

KUNV's Legal Concepts probes current legal matters

by laura payne

staff writer

Wednesday mornings at 10:00 a program entitled Legal Concepts airs on 91, KUNV, Community Radio. The show has been on since October and during that time many interesting and controversial subjects have been examined and discussed. Host, attorney Brad Bittan, has interviewed many important and influential guests. The program focuses on topics of current interest and their legal ramifications.

Many prominent public figures have been guests on the program such as former Gov. Grant Sawyer, Attorney General Brain McKay, Senator Harry Reid, U.S. Rep. Barbara Vucanovich, and Gov. Richard Bryan. The show closely examines current local and national political and human rights issues. Guests are enabled to present their opinion on a wide range of subjects.

Previous shows have focused on such issues as the new smoking legislation, animal rights, medical malpractice, and gun control. A two part series on women in the law with special guest, the president of the Southern Nevada Women Attorney's Association provided insights for those aspiring female attorneys.

The program is an excellent way to learn about public officials and the views on various issues. Mr. Bittan spends a great deal of time in preparing for his program and this effort is reflected in it's quality.

Brad is open for suggestions for future programs. To submit your ideas please contact KUNV.

When asked if he enjoyed his work he replied, "Very much, the program provides excellent insight into the politics of our community."

Shaun McGeahy to perform at Ham Hall

On April 12, Shaun McGeahy, a clarinet major studying in music performance at UNLV, will perform his Senior Recital at 4:30pm in Artemus Ham Concert Hall.

Works to be performed include Sonata by Leonard Bernstein and Carl Nielsen's Concerto Opus 57 for Clarinet. Carol Urban will accompany on piano and Greg Hudson, percussion. Also to be performed is Shubert's Shepard on the Rock, featuring vibrant Soprano Kathleen Marx, and Lynn Trippy, piano.

Shaun, a student of Felix Visculgia, is currently a principal player of both the University Wind Ensemble and the UMS Orchestra, and on occasion has performed with the Las Vegas Symphony Orchestra.

This recital is given in partial fulfillment of the Bachelor of Arts Degree in Music from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Beetlejuice

manages to give his character some shallow dimension. A special treat was Winona Ryder as the sweetly cryptic Gothic Nouveau daughter, managing to portray a "Death Rocker" without pretense.

Unfortunately, the movie spends so much time weaving back and forth we never have a chance to appreciate how funny it could be, and most of the jokes become unmemorable in the confusion. Well, anyway, Beetlejuice has a lot of fun in it, and it isn't completely dissatisfying, so you might want to give it a look. At least you don't have to worry about dying from laughing too much.
