fraternity. Any similarities are coincidental.

Hey, ladies! Beware the Superfriends!

To Sasha in Psychology (I must let another's words speak for me this time): You'll love me yet! And I can carry your love's protected growing. June reared that bunch of flowers you carry from seeds of April's sowing. I plant a heartfelt now; some seed at least is sure to strike and yield — what you'll not pluck indeed, not love, but maybe, like. You'll look at least on love's remains, a grave's one violet. Your look? that pays a thousand pains. What's death! You'll love me yet! By Robert Browning (sent by secret admirer).

To Missy, Darlene, Christina, Tina Lameece, Tiffanie, Team Mom Becky and all Sigma Kappa's that supported us We had a great weekend of softball. We're looking forward to playing again soon. The brothers of TKE.

We would like to say thanks to the puffs for having the cream join them for a day of excitement and adventure. We enjoyed it as much if not more. It's something we won't forget. Let's do it again!

To Jason Yeager: Standing on my elbow with my finger in my ear, biting on a dandelion and humming kind of queer. While I watch a yellow caterpillar creeping up my wrist, I leaned on a tree, and I said to me, "Why am I doing this?" S. Silverstein and I send this your way. Redteddy. I think you were disappointed.

To the Mystery Lady—Please forgive the insulant behavior that we exhibited in the assumption of your major using the transcripts we recieved for that episode of Donahue. We deserve to be punished and commanded to please you in way way possible to your utmost desire. We propose with the greatest humility this question: Are you a psychology major? Please see it in your heart, and even in your whips, to forgive us in any fashion that you see fit if we are wrong. Signed Dave & Michael. P.S. By sending us three of them, does that mean that one of us gets to please you more than once, or will there be others joining us in the redemption of the coupon. D & M.
