REBEL YELLS

Vol. 1, No. 1

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

May 23, 1968

Nobody Asked Us But . . .

- you can fool all of the people some of the time, and some of the people all of the time, and the C.S.N.S. Senate whenever you try.
- a member of the University administrative staff was heard in the Dining Commons to have referred to Rita Haddad's editorials as just a "Big Noise". (We always thought people said "Excuse me" after that kind of a noise.)
- next year the Senate will represent more than 1% of the student body.
- not enough of the A.F.T. members burned their teaching contracts.
- Alpha Delta Pi will not get as much coverage in the REBEL YELL next year.
- Chuck Crawford's resignation didn't come soon enough.
- the Student Union Building will not be renamed "Paul Hall."
- Rita Haddad will never be elected to a C.S.N.S. position.
- McCarthy will never make it past the primaries.
- the Senate should meet at a time more convenient to the students they are supposed to represent.
- there will be water in the fountain in front of the Library next year.
- we're glad Bill Terry was elected.
- Joni Hurst is a good example of what a Senator should be for next year's Senators.
- there will be a different REBEL YELL editor next year.
- C.S.N.S. Student Body President Mike Clark will not be taking Rita Haddad to the Senior Prom.
- nobody will realize how much we needed Dr. Moyer until he's gone.
- Craig Pyes won't be missed in the Senate ....nor in the Library....nor in the Dining Commons...nor in the Student Union...nor in the classroom.....
- whatever happened to the Toy Box?
- why wasn't the entire Student Body censured for "lack of faith in the Senate"?
- the N.S.U. Dining Commons was the only place in town where a Mother's Day Dinner could be had without a reservation.
- $7.50 a month was too much to pay some of the Senators this year.
- we're still looking for an editorial written by Jeni Pryor.
- students aren't the only ones who should be paying $27 per semester for the use of the Student Union Building.
- hats off to C.S.N.S. President Mike Clark for acknowledging 1st V.P. Chuck Crawford's resignation.
- what ever happened to the Journalism class?
- the Business Faculty will never have another pitcher like "Grover."
- we wish there were more people like Rona Shore in Student Government - (she refused to break under pressure from the "Clique.")
- checking briefcases in the Library is in the best interests of all students (sorry 'bout that Craig.)
- the REBEL YELL belongs to the students - not to the editors or to their "hidden persuaders."
- a certain power play over the recent C.S.N.S. elections represented a CLIQUE of narrow-minded, short-sighted individuals guided by their ego down the path of Vanity; they purported to defend a righteous cause while in fact, they rose in defense to no more than their own weaknesses; they judged others by their weaknesses instead of their strengths, while they judged themselves by their own halucinatory imaginations.
- more people will read this paper than did the sometimes weekly Fishwrapper of a smiliar name.
- in the Senate this past year when all was said and done, more was said than done.
- if you think this "ragsheet" is one-sided, biased, narrow-minded and hyper-critical then you didn't read the last four issues of the "REBEL SQUEAK."
- a conflict of interests existed between Rita Haddad's office of Freshman Senator and her position as Assistant Editor of the REBEL YELL.

REBEL YELLS

This paper (?) was published by a group of interested Nevada Southern students at their own personal expense in the hopes of presenting some of the issues neglected in the last 4 issues of the REBEL YELL paper (?). It is hoped that the student community will be provoked into thinking about THEIR Student Union.... THEIR REBEL YELL.... THEIR Student Government....and THEIR $17.50 per semester. It is further intended to stimulate the complacent majority into avoiding domination by a noisy minority.

Fair Play

WHY? WHY? WHY? The students of Nevada Southern University demand to know WHY one ex-vice president chose to ignore the following Judicial Board edict and refuse to disclose its contents to other Executive Committee officers. Since when can one man nullify Judicial Board decisions especially when they were so important in his earlier vilification of Jean Childs?

OFFICIAL REPRIMAND

Dear First Vice-President Crawford,

In as much as the Judicial Board in the Child's case (Oct. 2, 1967) ruled that the responsibility for checking the eligibility of candidates to hold office either through election or appointment when a GPA was required was vested in the Judicial Board under Article V Section 1 Clause A, original page 7 or the Constitution, you are hereby reprimanded for not submitting the names of your recent senate appointments to the Judicial Board for validation. The Senator's eligibility to hold office in regard to the necessary GPA has not been validated in the proper manner; therefore their service to the Confederation has not officially begun. Their actions as officers of the Confederation are therefore void.

The Judicial Board hereby demands the names of your appointments to be submitted in written form so that proper validation can proceed.

WANTED FOR 1968-'69 A REBEL YELL EDITOR WHO WILL:

1. have the courage to make his/her own decisions
2. present both sides of an issue
3. not slant or suppress the news
4. devote his/her energies to serving the majority rather than pacifying a vociferous minority
5. avoid "alliances" which would restrict his/her objectivity
6. provide a meaningful dialog among students instead of blatant criticisms and meaningless juvenile complaining
7. occasionally write an editorial

AN OPEN LETTER TO C.S.N.S. MEMBERS

Fellow students:

On Monday, April 29, the following resignation was tendered to CSNS President Mike Clark...It was followed by a superficial protest of the elections that resulted in abusive personal attacks upon most supporters of president-elect Bill Terry.

The Students For Fair Play believe that the third paragraph of this resignation explains the REAL reason for discrediting the election that resulted in Bill Terry's victory.

Rebel Yell Editor Jeni Pryor was also informed on this matter but refused to print anything about it. Instead she printed a one-sided slanderous attack on those persons involved with conducting the C.S.N.S. election. This editorial which was published without a by-line (for obvious reasons) was in fact authored by the same person it defended.

Signed, Students for Fair Play

Dear Mike,

This is to inform you of my decision to resign from my elected C.S.N.S. position.

My decision, while based upon many considerations, is mainly the result of my disappointment in the arbitrary manner in which the current C.S.N.S. elections have been handled by this administration. There has been little consistency in the decisions concerning these elections. As a result, directly, I believe that many students were deceived as to the nature of the elections, I have, consequently submitted a case in protest to the first of the two elections.

This also affects, if the election confusion is straightened out, my decision to work fully on behalf of Terry Lindberg. It has become a major goal to me that the greek fraternity-sorority system not make the decision of the student body on the matter of selecting a student body President. I have received too much hard evidence of a cohesive voting bloc to elect Bill Terry on the basis of his affiliation as a Greek.

I consequently do not wish to be accused of saying or doing anything as Senate President that might blemish my otherwise good record. Not so much for my sake, but for the respect of the office. Mike, I have always devoted myself fully for what I believe in, I worked for your campaign in this way. I cannot devote half effort here. Full effort would do injustice to the office I hold.

Thank you for any cooperation you gave me this year. I would suggest that you allow Bruce Heskett to assume the position.

Respectfully submitted, Chuck Crawford 4/29/68
