statement concerning the Office of Student Affairs. No groups will "henceforth and forever more (sic) be recognized through the Office of Student Affairs and particularly Dean A. T. Smith and Mr. Paul Schofield." All on-campus students groups will be recognized officially by faculty and students of NSU as has been the policy in the past.

People interested in the COC are invited to come and obtain first-hand information from me concerning recognition of organizations.

Charles W. Ivy
COC Chairman

Dear Miss Jolley:

Since the matter of my dress and behavior on the specific date of Oct. 20 has become a matter of public controversy, I suppose I should attempt to justify, or at least explain it.

At the time I was approached by "A group of perhaps 30" (REBEL YELL, Oct. 26, 1967, page 2) students, I was standing in front of the draft-information booth holding a placard whose principal feature was the word "Kill" printed in large, red letters. Since no organized group other than the "Peaceniks" was represented, and since the slogan on my placard was so obviously anathetical to their cause, it should have been obvious that I was picketing them. However, I have ceased to be amazed by the type of mentality that associates anything out of the ordinary with the vague pejorative term "hippies" (although I had not expected to encounter that level of mentality on a university campus).

On the matter of my dress: there has been, at least to date, no law or ordinance passed prohibiting my particular manner of dress (though I wouldn't be surprised to see it happen). For the present, the choice is legally mine, whether it be in accordance or at odds with the tastes of any particular group. Any group professing to have the interests of society and loyalty to the American way at heart, that must resort to threats (whether with or without intent to make good those threats) of unlawful, mob force to exert their interpretation of "right," "patriotic," and "acceptable" must expect to be treated as what they are; i.e., an unlawful mob. The swastika is an ancient American Indian symbol for brotherhood and good fortune, though in recent history it has come to symbolize the suppression of individual thought and action. Those people who would suppress individual thought and action if they had sufficient force should be honest enough to wear the swastika and abandon their pretenses of democratic belief.

A Letter to the Editor

Larry Green

To the Editor:

This letter is an answer to an article written by Randy Frew, which he erroneously calls "The Confessional." Although there is much in Mr. Frew's article that can be criticized, my main purpose in writing this letter is to clear up a few statements he has made.

In the first place, I'd like to know how Mr. Frew chose his title.

In a Confessional the confessor is demanded to tell nothing but the truth. This does not include mistaking facts and causing people to have wrong impressions.

Mr. Frew in the first and second paragraphs of his editorial implies that he doesn't think the method of nominating a Homecoming Queen is too important. He then criticizes Mike Clark for having taken a "strong stand" against the method that had been adopted. Last year when Mike Clark was campaigning for CSNS President he advocated a method of electing a queen that would allow all to nominate a candidate, and thus opening the nomination to everyone.

I want to clarify just who applied pressure to the Second Vice President. After I heard that only women's groups were to be allowed to nominate a candidate, I decided that to insure students their rights, a little pressure should be used. I

(Continued on Page 8)

The Confessional

Since this is the season of giving, it is perhaps appropriate that a few gifts be handed out at this time.

To the dining commons.....	a book containing 1,000 different recipes
To Dr. Fred Anderson.....	a proposal to build a law school at NSU
To Jack Abell.....	a CSNS Lifetime Membership card
To Rita Haddad.....	the NSU Greek Award
To ATO and Chi Sigma Chi.....	a pane of glass 10'x15'
To the Intercollegiate Knights.....	the service award??
To Delta Sigma Phi.....	the Intercollegiate Knights
To Joe Lendini.....	a deserved Christmas vacation
To Charlie Ivy.....	a copy of the CSNS Constitution, complete with COC rules
To Vickie "Tuba" Jolley.....	a large box of no-doz
To Steve Toy.....	a box of toys
To Howard Hughes.....	an invitation to the NSU Campus
To Frank Lendini.....	a copy of Robert's Rules of Parliamentary Procedure
To Tom Irwin.....	a copy of "How to Succeed in Business Without Even Trying"?
To Lani Trunkey.....	TWO GIFTS: "thanks for all the work at NSU; and a time-payment plan to attend the University of Nevada at Reno
To Mike Clark.....	the collage in Room 121
To the CSNS Senate.....	a book on "How to Destroy Apathy"
To the NSU Student Body.....	eventual representation.

Remember, there are two sayings which sum up giving . . . the first is that it is better to give than to receive, and second that even the devil deserves his just dues.

An Editorial

STATED REASON FOR ABELL'S MEMBERSHIP REVOCATION MAY NOT BE WHOLE TRUTH

By GREG WADDILOVE and RITA HADDAD

"How in the hell can they revoke a lifetime membership," queried an incredulous student, referring to the Student Senate's revocation of Jack Abell's honorary lifetime membership in CSNS.

Ostensibly the reason for the revocation was an outrage known as an error in procedure.

The CSNS Constitution explicitly states that when honorary lifetime membership is bestowed, the honoree shall not be present while the vote is being taken.

It is an undeniable fact that Mr. Abell was present while the voting took place (9-0-0 in favor); therefore there is no doubt that a procedural error took place. Thus, it would appear that the senate was justified.

Not completely justified. Implication has it that Mr. Abell was singled out by certain student government members bearing personal animosities toward him.

Are all honorary lifetime memberships periodically investigated as to their procedural purity? No, they are not! Was Mr. Abell singled out for personal attack and vilification? Yes, this is a distinct possibility.

An error due to a procedural technicality is a fairly captious basis for punishment.

Because it was such a petty point, because Mr. Abell is a thorn in the side of CSNS, and because he has personal enemies in student government, it is clear that revocation (while having legal justification) was purely personal in application.

The Student Senate has compromised its ethics and misused its authority.

Jack Abell should be reinstated . . . with apologies.

Homeward bound . . .

Once a year, alumni return — dreams behind, reality in front. Once a year, alumni return — to examine, possibly relive, their goals. Once a year, alumni return — for a nostalgic look at the home of their knowledge, and, consequently, their lives.

Home where my thoughts escaping . . .

Once a year, alumni see new thoughts escaping from new minds. Once a year, alumni recall their new thoughts, remembering when they too were going to create the better world — remembering perhaps when they did just that; or remembering perhaps when they forgot they had ever intended to.

Home where my music's playing . . .

Alumni hear the spirited music of education too often only once a year; they listen attentively. They try to recall the melody. They do. It's contagious.

Home where my love life's waiting . . .

Remember those old flames? Those wild frat parties? Those quiet dates?

Silently for me . . .

