There was once a time when the reason to attend a college or university was clear: an

in the second half!

CALIFORNIA STATE U., LONG BEACH

Residents of Ivy League long ago decided that they millions of dollars in merit that otherwise might be touchdowns, home runs, outspeed.

admission policies continue such novel ideas as grades, extracurricular activities (letics) and just being an aided person. And financial program to help the eddy and academically gifted. s in collegiate athletics over and change, the Ivy o be a constant. Brown will oblem with athletes passing uestionable circumstances, never be nailed for giving t guard a car, and football will never be arrested for oommates.

nice of athletic scholarships treme, but so what? No one te millions of dollars allotted oney that could just as well go ally bright writer, a proficient eloquent public speaker. ague, it's nice to see schools ds remain defined by M.A.s NBC and ESPN.
