

COMMUNITY EVENTS

CAMPUS EVENTS

Tax Shelters

A Tax Sheltered Annuity Fair is scheduled at 2 to 5 p.m. today in the Moyer Student Union, Room 201. The fair is aimed at acquainting faculty and staff members with their annuity options.

Nuclear Testing Forum

A new documentary film on nuclear testing, "Bound by the Wind," will premiere at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Humanities Building Auditorium. Following the premiere a public forum on the issues surrounding nuclear testing will be held.

Earth Day

The third annual Earth Day picnic is set for Saturday in front of the library from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is an empty aluminum can. Speakers include horticulturist Lenadams Dorris, Air Pollution Control Director Mike Naylor and UNLV Environmental Studies Director Jim Deacon.

Extended Education

A seminar on Buddhism and Islam will be presented from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday in Wright Hall, Room 201. Admission is $10.

Exhibit

A free exhibit titled "An Issue of Water" begins at April 20 in the Donna Beam Fine Art Gallery. Hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

Environmental Speech

A free lecture by actor Ed Begley

Jr. on "Environmental Challenges" will be presented at 7:30 p.m. April 21 in Artemus Ham Concert Hall. Tickets are available at the Performing Arts Center box office.

Speechfest

The fifth-annual Speechfest will be held at 7 p.m. April 21 in the Moyer Student Union, Room 201. The program will showcase the eight recipients of the Greenspun School of Communication Outstanding Speakers Scholarships performing their winning persuasive speeches.

Williams Lecture

Prof. Bernard Williams will visit our campus on Monday, April 20, and present a lecture entitled "Shame and Autonomy" in Wright Hall, Room

103, at 3:00 p.m. Prof. Williams is currently the White's Professor of Moral Philosophy and Fellow of Corpus Christi College at Oxford University. He is the author of Ethics and the Limits of Philosophy, Moral Luck, A Critique of Utilitarianism, Problems of the Self, Morality, and Descartes: The Project of Pure Inquiry. With others he has edited British Analytical Philosophy, Utilitarianism, and Utilitarianism and Beyond. He has also published many articles on moral philosophy and moral psychology. His visit to campus is sponsored jointly by the departments of philosophy, anthropology counseling and educational psychology, history, political science, social work, and the Institute for Ethics and Policy Studies. The lecture is open to the public, and all interested persons are most welcome to attend.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Boss Success Seminars

Will be conducting an organizational success seminar Thursday April 16. This four-hour seminar will show you how to plan your way to success in your personal and professional lives. All seminar participants will receive a complete day-planner organizer at a special student rate of $35. Pre-register by calling 1(800)223-0531. Visa and Mastercard. Seminar Date: April 16. Location: Rio Suites Hotel and Casino. Price: $35 student rate.

Hey you,
you with the Lear Jet.
And the arsenal of secretaries.
And the Harley Davidson. Collection.
And the six-figure bonus. And the catered dinners. With the stuffed prawns 6" long. Flown in from Madagascar. And the Caribbean sand between your toes.
For the weekend. And the peace of mind that accompanies SUCCESS. And retiring 15 years before your IRA matures.
With the kids going to the finest schools. Getting an academic scholarship. That you tell the university to give to someone who needs

it. Hey you, get to RONKIN for our LSAT course. In Las Vegas, call 454-8900.