Once a year, alumni return — to remember. Probably alone. Silently. They're private. Private memories.

I wish I were . . . homeward . . . bound . . .

Let's see:

If I take Philosophy Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 10, I can fit History into the early hours, like 8 to 9. But what about P.E.? That can be Tuesday-Thursday. But who wants to change so early in the day? Could I make it to Psych in time if I take Geography in science-tech? How many blocks to Social Science? I could probably make it in time. But what if he keeps us late sometimes?

It's schedule time — a period of fun that just has to top jigsaw or crossword puzzles. They're a lot more challenging, but maybe more depressing than fun. They're interesting, you have to admit. You find out little tidbits of information — like the course you planned on taking to graduate isn't being offered. Stuff like that. It makes school, well, sort of exciting.

Then, after you spend hours figuring your schedule, the new addenda and errata sheet is published,

(Continued on Page 3)

Paul Fay Entertains Audience With 'Kennedy Wit' Anecdotes

By SONJA MOSSE

Portraying the late President Kennedy as "a warm human being," rather than "a cold, cruel politician," Paul Fay charmed a near capacity crowd here Monday night with his candid character sketches in a lecture titled "John F. Kennedy, a Book Subject and a Friend."

Fay evaluated Kennedy as a man of brilliance, courage, humor and thoughtfulness toward other people.

His brilliance "enabled him to understand the complex function of the Pentagon and reduce it to a common denominator, that the public could comprehend, in a matter of months, while it took me all my years as Undersecretary of the Navy to understand its mechanism."

During the conflict in the Bay of Pigs, Kennedy courageously took the blame for the loss of men and weapons and truthfully and totally informed the public on a national broadcast on the impending crisis in Cuba, Fay explained.

He continued: "Most everyone was aware of the 'Kennedy wit' and informality that prevailed during JFK's administration. Though the President became easily enraged, he never held a grudge, in concordance with his motto 'forgive but don't forget'."

Fay noted the President's concern about the welfare of others, especially children, and his aim was to lead the people. He wanted to make us "conscious that we were living in a democracy and that everyone must participate to keep a democratic government functioning." Fay defined his friend's magnetism as the ability "to make you understand a problem by discussing it in the way you felt about it."

He believes that if Kennedy had lived he would not have escalated the Viet Nam war because his "appreciation for the military and human life was too great." He concluded that "Jack was so much against setting off the gunfire" and the slaughter of men on the battlefields, that he "wouldn't have the heart to send our men over there."

Having had considerable problems with English A at Stanford University, Fay hardly anticipated that he could ever produce a book, but when the President suggested that he write and preserve his observations of the administration, Fay launched his authorship. However, he ceased work when the President was assassinated in November, 1963.

Later that year a colleague urged him to resume his writings while his relationship with Kennedy was still firmly imprinted in his mind. She introduced him to publishers, and Fay signed a contract with Harper and Row on the terms that he finish the book of at least 90,000 words in one year.

Since Fay had served with John Kennedy in World War II, attended at his wedding, participated in his campaigns for congressman, senator and President, and also knew him well during the Presidency, he possessed a deep understanding of Jack's personal feelings as well as his political aspirations. This put him in one of the best positions in the nation to fulfill the "serious obligation" of informing the public of the earlier and private life of an international figure.

Holding down a five-day-a-week job, he wrote about 3,000 words every Saturday and Sunday and at the end of a year's work he had totaled 250,000 words for the book.

Harper and Row has marketed "The Pleasure of His Company" in a hard cover edition, but it is now also available in paperback.

Homecoming '67 Booklet Out Mon.

For the second consecutive year NSU is sponsoring a Homecoming magazine which will include pictures of candidates for Homecoming Queen as well as the schedule of Homecoming events.

As an official publication of CSNS the magazine will be free to all CSNS members in contrast to the 20 cent charge which was levied last year.

Terry Lindberg, editor of the 1967 Homecoming Magazine, intends to present an eight page publication to be issued on Dec. 11.

Lindberg was editor of the REBEL YELL, 1966-67.

Library Sets Hours

Library Hours for the Christmas Holiday will be as follows:
 December 18-22 (7:30-6:00)
 December 23, 24, 25 (Closed)
 December 26-29 (7:30-6:00)
 December 30 (8:30-5:00)
 December 31, January 1 (Closed)

Education Costs Rise

The U.S. Office of Education says that the average cost of one year of college has risen 42 per cent during the last ten years. In 1955, the average amount was $1,760, in 1966 it was $2,500, and the projected figure for 1972 is $2,940.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"I'M SORRY, BUT PROFESSOR SNARF ADVISES ALL OUR POLITICAL SCIENCE MAJORS AND HE'S OUT THIS WEEK, WITH A BROKEN JAW."

The Toy Box

(Continued from Page 2)

that just happens to have all your courses on it with changes in time slots, et cetera. If you're lucky, your classes might even be eliminated altogether.

But it's all part of the game — you gotta do it if you wanna go to school. You can't gripe. For if you don't pass go, you won't collect $200.

Would you believe seven more days until Christmas break . . .

Not only are there that many more shopping days left, but that many more term paper days . . . days dreaded most in the year. Days of noon to midnight work. Days of excuses. Days of research. (Days of plagiarism?) Days of honesty.

Days of crying. Days of brain-racking. Days of typing. And more days of typing. Days of footnotes. Days of n-e-a-t-n-e-s-s . . . Merry Christmas.

The Campus Center is becoming a reality amazingly fast. Yet how many students even know what that "big mess" taking up the parking spaces next to the Dining Hall is?

The building is going to be a new home of students, and supposedly by and for students. Apathy will not make a colorful welcome mat.

What goes into the building and what the building stands for should be decided by NSU students in general, not merely a board which has to guess at student feelings.

You can help lay the foundation of this building by making your views known to Campus Center Board Members — which means, of course, a little time, attendance at a couple of meetings, and a pinch of effort.

If you don't feel it's worth the bother, don't give it another thought. And don't complain later either.

WE'VE DONE IT AGAIN . . . We've gotten some guilty consciences in the English Department. . . . We've gotten something of a goldminer in the form of Reuben Neumann. . . . We've lost the Strawberry's, but got the Byrds, if they don't fly away, too.

And we've practically smashed our feet in our lid . . . ouch!

Calendar

THE ARTS

NSU Gallery

Cliff Segerblom Show through Dec. 15.
 Faculty and Student Art Sale Dec. 8, 9, 10, 2-5 p.m.

