Break the Silence!

Friday, October 11, 1991

NATIONAL COMING OUT DAY

When we break our silence and live powerfully, only then will we be regarded as equal citizens. Remaining invisible encourages misunderstanding and bigotry. Most people don't think they know anybody who is lesbian or gay... so what are we gaining by hiding? Our numbers exceed 25 million nationwide and coming out to just one person will contribute to a world where all people can be appreciated for who they are. TAKE YOUR NEXT STEP!

WEAR PINK OR LAVENDER ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1991
