Students weigh the benefits of waste reduction

by Rick Nielsen

of the Solid Waste Stream a recycling program on cam-Analysis Subcommittee pus, and second, to use the have got a dirty job.

cally digging through the professor of biology. trash containers of every base committee (Waste Reduction and Resource Man-The student members agement) for implementing study as their undergradu-Tara Pike, Tanya Otero ate thesis," said Jim Deaand Brian Brown are stu- con, director of the Environdents responsible for physi- mental Studies Program and

The study, which bebuilding on campus to sort gan in June, involves sortand analyze the waste in ing and weighing the conorder to determine how tents of each building's trash much of the trash is trash, bins three times. It will conand how much could be re- tinue throughout this se-

"All the studies and reports in the world won't matter. If students don't change their habits, the campus will never be an environmentally-sound community." — Tara Pike duced, recovered or saved mester and into the next. from entering the landfill. it can be extremely effective con at 739-3275. in producing changes.

recommendations to the a live broadcast. The re-

Volunteersinterestedin Though not a glamorous job, helping may contact Dea-

On Oct. 1, the waste "The point of what they containers of the Humaniare doing is two pronged. ties building were sorted as First, they plan on making a Channel 3 newsteam made

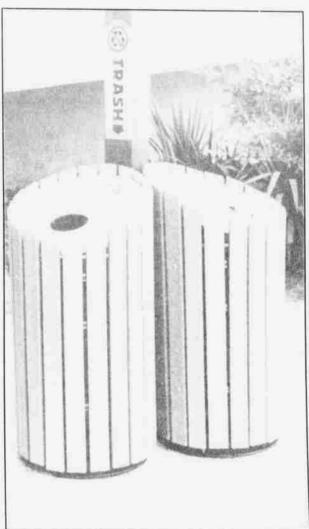

photo by Morgan Fisher

The two can cluster-units used to encourage recycling on the UNLV campus.

There were 401 pounds reducible waste consisted of num cans. 46 pounds of 30 assorted text books and computer manu- ting this started." said Denals and 23 pounds each of nis Swartzell, grounds manpaper towels, wax coated ager. Hopefully students cups and other cups.

Pike emphasized the is separation." need to consider the environmental impact of using the new cluster-units is to those type of cups (wax) in- recoup some type of profit reports in the world won't may be purchased to include matter," Pike said. "If stu- glass, plastic and paper redents and people don't ceptacles and to reduce the change their habits, the amount of material going to campus will never be an the landfill. environmentally sound community."

books found to be an unnec-ships. essary burden on the landfill switching to air blowers.

"It's just a matter of 739-3182.

sults revealed that of all the making people aware of the contents, approximately 345 facts" Ortero said. I think pounds of it were recyclable students will help make it glass, aluminium, plastic work, and now that the new and paper of various sorts, receptacles are present it including The Yellin Rebel. should make it a lot easier."

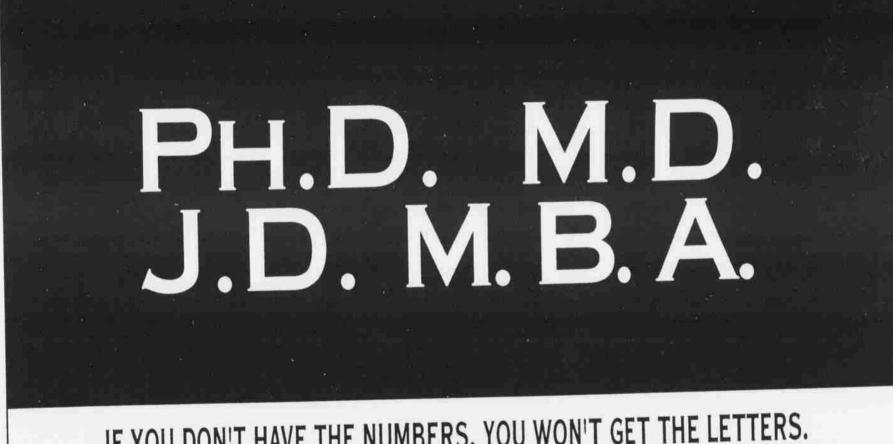

The receptacles Otero of "general" trash, of which refers to, are the two can 270 pounds were totally cluster-units placed around unrecyclable, leaving 131 campus last week by the pounds of needless or re- grounds crew. One can is for ducible waste. Some of that trash, the other for alumi-

> "I'm excited about getwill cooperate. The key here

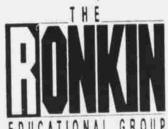

The initial intention of stead of the refillable type. from the aluminum cans so "All the the studies and that additional containers

Swartzell also noted that this could ultimately She also considered the lead to additional scholar-

If any students have and would like to reduce the suggestions concerning the amount of paper towels by new cluster-units or their placement, call Grounds at

IF YOU DON'T HAVE THE NUMBERS, YOU WON'T GET THE LETTERS.

WE'LL MAKE SURE YOU MAKE IT.

LAS VEGAS • 454-8900

LSAT . GMAT . GRE . MCAT