

INTERTRAINMENT Don't fix this Love gods arrive, big deal

by kris miles spox

Often times, in the case of man, we are driven by this insatiable urge to create and acheive a certain goal. This was the case for two young, modern day Love Gods. The quest for a mission-ofun had recently purged into their cheesy, syphilatic minds. With Spring Break coming ever so quickly, their drives and desires engorged these bold young charges into fits of glee and happiness. These men were the Love Gods. We are these men.

We are the Love Gods. Moral debauchery and social decadence engulf our seedy minds, requiring us to engage in those unacceptable acts that we find most necessary in order to further perpetuate the violation of our bodies and minds. We recognize the need for our own gratification and fulfillment, and utilize whatever means possible to exploit these wants and desires to their fullest potential. NEXT WEEK: THE CONQUEST.

Hulk to battle Newton to death for world wrestling crown

by sword swallower

staff slihter

In what is billed as the tag team match of the century, Hulk Hogan has challenged Strip entertainer, Wayne Newton to a wrestling match with partners to be determined later.

Possible partners for the two have been leaked. Among the possibilities are Pat Robertson and Jesse Jackson, George Bush and Michael Dukakis.

Chief among the possibilities for the Hulks partners are Barry Manilow. The Midnight Idol has yet to make any announcement, but rumor has it that fellow Las Vegas entertainer and philanthropist Jerry Lewis is among the candidates. The Hulk claims he will stop Newton into the ground. However, Newton will not be an easy opponent for the Hulkster.

The match is set for May 30, at the Thomas & Mack Center. UNLV President Robert C. Maxson is set to officiate.
