

Point of View

There are presently 210,000 U.S. troops in Saudi Arabia. Do you think the U.S. should send 100,000 more troops?

Victor Ingram
Junior, Communications

Yes. It is necessary for defensive action because we are at a severe disadvantage numerically.

Colleen Ryan
Sophomore, Biology

I think it is unfortunate that we should send any more troops at all; but if the situation worsens, we definitely should.

Matt Wood
Senior, English

No. I don't think it's very patriotic to fight for oil.

Diane Bordenave
Senior, Education

No. We are encouraging war and with all the troops presently there we have given a show of force.
