

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Be aware

The Crime Prevention Bureau of the Las Vegas Police Department will present personal safety awareness seminars at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

The seminars will be held at the Cashman Field Center, Room 101. They are free of charge, but seating is limited, so register early to reserve a seat. For more details, call 229-3507.

Professor to speak on Cambodia

Barbara Brents, an assistant professor of sociology, will speak on: "Cambodia, 1990: The Public and Private of War" on Tuesday.

Brents' talk, which is part of the University Forum Lecture Series, is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in Room 103 of the John S. Wright Hall. It is free and open to the public.

Brents, who visited Cambodia in 1990, said she will talk about what the situation was in Cambodia when she was there. She said she plans to contrast the reality of the situation with U.S. public policy statements about conditions in Cambodia.

The University Forum Lecture Series is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and underwritten by the UNLV Foundation.

Put on a happy face

A workshop focusing on make-up and skin care will take place Thursday at the City of Las Vegas Baker Park Community School, 1100 E. St. Louis Ave. The two-hour seminar begins at 10 a.m. and is designed for teens and adults. The cost is $9. Call 733-6599 to register.

Students for Choice holding clothing drive

The women's rights group Students for Choice is holding a clothing and supply drive for Shade Tree, a homeless women and children's shelter, and the Temporary Assistance Domestic Crisis Shelter.

Items such as women's and children's clothing and shoes, aspirin, vitamins, cleaning products, household supplies, bedlinens and canned foodstuffs are needed by the two shelters.

Students for Choice will have a drop-box and wish lists set at their table every Wednesday in front of the Donald C. Moyer Student Union from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Donations can also be picked up. Call 456-7190 for more details. Students for Choice will meet at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in Room 232 of the Flora Dungan Humanities Building.

Get Ugly

YOU'VE MADE ME THE HAPPIEST UGLY BARTENDER IN THE WHOLE WORLD

Illustration by Robert Sundin

The Ugly Bartender Awards Ceremony and Auction to benefit the National Multiple Sclerosis Society will take place from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Saturday, at Runway 21.

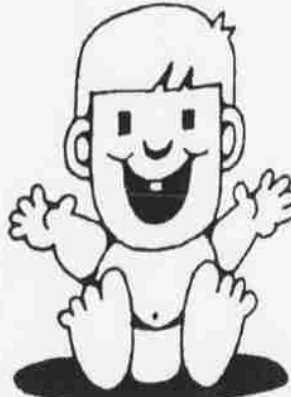

Various "Ugly Items" auctioned off will be a guitar autographed by the members of Contraband, autographed T-shirts, Ugly panties, boxer shorts and other promotional items.

Sixty percent of the money raised will benefit multiple sclerosis clients in the Las Vegas area and 40 percent will aid research efforts seeking a cause and a cure.

Educational workshops offered by the city

A pair of educational workshops for children are scheduled for Tuesday at the City of Las Vegas Mirabelli Community Center, 6200

Elton Ave. The 90-minute seminars are free and presented by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department Crime Prevention Bureau.

The first seminar, "Children's Safety Awareness," takes place at 3:30 p.m. and is designed for children ages four to eight. The workshop will focus on the Stranger Danger and Hug-a-Tree programs. Children will also participate in a safety poster contest.

"Prepare Yourself to Baby-sit," begins at 5:30 p.m. and is designed for those 10 and up. This seminar covers safety tips, manners and ideas for activities. Seating is limited so pre-registration is suggested. Call 229-6359.

Comedy coming to New West

New West Theatre presents Peter Shaffer's comedy, Lettuce and Lovage, directed by award-winning director Allison Liddi.

Presented at the

Charleston Heights Arts Center, evening performances are Nov. 15-16, and 19-23 at 8 p.m. and two Sunday matinees Nov. 17 and 24 at 2 p.m.

Straight from it's London and Broadway engagements, Lettuce and Lovage is one of the wittiest and most intelligent new comedies in years. This imaginative theatrical knockout was written by one of our greatest living playwrights, Peter Shaffer, the author of Amadeus and Equus.

"New West is extremely thrilled to have Allison direct here in Las Vegas," said Robert Dunkerly, artistic director. "Her directing credits, reviews, and awards are all exceptional. She is a welcome addition to New West's directing staff."

Appearing in Lettuce and Lovage are Robert D. Blomgren, Anne Church, Daniel Dorse, Jeanne Dubuque, Cassie McGuire, Bart S. McLean, Kathryn Sandy O'Brien, and Brett Sears.

General admission is $10; $7.50 for students, seniors and the handicapped. Children under five years of age are not permitted in the theatre.

The Charleston Heights Arts Center is located at 800 S. Brush St.

For further information or reservations, please call 876-6972. Reservations are recommended.
