CSUN HAS LECTURE NOTES

Student Services now has 13 classes with notetakers. Notes may be purchased for $1 a day or $20 for the entire semester. Please keep in mind that CSUN does not offer these notes as an alternative for students attending classes, rather as additional exposure to the material and as backup in case students miss classes. These notes are also offered for those students who having learning disabilities or who may live with dyslexia.

CAMPUS VOICES

CSUN wants YOUR opinion on campus issues. In this section we will be informing you of issues that effect UNLV and its students. We want you to come into our offices and tell us what you think!

MADATORY VOLUNTEERISM

A proposal is presently before the regents regarding including volunteer work as a requirement for graduation in all colleges. This means that to graduate all students would have to perform a required amount of volunteer work. Also under consideration is a modified version of this proposal called Volunteer Volunteerism, where colleges would have to provide an outlet for students to perform volunteer work but not requiring it for graduation. If you have any thoughts about this please come in and share them with us so we can get them down in writing. Ask for Tyrone Smith, Co-OSI Director!
