

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Mockfest coming to campus

The University is sponsoring three days of activities to promote the National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week (NCAAW).

The first activity, Monday Oct. 21, will allow students to tie red ribbons on the radio antennas of cars parked around the campus. BACCHUS will sponsor information booths on campus and will be handing out pamphlets and various promotional items Oct. 22 and 23.

The week will culminate in the Mockfest celebration at 6:30 p.m. Oct. 23, in the Wright Hall courtyard. A "mocktail" party is being sponsored by the UNLV fraternities and sororities where you can vote for your favorite drink. This will be immediately followed at 7:30 p.m. in the John S. Wright Hall room 103, by a mock trial with the Judge Valerie Vega presiding.

Dribble that ball

The Doolittle Community Center, 1901 N. J St., will be taking registrants for the Men's 3 on 3 Basketball League and a Youth Basketball League through Thursday.

The Men's 3 on 3 Basketball League will begin play Saturday Oct. 26, with a $20 team fee. A coaches' meeting will be held Friday.

The Youth Basketball Clinic is for ages 7-14 and the first clinic will be held Sunday. The registration fee is $10.

For more information on these programs, please call the City of Las Vegas Department of Parks and Leisure Activities' Doolittle Community Center at 229-6374 or 229-6375.

Training seminar offered

The Environmental Studies Program is presenting "Safety Training in Academics and Industry," a seminar that is free and open to the public, 8 p.m. Friday, in Artemus W. Ham Concert Hall.

John Antonopolos, associate professor at the College of Staten Island, will discuss his experiences with the safety training program he developed and implemented at his institution. His talk is co-sponsored by the College of Science and Mathematics. For more information, call 597-4440.

Laboratory seeking volunteers

The Exercise Physiology Laboratory is seeking volunteers for a study of the fitness levels of men and women over 60 years of age who have competed in the Senior Olympics.

Senior olympians who participate in the study will undergo several tests, including body fat measurement and a battery of simple physical and motor tasks. Subjects will also complete a health and activity questionnaire. The entire process will take one hour.

Interested persons may call Dahn Shaulis at 597-4102 or 739-3767.

