INTRAMURALS from page 12

While wrestling may be very popular, don't rule out indoor soccer which will have 23 teams or badminton which had 178 participants the last time it was offered.

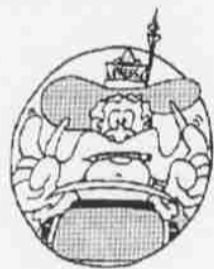

Intramural events are very cost effective. For $20 there is no better deal on campus.

But the intramural sports are far from cost effective. "The bottom line is we lose money," Wells said.

But these events aren't put on to make money.

Wells said that the university is without a recreational center where many events could be held. The Paul C. McDermott Physical Education Center is not a recreational center and it lacks adequate facilities.

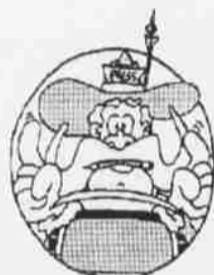

For more information on intramural sports contact Jeff Wells at 739 3879.

Leadership.
A good man can handle it.
You don't have to look twice to see that this man is in charge. There is a certain strength of character, an undeniable sense of self-confidence, that says he is a leader. Men believe in him, because he believes in himself. He is a Marine officer.
If you believe in yourself, and would like to find out more about the kind of leaders we look for, call 1-800-MARINES. Who knows, we may not have to look any further than you. Marines
The Few. The Proud. The Marines.

For more information see the Officer Selection Team, Capt. Bontell and SSGT Brasley on campus October 28 between 10:00 - 2:00 p.m. Or call (602) 257-0310.
