COMMUNITY EVENTS

Las Vegas' role in World War II discussed time Las Vegas Oct. 6.

Wartime Las Vegas." The (CIO) to organize workers lecture, which is free and at the plant already repreopen to the public begins at sented by the more conser-3 p.m. in the museum lo- vative craft unions of the cated in Lorenzi Park, 700 American Federation of Twin Lakes Drive.

In conjunction with the presenting a series of lec- a fork in the road," development.

50th anniversary of the union movement." start of construction on the mammoth Basic Magnewhat is now Henderson.

operation of the plant, along try. He has taught at sevwith the simultaneous eraluniversities, including opening of the Las Vegas Northern Idaho, Colgate Army Gunnery School and Brown. He has been (Nellis Air Force Base), at UNLV since 1982. caused an overnight tripling of Las Vegas' population.

As wartime labor 5205.

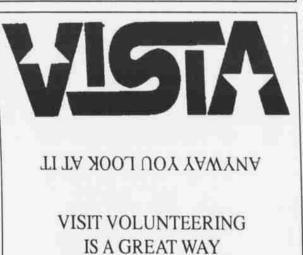

A history professor will shortages worsened, inlecture on blacks in war- creasing numbers of new workers were Blacks, James Coughtry's manyfrom the Deep South. topic will be "The Road Not A progressive New Deal taken: Black Labor, the coalition developed around Black Community and the efforts by the Congress of New Deal Coalition in Industrial Organizations

Labor.

The unions were more year-long exhibit "World resistant to the hiring of War II and the Emergence black workers. The CIO's of Modern Las Vegas," the more progressive agenda Nevada State Museum and was ultimately defeated by Historical Society will be conservative forces. "It was tures, films and discussions Coughtry said. "The failwhich focus on special is- ure of the progressive coasues arising during this lition helps explain why, crucial period of the city's going into the 1950s, Las Vegas would have a very Coughtry's program is conservative political estimed to coincide with the tablishment and labor

Coughtry has an exsium, Incorporated plantat tensive background in the study of black communi-The construction and ties throughout the coun-

> For more information about the lecture, call 486-

KNPR to hold Craftworks Market

KNPR Public Radio will throughout the 2-day festia.m. to dusk, Saturday and gram. Sunday, Sept. 28 and 29,at of Eastern and St. Louis.

activities will be sponsored teers to tell stories during by the American Nevada the craftworks show. Corporation and facilitated by the Clark County School District (CCSD).

CCSD art specialists work- ing, bubble blowing and coling with the children oring.

the Jaycee Park, the corner teller for the Las Vegas Clark hanging in the Lied Discov-keep KNPR commercial-free County Library District, will ery Children's Museum. Children's hands-on organize a group of volun-

> Approximately 2,500 children are expected to attending last year's Marsha Cutler, a story- Craftworks Market is > children's activities makes pect. up the craftworks experience. International fare, a variety of entertainment as adults, $1 for children six to "The volunteers will be participate in easel paint- well as the artists them- 12. Children under six are selves, give the market a admitted free. Tickets are distinct, family oriented at- available at the gate.

Children can also help mosphere. More than 130 kick off its 10th annual val," said Candy Schneider, weave a spider web of yarn. artists from across the coun-Craftworks Market from 9 assistant director of the pro- A web created by children try will be part of the show.

> Funds raised will help as well as keep up the high quality of programming, An integration of listeners have come to ex-

> > Admission is $3 for

TO START A CAREER

Ask VISTA representative Kerry Douglas about one-year assignments nationwide.

Sept. 26-27 9 a.m.-4 p.m. OUTSIDE STUDENT UNION or call (415) 744-3408 Volunteers In Service To America