Off-Campus Art

Fiesta De Artes, Tropicana Hotel, Dec. 4-17.
 Four-man Art Show, currently at Lorenzi Park.

Films

Cinema X — Leroi Jones' "The Dutchman," Dec. 13, SS 103, 8:30 p.m.

Music

Christmas Vespers Concert, NSU Chorus, Chamber Singers and Woodwind Ensemble, Dec. 16, 3 p.m., SS 103.

Off-Campus Music

Christmas Concert, "The Messiah," "Amahl and the Night Visitors," Gold Room, Convention Center, Dec. 17, 2:30 and 7:00 p.m.

LECTURES

Dr. David Smith, "Doctor of Haight-Ashbury," Dec. 11, 3 p.m., in Gym.

EXHIBITS

Anthropology Museum, 3rd floor of Social Science Bldg.
 Biology Museum, 2nd floor of Science Tech.

SCIENCE

Southwest Radiological Health Laboratory — open to public per scheduled events.

MEETINGS

CSNS Senate — Mondays 9 p.m.
 Tonopah Hall, First Fridays at noon, Tonopah Hall.

ENTERTAINMENT

Off-Campus Films

All films subject to change by theaters.

- Bonanza — "To Sir, With Love"
 - Cinerama — "Thoroughly Modern Millie"
 - El Portal — "Cool Hand Luke"
 - Fox — "The Sand Pebbles"
 - Fremont — "Robbery"
 - "The Tiger and the Pussycat"
 - Guild — "Mati Hari"
 - "Red Dust"
 - Huntridge — "Bonnie & Clyde"
 - "St. Valentine's Day Massacre"
 - Red Rock — "Rosie"
 - "Discover America"
- For Drive-in listings, check local papers.

BONANZA PRINTERS

Printer of

THE REBEL YELL

309 South First Street.

Phone 382-1006

Complete Printing Service

Letterpress — Lithography — Rubber Stamps

United Airlines Stewardesses enjoy travel and freedom routine

- ☆ Free 5½ week training
- ☆ Excellent salary & liberal expense allowance
- ☆ Assignments now begin made to winter & spring classes

BASIC REQUIREMENTS: Single, 5'2" to 5'9", at least 20 years old (girls 19½ may apply for future classes).

A Unique jet age future may await you! You'll never know unless you apply

Interviews December 12 — 9 A.M. to 12 Noon

THE EXTRA CARE AIRLINE

Las Vegas Airport

United Air Lines Ticket Counter

5 Still In Running For Queen

Five finalists will be on the ballot for Homecoming Queen today. The contenders are Mmes. Pam Calos, Linda Dopico, Sally Moore, Kathy Ratay, and Manuela Trapletti.

Four nominees were eliminated in preliminary judging. They are Mmes. Sherl Jensen, Kappa Sigma; Jane Swan, Deseret Club; Frances Wright, Independent Students; and Valerie Zupsan, Alpha Delta Pi colony.

PAM CALOS

Nominated by Chi Sigma Chi, Pam Calos is a Little Sister of that fraternity. She is also the president of Phi Mu colony and a former vice-president of the Associated Women Students.

The 5-foot, 11-inch physical education major has a background in fashion modeling. Pam's ambition is to teach high school seniors or work in city recreation. She is a junior who came to Las Vegas from Dayton, Ohio.

LINDA DOPICO

Linda Dopico, a blue-eyed blonde, was nominated by Alpha Epsilon Pi. She is majoring in elementary education and hopes to specialize in speech therapy.

Miss Dopico is a sophomore with a special interest in drama and skiing. She hails from Pittsburgh, Penn. A pom-pom girl and ISC representative, Linda is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority colony.

SALLY MOORE

Delta Phi Delta's Sally Moore is a junior art education major. She hopes eventually to teach art in high school.

Miss Moore is a former sorority president and pledge trainer. She belongs to Daedalus and the Art Guild and is a Grand Officer of Rainbow Girls. She has worked on the Children's Theatre productions and last year modeled in the Sophomore Fashion Show.

Miss Moore was born in Glendale, Calif.

KATHY RATAY

A transfer student from St. Mary's College in Omaha, Neb., Kathy Ratay was nominated by Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. She is a pledge of Alpha Delta Pi sorority colony.

Miss Ratay's major is psychology, and she plans to become a high school guidance counselor. She is a native Las Vegas interested in water skiing and "meeting people."

MANUELLA TRAPLETTI

Manuella Trapletti attended the Bishop Gorman High School and decided to return to Las Vegas from her native Italy to go to college.

She was nominated by Delta Sigma fraternity colony and is also a candidate for IK Duchess.

Miss Trapletti is a German major. She hopes to become a linguist and teach.

The queen selected in this elections will be a girl who has survived the scrutiny of some of Southern Nevadans who evaluated their poise, personality, wit, and attractiveness.

Last Sunday in a two hour screening session a committee of five judges quizzed eight of the initial Homecoming queen candidates nominated by campus groups. One candidate was not present.

Judges, Mrs. Walls, Mr. England, Mrs. Hollbrook, Mr. Johnson, Dean Smith, and Miss Stuckey, representing modeling agencies, clothiers, the former LVHS Rhythmettes, and other community interests selected five of the nine candidates on the basis of a brief question and answer session with each candidate in the Chancellor's Gold room of the Social Science building.

Questions were of a wide variety, ranging from how the girls felt about becoming a Homecoming queen to intellectually based questions of an abstract nature. Second Vice-President Joe Lendini presided over the screening session.

Cantor Joseph Kohn Describes Life in Israel

Israel, its past, present, and what it can anticipate for the future were the focal points of community leader Cantor Joseph Kohn last night, in a CSNS lecture.

Cantor Kohn, a native of Czechoslovakia, received his formal education in the United States and abroad. For the past nine years he has been the Cantor of Temple Beth Shalom. During this period he has been invited to give lectures and concerts all over the world.

In 1963, Kohn went to Israel where he spent a week in the Hebrew University of Jerusalem studying the ancient Dead Sea Scrolls. Prior to coming to Las Vegas, Cantor Kohn was a member of the United States Intelligence Corps and served in the Korean conflict. Today he is a member of the National Executive Board of United States Cantors.

Cantor Kohn aspired to "enlighten" interested individuals about some of the underlying factors involved within the Israeli state. He pointed out the importance of the Dead Sea and answered some controversial questions.

Such questions as the war between Israel and the Arabs and socialism in Israel were discussed.

