

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Campus events

Campus carnival

A carnival will be held April 2-7 at the Thomas & Mack Center. Organizations interested in setting up a booth for fund-raising contact Liza or Rob in Student Government, 739-3477.

Hiram Hunt poetry contest

The 20th annual Dept. of English Hiram Hunt Poetry Contest is open to all registered UNLV students. Each contestant may submit 1-3 poems (maximum length per poem: 100 lines), typed on separate sheets with name, address and phone number on each sheet.

Submit entries to the Dept. of English, FDH611, by Friday, April 5. Entries may be picked up after the contest is over. The winner receives $50 in cash, recognition at the Spring Honors Convocation, and a place on the Excellence in Poetry plaque in the English Dept. office.

A departmental committee chaired by James Hazen will serve as judge for the 1991 contest.

Bencivenga lecture and discussion

Dr. Ermanno Bencivenga, professor of philosophy from University of California, Irvine, will make a presentation titled "The Electronic Self: The Significance of Electronic Mail to the Problem of Subjectivity," April 2, 7 p.m., in MSU 202. He will also conduct an informal discussion on April 3, 1:30 p.m., in WRI 212, co-sponsored by the PHI, SOC and COS faculty.

Glacier Park summer jobs

Glacier National Park, located in the northwest corner of Montana, is looking for students to fill more than 900 summer jobs in all segments of the hotel and hospitality areas.

The seven hotels and lodges and the famous red vintage tour coaches operate throughout the 1.4 million acres of the park. Since the early 1900s, it has been a tradition for college students from across the country to work at the park while enjoying a number of outdoor activities such as hiking, riding and fishing.

Jobs include a large variety of hotel positions such as hotel front desk, maids, cooks, wait staff and bus drivers. Some students also participate in guest entertainment.

For details on jobs and salaries, call Glacier Park, Inc., at (602) 248-2612, or write Glacier Park, Inc., 1210 Greyhound Tower, Phoenix, Ariz., 85077.

City events

Museum special event

There will be Indian arts demonstrations, dancers and lectures April 5-7 at the Clark County Heritage Museum. The Native American Arts Festival will feature Native American silverwork, Kachina carving, rug and basket weaving, fine art, beading, pottery, stone arrow point and bow demonstrations.

Indian dances, a Native American Fashion Show, Kachina and fine art collecting lectures will be held. Native American food and exhibits will be offered for sale.

For more information, call 455-7955.

Choices, Inc. first meeting

The first general meeting of Choices will be held April 15 at 7 p.m. in the Spring Valley Library. Choices is a nonprofit and tax-deductible organization addressing the need in the Las Vegas community for education programs, support networks and referrals in crisis pregnancy and physical and sexual abuse. The first meeting is open to the public. Call 368-1645 for more information.

Civil War lecture

In preparation for a fall series on the military history of the civil war, Professor Marvin Feldman will present an introductory lecture that gives an historical background and outlines the causes of the secession movement. A bibliography will be available. The lecture will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Clark County Library Conference Room. For more information, call 733-3613.

CAMPUS RECREATION / INTRAMURALS

INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONS CROWNED

Women's Basketball ... Untouchables
Men's Basketball ... Nasty Boys

- Racquetball Singles -

Women's Division ... Melinda Wong
Men's Novice ... Jamie Hanson
Men's Intermediate ... Kent Emeson
IFC Intermediate ... Bob Schindler
IFC Advanced ... David Piteoff

CONGRATULATIONS!

UNLV is proud

The Yellin' Rebel wishes to congratulate The Runnin' Rebels on a terrific season.

Habitat for Humanity is coming April 8th, 7:30 p.m. at the CENTER.

Come and find out how you can get involved! 726-0887

The Center, 4765 Brussels