The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics held the 11th Annual Student-Athlete Convocation prior to Spring Break to honor 80 student-athletes who excelled in the classroom as well as their respective sports.

Soccer player Jerry Pribil and basketball player David Rice shared the Most Outstanding Athlete honor while swimmer Amy Warrick and cross country and track and field athlete Michelle Poteat were the Most Outstanding Female Athletes.

All four of these athletes received their honors for maintaining a 4.0 grade point average over the past year.

In addition, several individuals were honored in each of their sports. In order to be eligible a student-athlete must have completed a minimum of 12 credits with at least a 3.0 GPA and served as an active member of the athletic squad.

Individuals who received honors are listed. The student-athlete listed first obtained the highest GPA in their respective sports.

It took Freud 38 years to understand it.
You have one night.

The psych exam is in 12 hours. And your id wants to party. Your ego wants to conk out. But your superego knows you need to stay awake tonight to cram.

Fortunately, you've got Vivarin. It helps keep you awake and mentally alert for hours. Safely and conveniently. So all your brainpower can focus on understanding the brain.

If Freud had used Vivarin, maybe he could have understood the brain faster, too.
