

Rebel soccer team splits Big West contests

by Billy Naftaly
Staff Reporter

The 13th-ranked Rebel soccer team took to the road this past week, only to lose to fellow Big West Conference rival, Fresno State, 4-0. Just three days later on Sept. 30, the Rebels defeated another Big West opponent, San Jose State, 4-1.

The Fresno State Bulldogs proved why they are ranked 7th nationally and defending champions of the Big West Conference.

Fresno State started the scoring at 22:14 of the first half, when midfielder Ricky Villa scored on a penalty kick. Just two minutes later, the Bulldogs struck again when defender Chris Johnson headed the ball in from ten yards out.

In the second half, Fresno State continued the onslaught with two goals by forward Gerell Elliott.

The Rebels couldn't seem to get it together against the Fresno State defense, which held the Rebels to three shots in the first half and only one shot in the second half.

The defeat dropped the Rebels to 4-3-2, 1-1 in Big West Conference play. The Bulldogs improved their record to 7-1-1 and 2-0 in conference.

Although the Rebels couldn't get their game on the right track against Fresno State, they did get their game going against another Big West opponent, San Jose State.

Junior defender Mike Madrid started the scoring for the Rebels at 27:02 of the first half, when he took a pass from freshman midfielder Richie Louis and put it in the goal from five yards out.

UNLV scored their second goal at 55:44 of the second half, when senior forward Doug Borgel's shot tipped off the Spartans goalie and into the path of freshman midfielder Ben Erickson, who shot it in. Borgel struck next 10 minutes later, when he took a pass from freshman defender Joe Cormany and shot it over the Spartan goalie's head.

With the Rebels leading 3-0, the Spartans ruined the shutout bid at 79:25. Forward Phoung Ngo scored in a one-on-one situation. Junior forward Terry Pryer scored the last goal for the Rebels on a pass from Borgel.

The Rebel's offense and defense came alive during this game, recording 22 shots on goal and allowing only six.

The victory increased the Rebels' record to 5-3-2, 2-1 in the Big West. San Jose State dropped to 2-5-0 and 0-2.

The Rebels will return to the road on Oct. 5 against Big West opponent Cal State Fullerton and Oct. 7 against No. 1-ranked UCLA.
