

The finals are coming! The finals are coming!

Extended library hours for finals week:

Thanks to the generous funding support received from Student Government, the Library will maintain special extended hours during the Fall 1990 final exam period beginning Friday, Dec. 7 through Friday, Dec. 14. The Reserve Reading Room will be open continuously as a study hall. THIS IS A DESIGNATED QUIET STUDY AREA. The first floor lobby area will also be available. Students who wish to use the Library as a study hall after the full use hours will be required to move to the Reserve Room. Special Collections and the Curriculum Materials Library will maintain their normal hours during this period. The Computer Lab and Reserve Room materials will NOT be available during study hall only hours. Following is the schedule of hours for both full library use and study hall use.

Security personnel may require students to show their student identification during study hall hours.