CANTOR JOSEPH KOHN

MUN To Portray Syria, S. Viet Nam

The Nevada Southern delegation to the West Coast Model United Nations conference, this year being held at the University of Arizona in Tucson, will represent Syria and South Viet Nam (as an observer state) according to co-chairmen Chuck Crawford and Bruce Heskett.

The delegation, in its fifth year of existence, will be representing the nations in the conference held April 24-27. Delegates will be enrolled in Political Science 234, Simulation in International Relations Theory this spring in order to train them for participation.

In January, Nevada Southern will host the annual chairmen's conference here at which representatives from the nearly 110 schools participating in the conference will discuss the preparations for the conference.

According to Crawford, approximately 20 delegates will be sent to the conference to serve on the many committees in the Model United Nations structure and to represent our assigned countries as delegates at the real United Nations would.

All students regardless of major or class may enroll in the three units class for the spring semester. Any student wishing further information may contact either Bruce Heskett or Chuck Crawford through room 115, Tonopah Hall.

Floor Numbers Listed

Morton Considers More Dorm Phones

Because of recent queries by CSNS President Mike Clark, additional pay phones are now being considered for the dorm.

In a recent exchange of letters, Clark again informed Mr. Paul Schofield of his concern about this matter. Mr. Schofield replied by telling him that Mr. Ross Morton, NSU Plant Engineer, is "looking into the possibilities of the installing additional public telephones in the residence hall," and "additional phones could not be installed until a more complete financial analysis of the entire situation has been completed."

Mr. Schofield also supplied Clark with a listing of numbers for the pay phones in the dormitory. They

Center Committee Completing Plans

The Campus Center Planning Committee in cooperation with the Senate is now in the process of finalizing the plans for the composition and election of the Campus Center Governing Committee.

The following aspects are tentatively finalized. A general election for six at-large members for the Campus Center Governing Committee will be held in the first two weeks of this spring semester. There will be various appointments from the faculty, administration and the student body to make up the 11 remaining committee positions.

Besides the election in February, some appointments will be made in September. Each member of the committee will serve for one year, thus insuring some experienced members on the committee at all times.

The faculty members will be appointed by the chairman of the Faculty Senate. The appointed students will be chosen by the student chairman with the approval of the committee.

In a meeting with the Chancellor, the planning committee was assured that the governing committee will have complete authority in policy and faculty allocation.

The position of the Center Manager has also been under discussion. The manager will be a member of the governing committee and will work closely with the other members of the committee.

The planning committee was assured by the Chancellor that the governing committee will have a voice in the hiring of the manager.

The applicants for the position for manager will be interviewed by the Chancellor and his representatives. Then, the applicants will be interviewed by the governing committee. While the committee is interviewing the applicant, the prospective manager will be interviewing the committee. Since he will be working closely with the committee members, he should determine if he is compatible with the members of the committee.

The governing committee will send its recommendations to the Chancellor, who seriously considers their recommendations and hires the manager.

In January, the planning committee will institute a student union workshop and anyone interested in the Center in any way (being on committee, working in the union and influencing phases of the union) should attend the workshop. Miss Francie Schwaegerle and Terry Lindberg are heading the workshop, so interested persons should contact them.

VISTA Seeking Volunteers Today

Representatives of VISTA (Volunteers In Service To America), will be on campus today, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., to seek qualified candidates who are interested in helping people to transform the ugliness of poverty into something better.

Headquarters for the drive will be Frazier Hall.

VISTA recruits, selects, and trains volunteers and then assigns them to projects which have asked for help throughout the country.

Volunteers spend a year of their lives in "Service To America." They work on Indian Reservations, in Migrant Labor Communities, at Job Corps Centers, in the Appalachia and in programs for the mentally ill and mentally retarded.

To join VISTA, one must be at least 18 years old. There is no upper age limit. Volunteers may have no dependents under 18 years of age. VISTA is especially interested in retirees.

There are no entrance requirements or tests to join VISTA. Volunteers receive allowances for housing, food, $75 for personal expenses and a stipend of $50 for each month of service. They are covered by a complete, paid insurance plan for medical and hospital care.

The Academy Award-winning VISTA documentary, "A Year Towards Tomorrow," will be shown during the drive. Check at the VISTA booth for time and place.

TROY'S BARBER SHOP

1131 TROPICANA EAST

SHOPPING CENTER

(1 BLOCK SOUTH OF THE CAMPUS NEAR SAFEWAY)

Orange Blossom
DIAMOND RINGS

John Fish Jewelers

Registered
Jeweler

Certified
Gemologist

In Sahara Shopping Center (across from Hotel Sahara)
Open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. - Phone 382-8473
2430 Las Vegas Blvd. South, Las Vegas, Nevada
FRANCHISED AGENCY FOR LECOUTRE WATCHES

... Something To Buy or Sell?

TRY A REBEL YELL CLASSIFIED AD

LOW, LOW RATES TO STUDENTS

REBEL YELL Office - Room 118 in Dorm

3RD ★
HOMECOMING ★

★
10TH ★
ANNIVERSARY ★

Schedule of Events

MONDAY, DECEMBER 11

- 3 p.m., CSNS Lecture: Dr. David Smith of Haight Ashbury, "The Hippie Society," NSU Gym, FREE to students.
- 5 p.m., Tenth Anniversary Party, in front of the James R. Dickinson Library.
- 5:30 p.m., Snow Man Contest, announcement of winners and presentation of trophies, in front of the Library.
- 6 p.m., Lighting of the Campus Tree and Carols. Music provided by the Pep Band.
- 8 p.m., Basketball Games, "NSU vs Albuquerque.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 12

- 12 noon, Second Annual Boo Bee Bowl Game, Sorority Girls vs GDI's, Football, Athletic field.
- 7:30 p.m., IFC vs ISC, Basketball, NSU Gym.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 13

- 7 p.m., Pajama Rally, Casino Center, meet at the downtown Post Office parking lot (Stewart Ave. and 3rd Street), At 7 p.m., WEAR PAJAMAS!
- 9:30 p.m., Ice Skating Party, Las Vegas Ice Palace, in Commercial Center on Sahara Ave., skates will be provided, FREE to NSU students, rink has been reserved for the students ONLY!