WHAT'S GOING ON

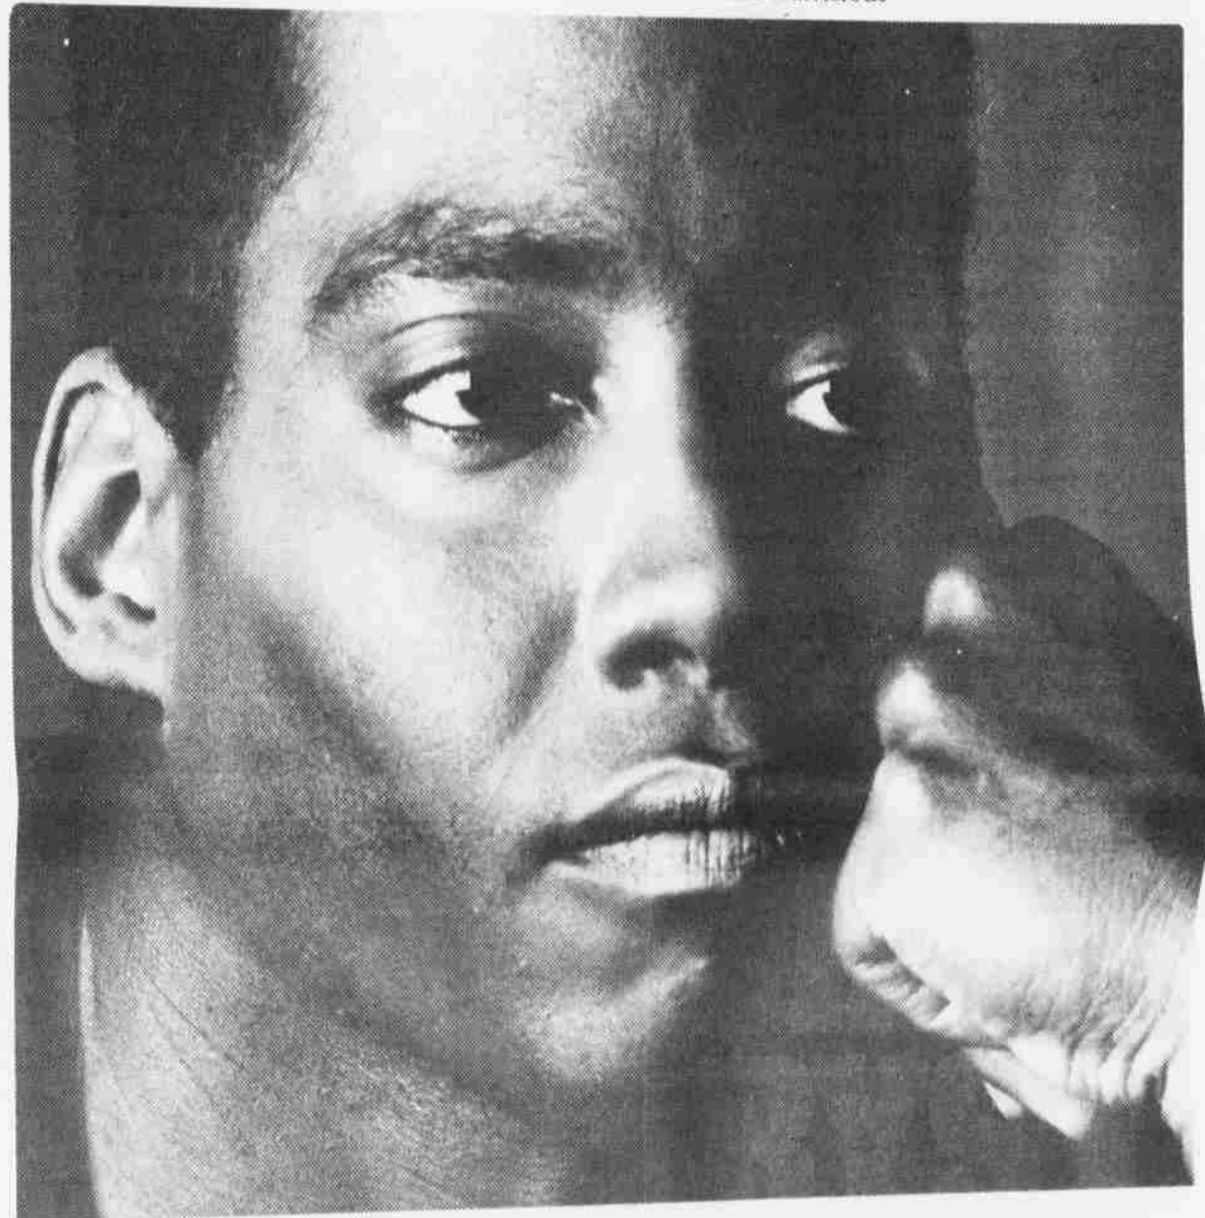

Oct. 15
ROCK CONCERT: The Allman Brothers and Little Feat at 7 p.m. in the Thomas and Mack Center. Admission is $16.50; call 739-3900.

Oct. 16
PSU MEETING: Protestant Student Union meeting at 6 p.m. at the University Center for Religion and Life, 4765 Brussels Ave. Call 736-0887.

Oct. 17
NBA EXHIBITION GAME: Charlotte Hornets vs. Golden State Warriors at 7:30 p.m. in the T&M Center. Ticket prices range from $7.50 to $25. Call 739-3900 for more details.

Don't just worry about HIV. Do something about it.

If you think you are at risk for HIV infection, now's the time to consider counseling and testing. If you test positive, work with a doctor to make decisions that are right for you. Because today, the earlier this happens, the more medical care can help.

Talk to a doctor, your health department, or other local AIDS resources. Or call your State or local AIDS hotline, or the National AIDS Hotline at 1-800-342-AIDS. Call 1-800-243-7889 (TTY) for deaf access.

AMERICA
RESPONDS
TO AIDS

HIV is the virus that causes AIDS.

CDC U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES
Public Health Service
Centers for Disease Control

WATSON

from page 12

Watson's ventures in improvisation. She studied cello with famed cellist Pablo Casals, Bonnie Hampton, Zara Nelsova and Gabor Rejto. The eminent French composer, Darius Milhaud as well as Luciano Berlo and Louis Horst were major influences upon her music.

Many leading modern dancers have commissioned music from her, including Paul Taylor, Joan Miller and Gus Giordano.

Watson is the music director for the dance program at Stanford University and is also part of the faculty of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music.

For more information call 597-4210.

Music, movies, campus events.

If you want to be an Entertainment writer, please call

The Yellin' Rebel
739-3478