

Lady Rebs extend win streak to 14

by Robert Vinson

The Lady Rebel tennis team continued their winning ways over the weekend with two more victories at the Fertitta tennis complex.

Saturday, the Lady Rebs demolished Big West foe Cal-State Fullerton 9-0 for their 13th victory in a row. Winners in the convincing shutout were Becky Markosian, Rachel Clark, Suzi Agassi, Janelle Barr, Shiera Stuart, and Mary Laudenschlager. In doubles, Markosian/Clark, Barr/Stuart and Agassi/Laudenschlager completed the sweep.

Sunday, UNLV had a tough time against the Lady Vandals of Idaho State, but eventually prevailed 6-3 to post their 14th straight win.

"We made it hard on ourselves," Head Coach York Strother complained. "It was pretty ugly tennis."

Shiera Stuart returns the ball in her match Sunday.

Leading the victory march were Barr, Stuart, Laudenschlager and Lane in singles and in doubles Markosian/Clark and Laudenschlager/

Agassi all won.

The Lady Rebels will play Wisconsin on Friday, at 1:30 p.m. at the Fertitta tennis complex.

Men take two weekend matches

by Robert Vinson

The Rebel tennis team returned to action this weekend after a week off and celebrated by posting two wins over Idaho State and a surprisingly tough Murray State at the Fertitta tennis complex.

Friday, the Rebels hosted Idaho State and even though the Vandals played inspired tennis, it was not enough to overcome the firepower of the Rebels, as UNLV romped 7-2. Leading the way were singles winners Pat Boies, Misa Jevtic, Lorin Entzel and Wayne Bowyer. The Rebels swept the doubles with Boies/Jevtic, Entzel/Eric Aanes and Bowyer/David Hostalek winning.

Sunday, Murray State engaged the Rebels in an intense struggle. The two teams were tied 3-3 after singles with the three doubles matches to be played. The Rebels chose a good time to step up their level of play and won two doubles matches to clinch the victory.

Singles winners were Boies, Aanes and Hostalek. In the decisive doubles action, Hostalek/Bowyer and Jevtic/Boies clinched the hotly contested matchup.

The Rebels are 3-3 and square off against 6th-ranked Kentucky Wednesday at 1:30 at the Fertitta tennis complex.

in the sixth, giving back-to-back singles on errors to open the inning.

Then, with one out and two runners on base, the Bulldogs struck back-to-back hits, the second driving in a run. Fresno State, trailing by one run, threatened UNLV with bases loaded and only one out. But UNLV escaped without further harm, as Benjamins forced out a runner at home and Harrigan struck out Fresno State infielder Tiffany Martinez, stranding three runners. The Lady Rebs allowed only a single hit in the seventh to win, 3-2.

In the second game, Fresno State took an early 1-0 lead off first inning hits by catcher Christa Yorke and infielder Kim Maher. This time, however, the Bulldogs refused to give on defense, allowing no more than four UNLV batters in any one inning. Maher scored an insurance run in the fourth, pushing Fresno State's lead to two.

Harrigan entered the game in the fifth and shut out the Bulldogs through the last three innings, ending the game, 2-0.

Fresno State's Marcie Green picked up the win, improving to 8-2.

The Lady Rebs will next face 10th-ranked Cal State Fullerton on Saturday, March 21, at Fullerton. The game will be covered live on ESPN at 1 p.m. Their next home game is on Monday, March 23rd at 1 p.m. against seventh ranked Missouri.