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14

- 3 p.m., Homecoming Parade. Form in parking lot of Tonopah Hall.
- 5 p.m., Alumni Buffet, Las Vegas Convention Center Gold Room.
- 6 p.m., Pre-Game Rally, in front of the Las Vegas Convention Center.
- 8 p.m., Basketball Game, NEVADA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY vs THE UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA. Halftime Ceremonies, Crowning of the 3rd Annual 1967 Homecoming Queen. After the Game, 1967 Homecoming Dance, Las Vegas Convention Center Gold Room.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15

- 8 p.m., CSNS Homecoming Concert, NSU Gym., featuring the SUNSHINE COMPANY, THE BYRDS, and the JET SET. Free to Students.

Although not part of the formal Homecoming activities, the Annual Sno Ball, a semi formal holiday dance, will be held Monday, Dec. 18, 1967, at 8:30 p.m., at the Italian American Club, 2333 East Sahara Avenue. There is no admission price. Alumni cordially invited.

SALLY MOORE

KATHY RATAY

MANUELLA TRAPLETTI

PAM CALOS

LINDA DOPICO

SUPPORT
HOMECOMING!

BEAT
RENO!

The Stars of Nevada Southern

CLIFF FINDLAY

Age: 19; Height: 6-6; Weight: 225. Findlay is the only member of the Rebel squad who is from Las Vegas. A graduate of Western High School, he lettered three years in basketball. He spent one year at Dixie Junior College in St. George, Utah, and is a sophomore at NSU. He is majoring in business and is single.

DAVID WEBB

Age: 20; Height: 6-4½; Weight: 205. Webb, from Bakersfield, Calif., attended South Bakersfield and earned three varsity letters in basketball. He spent two years at Bakersfield Junior College and is playing his first year at NSU. Married, Webb is majoring in physical education and hopes to go into teaching.

JERRY CHANDLER

Age: 26; Height: 6-4; Weight: 185. Chandler, the 'Old Man' of the team at 26, is from San Francisco, Calif., and is a senior this year. He played at San Francisco Junior College before coming to NSU a year ago. Married and the father of two children, Chandler is majoring in physical education and hopes to be a coach. He was a member of the 1960 Air Force team which participated in the Olympic trials. Chandler is a letterman from last year's team.

RON CARTER

Age: 21; Height: 6-1; Weight: 187. Carter, from Porterville, Calif., is probably the strongest player on the Rebel team this year in endurance. He lettered four years in basketball and two years in track during his high school days and picked up two more letters in basketball and track during his junior college days. He is majoring in psychology and hopes to be an airline pilot.

RICH LIVERMORE

Age: 20; Height: 6-2; Weight: 189. Livermore, from Glendale, Calif., is a junior at NSU having transferred to NSU from Glendale Junior College. He lettered in football, basketball and baseball during his high school days at Glendale. He is majoring in biology and hopes to become a dentist.

DON LYONS

Age: 22; Height: 6-5; Weight 195. Lyons, a deaf mute, is from Richmond, Calif., and graduated from the California School for the Deaf high school. He is a junior at NSU after playing two years at Contra Costa Junior College in California. Single, Lyons is majoring in physical education.

JOHN TRAPP

Age: 22; Height: 6-7; Weight: 210. Trapp, a Junior College transfer from Pasadena City College, is a native of Detroit, Mich. He lettered in football, track and basketball during his high school days at Highland Park, Mich. A sophomore at NSU, he is majoring in physical education and hopes to go into teaching and coaching. He is married.

HAROLD STAFFORD

Age: 20; Height: 5-10; Weight: 175. Stafford, from Riverside, Calif., is a junior on this year's basketball team and a non-letterman. He played high school ball at Norte Vista High School, Riverside, lettering in track four times and basketball three. Married, he is majoring in education and hopes to be a teacher and coach upon graduation.

ELBERT MILLER

Age: 21; Height: 6-4; Weight: 200. Miller, from San Diego, Calif., lettered last year as he broke almost every scoring mark on record at NSU. He connected for 55 points against Portland University last year. He played two years at San Diego City College before transferring to NSU. A Little All-American last year, Miller is married and the father of three children. He was drafted last year by the National Basketball Association's San Diego Rockets.

CURTIS WATSON

Age: 20; Height: 6-0; Weight: 152. Watson, a native of El Centro, Calif., is a junior at NSU. He lettered in basketball, baseball and track in high school at Central Union High School. He lettered in basketball during his junior college days. He is majoring in business administration at NSU and hopes to become a business accountant. He is married and the father of two children.

EDWARD TERWILLIGER

Age: 20; Height: 6-5; Weight: 210. Terwilliger, known as Twig around the NSU campus, is a senior at NSU and a two-year letterman. He started in the NCAA tournament last year when eligibility problems hit the squad. He is from West Covina, California, and earned two letters in basketball at Edgewood High School. He is majoring in physical education at NSU and hopes to go into teaching and coaching.

ED PLAWSKI

Age: 24; Height: 6-1; Weight: 180. Plawski, from Hempstead, N. Y., is a junior at NSU. He lettered in football, basketball and baseball in high school at Hempstead. He is majoring in physical education and mathematics at NSU. He returns from last year's squad.

CAGE

THE

PACK

(Copy by Tom Martin, Review-Journal)

Clark's Corner

By DOMINIC CLARK

Have you ever heard the story about the man who made a mountain out of a molehill? Well, we have an adaptation of that famous story right here at NSU.

In 1958, the University of Nevada (Southern Regional Division) was composed of not much more than a molehill. Two buildings made up the campus. It was practically nothing. But from those meager surroundings, a MAN had a dream, a dream for NSU and Basketball.

Now, 10 years later, the "Silver Fox" has made his dream a reality.

In his tenth year as Athletic Director for NSU, Michael (Chub) Drakulich has been the guiding influence in this rapidly expanding department.

Ten years ago townspeople scorned and even laughed at Chub. You can bet your last dollar that those narrow-minded people wish they could eat their hats now.

Since 1958, the University of Nevada (So. Reg. Div.) has, for one, received its university credence—Nevada Southern University (1962). In '58 Drakulich floored NSU's first Basketball team. The native of McGill, Nevada, coached the Rebels to a 5-13 record during the inaugural season. The schedule included such teams as Nellis Air Force Base, Snow College, Dixie JC, and the College of Southern Utah.

As one local sportsman put it "That first Rebel team deserved the Medal of Honor. It was lacking in clientele and oft-times Chub would have to cancel the scrimmages at Fremont Junior High because there weren't enough players. But that was the very first time and the last time the Rebs had to suffer the embarrassment of a losing season."

The Rebels played their home games at Dula Recreation Center and charged through the 1959-60 season with a 13-8 record facing a harder schedule, and the 1960-61 year with a 13-12 record meeting rougher opponents. In their final year at Dula Chub's crew at 16-8 in 1961-62.

