

Knight named coach of the year

by Richard Munson

UNLV golf coach Dwaine Knight was named the NCAA Coach of the Year by the Golf Coaches Association of America.

Knight was voted the award by 340 Division I coaches. The award is the first national award Knight has received as a coach.

"I'm surprised, but it's a special award to receive. It's an honor to receive this (award) from my peers," Knight said.

Knight has spent 14 years as a head coach and has received a number of awards but none as distinguished as this one. Knight was named Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1979 and 1991 and District 7 Coach of the Year in 1981, while coaching at the University of New Mexico.

Last year Knight took the Rebels to their best finish in school history ending the season eighth in the country. Knight also won Big West Conference Co-Coach of the Year and coached his first NCAA individual champion in Warren Schutte.

In his years of coaching, Knight has coached 11 All-Americans, won various awards but is yet to win a national championship.

Knight said that he would like to thank the university for giving him the opportunity to coach and is hoping to complete his career by winning a national championship.
