

...This is now

The sweet smell of success

Just a few of Tark's most staunch supporters.

Jerry Tarkanian, Runnin' Rebels coach for the past 18 years, who put UNLV on the map.

Ex-Rebel mega star Larry Johnson in action.

A new intramural field has been built.

The beginnings of a new and improved student union are under way.

Warren Schutte, a junior at UNLV, won the NCAA individual championship for golf.

During the 1990-1991 season the UNLV debate team ranked as one of the top 10 programs by the Cross Examination Debate Association. UNLV sent one team to the National Association Championship in Huntington, Va. The team placed third in division three. A team was also sent to the Ceda Novice Nationals and advanced to the octafinals. Another team was sent to the Junior Division Nationals and advanced to the octafinals.

UNLV was rated an "up and coming university" by U.S. News and World Report in 1990 and 1991.

UNLV acquired a super computer this year.

During the 1991 summer semester, over 200 new faculty members were employed.

The Runnin' Rebels won the NCAA Championship in 1990.

1990 and returned to the Final Four in 1991.

The UNLV Jazz Ensemble won the national championship at Berkely in 1990.

President Robert Maxson, who alumni, faculty and even a former president consider the driving force behind UNLV's success.

Public Relations Student Society of America national chapter was formed in 1990.

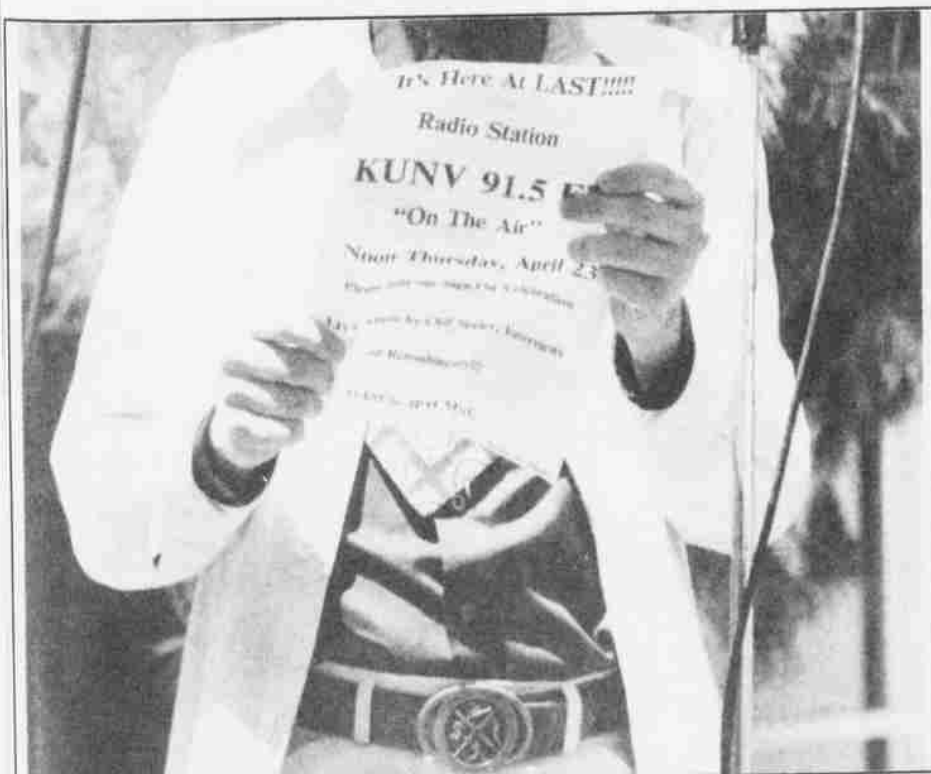

UNLV has added seven new residence halls since the summer of 1988.

KUNV, the campus radio station, just celebrated its 10th anniversary.

The Charles Vanda Master Series was established bringing culture not only to UNLV but to the Las Vegas community as well.

Since the 1960s, UNLV has doubled the size of its campus and enrollment.

KUNV had its beginning 10 years ago.