It was full speed ahead now as Drakulich led the Rebels into their spankin' new Campus Gymnasium for the 1962-63 season. Chub closed out his career that year, baptizing his gym with a tremendous 21-4 record.

Drakulich turned to full-time duties as Athletic Director, baseball and golf coach. He turned over the basketball helm to Ed Gregory who brought home 19-7 and 21-7 records, mention in the small college ratings, and made a Little All-American Honorable Mention of Silas Stepp.

Roland Todd became the new head hoop coach of 1965-66 and he started off with a 15-11 season. Last year Todd's squad won 21, lost only 6, was No. 10 in the nation among small colleges, and Elburt Miller was NSU's first official Little All-American.

EPILOGUE

Have you ever heard the story about the MAN who tried to make a mountain out of a molehill?

In 1967 Nevada Southern has a student (full-time) population of under 4,000, one much over-used Athletic Field, insufficient funds to strongly support any sport other than basketball, and a MAN has a dream, a dream for NSU and FOOTBALL.

In 1978, 10 years later, will the Silver Fox's dream be a reality???

FOOTBALL BANQUET — LV Mayor Oran Gragson takes a hand-off from NSU Football Coach Bill Ireland with one hand and a ticket to NSU's Dec. 10 Football dinner from Paul McDermott with the other. DEE ANDROS, coach of Oregon State University's "Giant Killers" will be the guest speaker at the affair. The $50-plate fund-raising affair will be held at the Stardust Hotel Auditorium at 7 p.m.

Rebs Toppled Twice

The Rebels lost their first game of the season Friday night to an alert Denver team, 95-84. Denver won by 11 points, but it was a hard-earned victory for the Pioneers. The Rebels ranked ninth among the nation's small colleges in a pre-season poll by United Press International.

NSU made 36 per cent of its field goal attempts from the floor during the game, while Denver had a 45 percentage. NSU trailed by five points at the end of the first half. The Rebels, led by John Trapp, Elburt Miller, and Jerry Chandler, came back from a 10-point deficit in the second half to tie the Pioneers, 63-63. Then Denver, led by All-American Harvey Hollines, went ahead for good by making three consecutive buckets.

Elburt Miller was high point man for the Rebels with 22 points, followed by John Trapp, who had 19. Hollines led all scorers with 32 points for the Pioneers.

NSU traveled from Denver to Laramie, Wyoming, to play the Wyoming Cowboys in their second basketball encounter, on Saturday night. It was a disastrous night for the Rebels, as they were beaten by the Cowboys, 120-87.

The Rebels jumped out to early leads, but lost them each time. By the time the first half was over, the Cowboys had opened up a margin of 19 points, which proved to be too much of a deficit for the Rebels to overhaul. Leading the Rebels in the first half was big John Trapp. John finished up the night with 21 points. The leading scorer for the Rebels was, surprisingly enough, a non-starter, Curtis Watson, who ended up the night with 24 points.

Wyoming, with its sharp-shooting team, ended up with four men in double figures: Harry Hall, 27; Charles Dodds, 24; Jon Ashley, 23; and Mike Eberle, 11. The Cowboys total of 120 also tied their school record for total points.

1967-68 FRESHMAN TEAM (l to r) Coach Bill Scoble, Jim Arrington, Mike Messner, Cornell Kimble, Jim Tener, Tom Farnsworth, Roy Suitter, Bob Riley, Ken Mitchell, Eugene Kendrick, Kerry Dolan, Cliff Jones (mgr.) and Ass't. Coach Les Reese. Kneeling co-captains John Garland, and Larry Lisby.

SEASON OPENS

CUBS BLITZ TWO

The NSU Freshman basketball team started its season off on a winning note, Dec. 1, as they ran away from Victor Valley Junior College, on the Rams home court, 130-87.

Three former Rancho High School teammates combined to score 80 points in leading the Cubs past the hapless Rams.

Jim Arrington tallied 37, Robert Riley hit for 24 and Terry Hunt pumped in 19 to pace the frosh, who had a 60-46 halftime lead before going on a 70 point scoring binge in the final period.

In the opening half the Cubs sank an astounding 55 per cent from the field, complimented by 49 per cent in the final half.

Coach Bill Scoble stressed that his frosh team appeared to be in much better condition than the host team, thus accounting for the huge 41 point margin of victory.

In all, five Cubs scored in double figures. Besides the ex-Rancho stalwarts, former Culver City (Calif.) ace, John Garland, bucketed 16 and one-time LV High star, Larry Lisby garnered 14.

This week, the Cubs face two perennially tough teams in Barstow Junior College and Nellis Air Force Base. On Dec. 9 the frosh journey to Barstow, Calif., to have a rematch of Tuesday's triller at the Convention Center. The Rebels encounter the base at 6:00 p.m. in the Convention Center as a prelim to the Varsity game with Albuquerque.

Hoopsters Tame Cats

Sparked by five players hitting in double-figures, the Rebels won their first game of the young season with a resounding 104-77 romp over Chico State University of California.

Led by the hot-shooting of All-American Elburt Miller,

NSU bilt up an insurmountable 48-28 halftime lead.

NSU, using an outstanding man-to-man defense, kept the Wildcats at bay most of the first half with Miller hitting for 2, Don Lyons 11, and John Trapp 11.

Miller scored 18 more in the second half for a total of 30 for the night, while Trapp hit for 21, Lyons 16 and Curtis Watson bagged 13 for the winning cause.

NSU To Face Dons, U of N

Hoping to battle back from a pair of early season setbacks, Rebel hoop mentor, Roland Todd, fields his "victory-minded" cagers against the University of Albuquerque here Monday. NSU takes to the hardwood once again on Thursday for the annual Homecoming tilt with the University of Nevada's Wolf Pack. Both Convention Center contests are scheduled for 8 p.m.

Head coach Ernie Smith of the University of Albuquerque has guided the blue and gold Dons successfully for the past six seasons, while compiling a 91-39 won-lost record. During that period the Dons captured two NAIA championships. Last year the Albuquerque based squad racked up a mediocre 13-11 record, but played the most difficult schedule in the school's history. Coach Smith is expected to rely heavily on three returning lettermen. They are Jim Schuller, a 6'3" forward, Joe Cook, a 6' guard, and Frank Lanabee, the 6'5" center.

Coach Jack Spencer and his hungry Reno Wolf Pack travel to Las Vegas to tangle in the annual Homecoming rivalry with the battling Rebels.

