Point of View

What are your feelings toward government censorship within the arts and music?

Darrell Lewis, Junior Social Work

I'm against any type of limits put on freedom of speech. I'm not sure of government's role. People must govern themselves and realize some groups are out to buck the system just to see how far they can go.

Christy McCoy, Freshman Business

Parents have a responsibility to know what their children listen to. Some type of rating system might be helpful to them. If they took more responsibility towards what their children listen to there would be no controversy. Art should be left alone.

Free Consultation

3900 Paradise · Suite 165

(Citibank Park)

Las Vegas, Nevada

Social Work

Freedom of speech is a constitutional right. If we don't have freedom of speech then what does America stand for? Its personal choice. You don't have to buy the album or look at the picture; it's your choice.

Major Insurance Accepted

Discounts to UNLV Students

Foreign languages: Are they really worth it?

by Adejoke Adenle

sibility of foreign language as a powerful tool. In the event of travcore requirement, the major ques- eling to another country it helps "Is it really necessary?" It may about you; a foreign language not be "really necessary" but it could open doors that would othcould be beneficial to us all in erwise remain closed. becoming well rounded individu-languages are only necessary for know languages. those who need it in their majors or it they are to travel interna- encourage foreign language retionally. This is true, but it ig- quirements. The way to do this nores the fact that a lot is to be would be to make it a core relanguage.

another culture, it is essential to afford to do without. know the language the people speak.

Dr. George Urioste who is currently in charge of the linguistics program said he believes there is more to school than practical learning.

Dr. Urioste also said "Doctors should first be human beings before being scientists."

Learning another person's language goes a long way toward learning that person's culture and expanding human understanding.

In addition, having command

When contemplating the pos- of a foreign language is a very tion that comes to mind would be, to know what others are saying

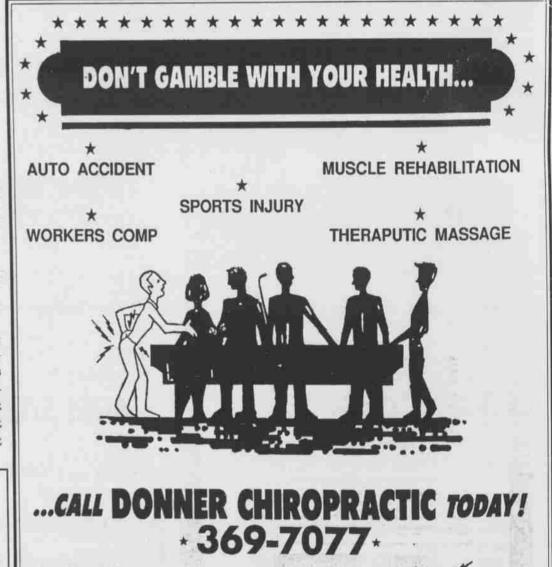

With Americans increasing importance in international com-It may be argued that foreign merce, it would be beneficial to

The school should therefore gained from learning a foreign quirement for all departments. It might be expensive but it might In order to truly learn about be the type of expense we can't on 1800 college campuses!

Your campus group can earn up to $1000 in just one week. No investment needed. Be first on your campus. A FREE gift just for calling. Call Now

1-800-765-8472 Ext.90

7AM TO 10PM MONDAY TO FRIDAY 9 AM to 5PM SATURDAY