What to tell your professor when you blow off class	What NOT to tell your professor when you blow off class
1. "A distant relative died, and I had to go to the funeral." —GOOD (But, be sure you make up the relative, because if you use a real person and that person dies than you'll feel really bad.)	1. "I died." —BAD (Not only will this create immediate suspicion, but it is very difficult to prove.)
2. "I was very very ill." —GOOD	2. "I was very very ill because I washed down a bottle of tequila with a bottle of vodka, and spent most of the night projectile vomiting." —BAD (Too much detail.)
3. "While off campus visiting my sick grandmother, I got a flat tire." —GOOD	3. "Your lectures are so boring they make me want to run from your classroom, screaming, and slit my wrists." —BAD (Honest, but bad.)

Antisocial children at play.

Sleeping is no mean art for its sake one must stay awake all day. —Nietzsche