The Wolf Pack, who garnered a conference title in '65-'66, tied for last place last year while posting a poor 5-20 record. Coach Spencer aspires that the '67-'68 season that he terms as a "building year" will bring better results.

Alex Boyd and Dexter Wright, two players up from the junior varsity ranks are expected to supply a major portion of the Wolf Pack's offensive punch. Boyd paced last year's freshman crew with a blazing 24.3 point average per game. Hugh Gallagher, a 5'9" senior guard, and Roy Lesh, a speedy transfer from Rangely Junior College in Colorado, are also expected to assist in the offensive department for Nevada. Joe Madigan, the 6'3" Wolf Pack forward, should be active in Thursday's contest. He led the Far Western Conference in rebounding last season.

Kappa Sigs Trounce 'Epsilon As Intramurals Commence

By DOMINIC CLARK

The 1967 Intramural Basketball season started off last Sunday with the Intercollegiate Knights (IK's) tripping up Alpha Kappa Psi (AKY) 33-26, and Kappa Sigma (KE) smothering Alpha Epsilon Pi (AEP) 86-21, in the Fraternity league; and the Independents downing the Unameds 52-31, and the Gaels flying past the All Stars 46-30, in the Independent League.

Behind the 15 points shooting of Terry Lindberg, the IK's broke a 15-10 halftime score into a 33-26 IK victory.

Lindberg tallied 11 times in the final period on fade-away jump shots and ended a 24-24 tie with less than three minutes left in the game.

AKY's Jim Rose tied it up with a lay-in, but then the IK's pulled away for good with two quick buckets by Ridge Frew and Mike Mullaey. Rose and Bush led the Businessmen with 10 points apiece. (Ed's Note—Just to show you how much Intramurals are catching on here at NSU, the always busy CSNS President, Mike Clark, found time to suit up for AKY and bolster up their "Bench squad.")

KE's Mike West's 22 points was enough to beat AEP, even though the Sigs did add 66 more tallies in rolling over AEP, 86-21.

The Sig's hit for 14 markers before AEP even got on the scoreboard.

AEP's Jerry Gordon sank a 20-footer, but then it was all KE as they went in at halftime with a 46-13 lead. Gordon paced the P's with 10.

Gary Amundson hit for 22 to equal West's output, while Ken Jochim and Mike Stuart were the other KE leaders with 12 and 10 markers respectively.

In the first independent game, the Independents broke a 10-10 tie to slip past the Unameds, 52-31. After Rich Logan's set shot tied the game at 10 all, Travis Bonnville and Steve Ander poured in 21 points to give the Independents an unsurmountable 29-15 halftime edge.

Following the half, the Unameds came back with three buckets to narrow the gap, 29-21. But behind the 17 points of Stan Scheiner, the Independents continued to pull away. Scheiner was the game's leading scorer, followed by Ander's 15.

The Gaels started the season off with a bang by surprising a strong All Stars team 46-30, in the final game of the day. The Gaels Steve Nelson bagged five points in the first half to give the Gaels a tight 15-11 halftime lead.

The scoring game started as Nelson sank a charity toss which gave the Gaels the lead they never lost.

Al Espinosa brought the All Stars to within two points, 13-11 with less than four minutes before the half, but the Gaels pulled away in the second half, outscoring them 31-19.

The Gaels displayed an extremely well-balanced squad with three players reaching double figures in the scoring column. Ex-Basic High school's All-stater, Guy Nallia, sank 14, Steve Nelson tallied for 11 points, and Ken Stuler had 10 (8 in the final period).

Happenings . . .

Edited by SONJA MOSSE

Phi Mu's Colony Nationalizes

The installation of NSU's chapter of Phi Mu as Eta Lambda colony will be held Dec. 9 at 1 p.m. in the Imperium Room of Caesars Palace, followed by a banquet at 7:00 p.m. that evening. National officers and members of Phi Mu's western chapters will be present, and Mayor Oran Gragson will act as toastmaster.

The next day a reception will be held in the Art Gallery at 1:00 p.m. Invited guests will be faculty, parents and citizens of the community.

IK Holds Duchess Contest Sunday

The Intercollegiate Knights, Red Eagle chapter, has announced that their fourth annual I.K. duchess contest will be held Sunday, Dec. 10, in room 103 of the Social Science building.

The contest, which is held to choose "a talented, attractive, and personable girl student" to represent the local chapter in national competition for Royal Queen, will feature three candidates who are vying for the title of I.K. Chapter Duchess. The candidates are: Kim Olsen, Andrea Toulouse, and Manuela Trapletti; all are dormitory residents.

Each candidate will perform before I.K.'s and guests and be judged by a panel of faculty members on talent, personality and attractiveness. The winner will be announced at the annual CSNS-I.K. sponsored Sno-Ball Dec. 18.

All faculty and students are welcomed at the contest.

Karen Jenson Becomes New ISC President

Miss Karen Jenson, Alpha Delta Pi, is the new president of the Intersorority Council. Miss Carole Smith, Alpha Delta Pi, had to resign because of insufficient class hour enrollment.

Kappa Sigma Commemorates Founding

On Sunday, Dec. 10, at 7 p.m. Kappa Sigma Fraternity will celebrate Founders Day. A banquet is planned at the Frontier Hotel that evening at 7 p.m.

Approximately 40 local alumni, actives, pledges and their guests will attend. Guest speaker will be Mr. Paul Schofield, Director of Student Activities and Guest of Honor will be Kappa Sigma Ritualist Brad Holbrook.

Delta Sigs Take To The Hills

Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity is planning a retreat to be held at Mt. Charleston Dec. 9-10. Members will meet in front of Frazier Hall and then drive up with expected arrival time at 10 a.m. Activities there will include production of paddles for next semester's pledge class, football and volleyball, and a general meeting to discuss topics of the pledge, social, house, athletic, and educational committees.

The following Sunday they will return home to play their first basketball game. The rest of the afternoon will be devoted to work on the Homecoming float.

TKE Hosts Child Haven Christmas Party

Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, in cooperation with the Clark County Alumni chapter of Alpha Chi Omega sorority, will host a Christmas party for the children at Child Haven Orphanage this month.

Toys and treats will be provided for all children there.

The Tekes are sponsoring Child Haven as their public service project.

Boxing Gloves Worn For Basketball?

The REBEL YELL recently received the following document from Miss Karen Jensen, president of the Intersorority Council.

