Last weekend the UNLV soccer team improved its record to 9-7 this season after sweeping two Big West Conference matches.

Friday night the Rebels defeated UC Irvine 8-0 and UC Santa Barbara 5-2 on Sunday. The wins put UNLV at 4-3 in Big West play. Leading the Rebels last weekend was junior forward Doug Borgel. Borgel set a UNLV record with four goals in the team's victory over UC Irvine.

He also recorded one assist and continued his pace on Sunday as he scored three more goals against Santa Barbara.

Borgel finished the weekend with seven goals and one assist giving him 39 points. He now leads the Big West in scoring.

In addition, Borgel set individual records for goals in a game with four and points in a game with nine.

Freshman Daniel Barber also performed well, tying the UNLV record for assists with four.

The Rebels face Cal State Fullerton and Cal State Los Angeles this weekend at Peter Johann Field.

Fullerton is 9-6-1 on the season and Cal State Los Angeles is 10-5-3. This weekend's matches wrap up the Rebels home games this season.

Rebel Notes: Two members of the 1988 Rebel Soccer team will make their professional debut when the Major Indoor Soccer League begins its 1989-90 season next week. Simon Keith, who went as the number one draft pick, will play for the Cleveland Crunch while Eddie Anibal joins the Kansas City Comets.

Swimming opens season

This weekend UNLV Swimming opens its season with the first annual Rebel Invite to take place Oct. 27 and 28. The meet will be held in the Buchanan Natatorium in the McDermott Physical Education building at UNLV.

Both the men's and women's teams will be competing against themselves and individuals from clubs and other universities and colleges. The meet begins at 5:00 p.m. on Friday and 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. on Saturday.

Hustlin' Rebel Baseball conclude their fall schedule this weekend with a four game series at home against American River Junior College which is located in Sacramento, California. The team lost two of three last weekend against Arizona State.

During Friday's game ASU defeated the Rebels 7-3. The teams split a double header on Saturday as the Rebels won the first game 5-4 and lost the second 11-5.

Several individuals performed well against Arizona. Pitcher Donovan Osborne got the loss against ASU in the first game but managed to strike out 10 in seven innings. So far this fall he has struck out 13 in 11 innings.

Second baseman Ernie Perez is the leading hitter for UNLV holding a .476 average with one home run and five RBI. He is tied with third baseman Mike Strobel with 10 hits. Strobel is leading the team in home runs with four and RBI with eight.

Pitcher Brian Boehring made his first start and earned the only victory of the weekend at ASU. He allowed one run on four hits in five innings against Arizona. He improved his record to 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA.

Rightfielder Danny Costa has hit safely in all seven fall games so far. Costa hit his first home run against Arizona boosting his average to .409 with one home run and six RBI.

Games this weekend begin on Friday at 2:00 p.m. with a double header on Saturday at 11:00 a.m. and the final game at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday.
