by Richard Munson

The names of the five finalists for UNLV's new athletic director were named Thursday and the list included UNLV's interim athletic director Dennis Finfrock. Finfrock took the position when athletic director Brad Rothermel stepped down.

The list is comprised of: Finfrock, Tom Beckett, associate athletic director at Stanford; Brad Hovious, athletic director at Texas-El Paso; Jim Weaver, associate athletic director at Florida and Donald Watson, senior athletic director at Southern California.

The five finalists will be interviewed beginning this week. The interviewing should be completed by the end of the month.

Once the committee has made their findings, President Robert Maxson will make the decision and post the position.

Don't just worry about HIV. Do something about it.

Just worrying about HIV infection won't do you a bit of good. But knowing whether you are infected can.

Today, it's more important than ever to get tested. There are things you can do that can help you live longer.

Also remember, if you are infected, you can pass the virus to others through sex or sharing drug needles and syringes, even if you show no symptoms.

Talk to a doctor, your health department, or other AIDS resources within your community. Or call your State or local AIDS hotline, or the National AIDS Hotline at 1-800-342-AIDS. Call 1-800-243-7889 (TTY) for deaf access.