"We the members of the Intersorority Council of NSU do hereby challenge the members of the Interfraternity Council to a basketball game on Tuesday, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the gym.

"The following are rules that will be adhered to by all participants:

"1) No male who has presently or previously played on a NSU junior varsity or varsity teams may participate in this game.

"2) ALL-male players must wear boxing gloves on both hands.

"3) There will be five men teams and not more than one representative from any one fraternity will be allowed on the court.

"4) There will be unlimited substitution for the girls.

"5) Men may wear only socks, no tennis shoes.

"6) One personal foul by a male will result in his elimination from the team.

"7) There are five minute quarters.

"8) There is a ten-minute half with IFC providing the entertainment.

"9) Only girls may travel."

Admission to the game will be 25 cents and ISC will sell the tickets at the door.

To Be In, You Must Be Recognized

All organizations not in compliance with CSNS rulings by the end of this semester will be no longer officially functional on the NSU campus.

Campus Organizations Committee (COC) chairman, Charles Ivy, states that repeated notices and letters have been sent to all organizations. Twelve have responded, but many others still have not contacted Ivy.

Without recognition, a group cannot use campus facilities for advertising or meetings. It will be dropped from all publications such as Beau's Bits, the REBEL YELL, and the EPILOGUE. In short, it will not be an NSU group.

Discrepancies have arisen as to approval of fraternities and sororities. COC now recognizes the Interfraternity and Inter-sorority councils, who, in turn, recognize their own membership by means of an elected board of Greek members. Fraternity and sorority matters are now totally handled by the Office of Student Affairs and have nothing to do with CSNS.

Changes in COC and SAC, Student Activities Committee, are being initiated. Students on SAC have, up until the present time, had no vote. COC members will now vote at SAC meetings.

The following organizations are recognized by COC for this year: Christian Science, Pamela Craft, President; Karate Club, Van Vannoy, President; Psychology Club, Nomilee Tilman, President; Circle K, Robert Cook, President; B'Nai Sholom, Neil Schwartz and Pam Phillips, Co-Chairmen; Biology Club, Keith Grover, President; Lamplighters, Marie Christensen, President; Intercollegiate Knights, Allen Bell, President; Forensics Club, Larry Trunkey, President; Newman Club, Dennis Hugh, President; Students for Political Action,

The new pledges of Alpha Delta Pi (l to r) are: bottom row, Karen Jenson, Carole Smith, Trish Allen, Linda Dopico, Connie Fortier, Jeni Pryor, Sandy Cowan, Gail Horch and Linda Snyder; top row, Steffanie Garth, Marilyn Hall, Linda Clark, Jackie Womble, Miss Maxine Blake, Grand National President; Kathy Ratay, Joy Marcheson, Linda Herrmann, Darlene Workman, Val Zupsan, Vickie Jolley and Beverley Hall.

Phi Delta Chi Pledges Alpha Delta Pi

Phi Delta Chi has been accepted as a colony of the nation's first sorority, the national Alpha Delta Pi, setting a campus record of less than two years in local establishment.

The new pledges are Mmes. Patricia Allen, Linda Clark, Sandy Cowan, Linda Dopico, Connie Fortier, Stephanie Garth, Beverley Hall, Marilyn Herrmann, Gail Horch, Karen Jenson, Vickie Jolley, Joy Marcheson, Jeni Pryor, Kathy Ratay, Carole Smith, Linda Snyder, Darlene Workman, Jackie Womble and Valerie Zupsan.

The pledging ceremony was officiated by Miss Maxine Blake, Grand National President, on Saturday, Dec. 2, at the residence of Mrs. Cyril Wengert, alumna of Alpha Delta Pi.

Alpha Delta Pi was founded in Macon, Georgia, May 15, 1851. It was established on the principles of social, scholastic and moral standards.

The NSU chapter will be initiated after four months of pledgeship and approval of its charter.

The active alumnae chapter in Las Vegas will work closely with the NSU chapter. A Mother's Club will be formed.

Letters to the Editor

(Continued from Page 2)

talked with several people including Chuck Crawford, First V.P.; Charles Ivy, Senior Senator; Mike Clark, Student Body President; all the fraternity presidents; the presidents of I.F.C. and I.S.C.; and numerous other individuals. From these talks, I found out I wasn't the only one who felt a change was needed. I was then chosen by all fraternities to be their spokesman on Homecoming.

At the Homecoming Committee meeting, I moved for the following method of nominating a queen for candidate: 1) All groups, male or female, may nominate a candidate; 2) Any girl receiving 25 signatures on a petition shall be considered a candidate. This method, I hoped, would make it possible for all students to get interested in the contest whether freshman or senior, male or female, independent or Greek.

I challenge Mr. Frew to deny this. I further challenge him to deny the following: 1) The committee was a good cross-section of the campus, being composed of males and females, members of groups and independents; 2) My motion was accepted nine to zero; 3) Mr. Frew himself voted in favor of this motion.

Could it be that Mr. Frew was finally forced to admit that all students have rights on this campus? As a candidate for student body president last year, he should remember that the obligation of any student body representative is to represent all the students.

I, as a student on this campus, have a right to lobby against anything I consider unfair or restricting. I also have a right to criticize any group or individual as long as my criticism is just and fair. It's about time we opened our eyes to the growth of NSU and encouraged students to develop an interest in everything that happens on our campus. Criticism should be accompanied by a better solution. Was he really criticizing or just complaining?

In my opinion, Mr. Frew has not presented the facts accurately. Instead, he has attempted to misguide the students. I challenge Mr. Frew to refute anything I have said in this letter.

I must give credit to Mr. Frew for one thing; he did sign his name to this article, or was that a mistake on the editor's part?

Respectfully submitted,
William Terry

CLASSIFIED

LOST — Term paper on "Prejudice" for Psych. 361 class. If found, contact Trudi Smolens at 870-2103 or bring to lost and found.

TUTORING — French, German, Conversation. Phone 735-8970.

GIFT SUGGESTIONS

Sweatshirts — Windbreakers — Surfer Shirts —
Key Chains — Men's Neckties — Ash Trays
Embroidered Emblems — Beer Mugs — Coffee Cups
— All the above are made with school seal —

DICTIONARIES — English, French, Spanish
FICTION — Hardbacks — Current Reading

Pen & pencil sets — Papermate & Lindy pens — Cigarettes

THE UNIVERSITY STORE

(Across From The Campus)

NSU BASKETBALL

1967-1968

ALL THE ACTION — Home and Away
ON

KORK