The 1991 Annual Juried Student exhibition held from Feb. 20 to March 8 in the Donna Beam Fine Art Gallery featured some of UNLV's upcoming and talented artists.

There were 90 entries into the contest, and 33 were accepted into judging by juror Micky Dvortcsak. Dvortcsak is a professor from UC Santa Barbara and a well-known artist represented by a New York gallery. He also maintains a full-time studio in Santa Barbara.

The showing raised $265 and various prizes were distributed for the first five places and also three honorable mentions.

"Any exposure that a student receives is a tribute; it is a great way to be recognized," said Terry Klouda, art club president and full-time student at UNLV. According to Klouda, there were many favorable responses to the art show and it may even be enough support for the art students' work to be seen more frequently on campus as well as in the Las Vegas community.

The winners of the juried art show are as follows: 1st place, Akira Requa—$200 for the College of Fine and Performing Arts Dean's Award; 2nd place, Joy Prendergast—$100 from the College of Fine and Performing Arts; 3rd place, Mike Stevenson—$100 from the Nevada Institute for Contemporary Art; 4th place, El Requa—$50 from the UNLV Art Club; 5th place, Daniel Labree—$25 from the UNLV Art Club. The three honorable mentions went to Cheryl Davis, Florence Turner and Dawn Veltman.
