The Fresno State Bulldogs and first-year coach John Bluem, lost their opener against St. Mary's by a score of 3-2. The Bulldogs are the defending Big West champions with returning All-American Gerell Elliott and goalie Chris Kuhn, who posted 12 shutouts and a 0.71 goal-against average.

This will be the Harvard Crimson's opening game after a 6-7-1 season last year. Fifth-year coach Mike Getman will look for his senior defender Brian Enge and forward Juan Betancourt, who scored 11 points last season to perform their best against the Rebels.

The Pennsylvania Quakers finished sixth in the Ivy League in 1990. This will be Pennsylvania's opener as they hope to improve on their 4-10-1 record.

Head coach Steve Baumann will rely on senior goalie Glenn Meininger and senior defender Tim Mauro to pick up the Quakers first win.

The Design Story
Teva Sport Sandals were invented by Colorado river guide Mark Thatcher. He saw that the rigors of hiking and rafting in the Grand Canyon emphasized a need for tough, reliable footwear. Sandals that wouldn't compromise safety when traversing slippery, muddy creek beds or steep rocky terrain. Sandals that stay fast, walking, running or swimming. Welcome to warm weather comfort and safety.
