PERSONALS

I'm looking for Jennifer Burden Please give me a call at this number: (702) 736-4475.

Alisa, go ahead and use my body and then dump me. My feelings won't be hurt — really. Your hopeful studmuffin.

Paisley, this ad is good for one real home cooked meal, a movie, and a full body massage. Offer never expires. It keeps going and going. Te Amo more than words can say. Your "secret" admirer.

I'm looking for a burden I need to have problems in my life, so call me if you are blond and beautiful and want me to satisfy a need that I can't possibly fulfill and will only guess at until I lay me down. The number is that of a man.

To the gentleman wearing the brown and black striped shirt, black Levi's, black Converse shoes, sporting a very suave haircut and walking in the library (first floor), between 12 and 1 p.m. on 11/22/91 don't know your name, you don't know mine, and I'm not asking for a date. I just want you to know you're quite adorable. I see you from time to time (you always wear really cool T-shirts). You fascinate me. Thanks for reading this.

Sweet bear: The future is open wide. Fame and fortune (or anonymity + domestic bear) await. It's all a gamble, except my love, most importantly our friendship. Happy Anniversary. Love, your special Bear.

Mark: One brunette and one red-head miss our afternoon rendezvous. Meet us in Beam Hall M,W, or F for a good (wholesome) time.

To the drunken accounting major—that's exactly what I am: A THANG. What did you mean by that dirty saying, anyway? (Maybe it's best not to ask, eh?) Signed, la journalista muy fea.

You know, I think failure will be good for me. I've been doing it all my life—S.
