Homecoming Candidates

King candidates

Orlando Avecilla

Avecilla is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, a full-time UNLV student, and is currently employed at Catch A Rising Star Comedy Club. Graduating from high school in Michigan, Avecilla is studying communications and law at UNLV and enjoys playing football, basketball, and baseball in his free time. "I hope to attend law school at Wayne State University and practice law in the future," Avecilla said.

Robert I. Cudlip

Cudlip is a junior at UNLV studying hotel and restaurant administration. Spending most of his "crib" and "tricycle" years in Pasadena, California, Cudlip has lived in many places throughout the United States. "Since arriving to Las Vegas in 1988, I've had a plethora of good times. The friends I've met here have been the best and I can't thank them enough for making my experiences so enjoyable," Cudlip said. ("SMILE...and the world smiles with you.")

Loren Dale

Graduating from Bonanza High School, Dale is a native Nevadan who is currently working on a dual major of managerial finance and management information systems. Serving as treasurer for Delta Sigma Phi, Dale is also involved in activities outside of school including committee chair for the Young People's Annual Convention for United Methodist Youth and volunteer for Candlelighters for childhood cancer.

Ed Enzemann

An active member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, Enzemann is a senior at UNLV and plans to graduate in December. Positions within his fraternity that he has held include president, vice president and secretary. He currently serves as Sports Chairman. During Enzemann's four years spent at UNLV he has actively participated in intramural sports; soccer, volleyball, and softball. "I currently support the Las Vegas community by coaching an under seven year old soccer team," Enzemann stated.

Korey Johnson

Johnson is originally from New Jersey but completed his high school years in Maryland where he participated in activities such as baseball, football, and representative of the student government. As a senior in Hotel Administration, Johnson has been involved with the Residential Life Program where he was a residential assistant, and has also worked with the campus police department as a security and parking enforcer. "I hope to graduate in the Fall of '91 and my future goals after UNLV are to work in a hotel in the sales department," Johnson said.

Nick Simms

Leaving Australia at the age of 12, Simms came to the United States and later graduated from Chaparral High School. Simms has served as a medic in the U.S. Army reserve since 1987. Consistently on the dean's list at UNLV Simms has held the offices of social chairman, rush chairman, and scholarship chairman for the Sigma Chi fraternity. Simms also enjoys water skiing, jet skiing, basketball, football, and various other sports. "I am majoring in managerial finance, and I plan to go to law school upon graduating from UNLV," Simms said.

Carl Townsend Jr.

Townsend is a marketing major from Parker, Colorado. Currently active in Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, his future goal is to work for an advertising firm as an artist. Townsend has attended UNLV for three years and is employed by the Thomas and Mack Center as a stagehand and rigger. "I enjoy skiing, rock climbing, and hiking in my spare time," Townsend said.

Kurt DeMars

DeMars is president of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and helped to organize its colonization last October. He is also the director of catering for the hotel association and in the past served as a senator for Hotel Administration. Originally from Montana, DeMars is active in its [Montana's] state politics, and also is involved in his father's campaign for State Legislature for the past six years. "My future plans are primarily open, but I hope to go on to graduate school in finance and from there get involved in catering or corporate restaurant," DeMars said.

Kent Emeson

Born in Denver, Colorado, Emeson is a junior at UNLV majoring in hotel administration. Currently Emeson is the marketing director for the Hotel Association with future plans in corporate life upon graduation in 1992. "I also am involved with various athletics including racketball, golf, volleyball, football, and skiing," Emeson said. Emeson also is a coach for a girls gymnastic team.

Jeff Bauhs

Bauhs transferred to UNLV two years ago and is majoring in mechanical engineering. As an active member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, Bauhs has also served as the Student Government senator for the Engineering College. "I am currently a member of the student government entertainment and programming board, MSU programming council, elections board, and also served this summer as a new student orientation leader," Bauhs said.

Steve Pieri

Pieri is in his third year at UNLV majoring in business economics, and is currently the president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Within his fraternity, Pieri was able to establish a designated driver system to coincide with the chapter's alcohol awareness program and also has worked to establish an anti-hazing policy. Pieri is also involved in many volunteer and charity organizations as well as various offices within his fraternity. "I believe that these accomplishments as well as other events within the community qualify me to represent this university as this year's Homecoming King," Pieri said.
