

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Give the shirt off your back

Phi Alpha Delta is sponsoring a blanket, sweater and jacket drive until Sunday.

Donations can be made outside of the Moyer Student Union. Daily pick ups will be at 5 p.m. For more information, call Pamela Peacock at 362-4435.

PRSSA is on the way

The next Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) meeting will feature Denny Weddle of Weddle-Caldwell Advertising. He will be discussing what it is like to work in a private public relations firm.

PRSSA meetings are held 5:30 p.m., the last Monday of every month in Frank and Estella Beam Hall room 120. Non-members are welcome to attend. For more information about PRSSA, or their monthly meetings, call 368-1317.

It's quiet

"A Quiet Vision...A Moment to Contemplate" features black and white and color photographs by Charlene Kell, and is running at the Clark County Library through Nov. 27. The photos are accompanied by text which answers questions raised by the art works. The photography gallery is open 5 to 7 p.m. Call 733-3601.

Chicago professor to lecture

Humanities professor J. Paul Hunter of the University of Chicago will speak Thursday on "Closure in the Eighteenth Century Novel."

Hunter's lecture will take place at 7:30 p.m. in Room 241 of Frank and Estella Beam Hall. His talk, which is part of the University Forum Lecture Series, is open to the public free of charge.

The lecture will deal with the conclusions of a number of novels written by Henry Fielding, Laurence Sterne and Daniel Defoe.

"Paul Hunter is one of the most engaging speakers I've heard," said Christopher Hudgins, chair of the English department.

"He is one of our premier scholars in 18th century literature, and he's also the editor of two of the most exciting anthologies of literature available," Hudgins said.

In the University of Chicago's English department, Hunter holds the title of Chester D. Tripp Professor in the Humanities.

In 1976, Hunter was a Guggenheim fellow.

The University Forum Lecture Series is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and underwritten by the UNLV Foundation.

Test yourself

The City of Las Vegas Stewart/Mojave Sports Center offers fitness tests, Wednesday, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Tests are designed for those 18 and over. The basic test for blood pressure, pulse, heart rate and body fat, will cost $2. For $10, the test includes an ultrasound. For more information, stop by the Sports Center at 275 N. Mojave Road or call 229-6563.

Give blood

A blood drive will begin at 10 a.m. Wednesday and last until 3 p.m. in a mobile unit outside the Moyer Student Union. Give the gift of life and receive a special "thank you." For more information, call 737-1983.
