

Senate Candidate Profiles

by Paul Stuhff

This year, the students of UNLV won't have any choice on who their representatives in Student Government will be. The reason is because so few people have filed for Student Senate that no seat is being contested. Originally, 11 people filed for 21 available seats, but two have withdrawn, leaving only nine running.

Kerry Brown, College of Health Sciences, is also running but was unavailable for comment.

Tina Yan
College of Liberal Arts
Student Health Fee: "I think it's a good idea. Last semester I remember how crowded it was. It's made it a lot quicker to get service."
Parking: "I haven't heard enough about it—I don't know."
Goals for the Senate: "Basically a lot of students don't know what's going on—I'd like to help students know what's going on."

Patrick T.C. Smith
Student Development Center
Student Health Fee: "It's useful for the non-commuter. I don't have a problem with it, but for those individuals who don't use it, I can see why they don't like it. I'd like to see what the majority of the student body has to say."
Parking: "I'd have to look into it."
Why People should vote: "I feel I can help the student body."

Lynn Wilson
College of Business and Economics (formerly Hotel Administration)
Student Health Fee: "The fee should be revoked on."
Parking: "Parking enforcement gets over $100,000 a year from fines. I don't support a fee (to support a garage)."
Greek housing: "I think the Greek Housing is a start, but I'd like to see more traditional housing."

Jami Nalder
College of Hotel Administration
Student Health Fee: "You know I'm against the health fee."
Parking: "I'm against a parking fee at the University."
Strength as Senator: "I feel I'm in touch with my constituents and I know what they want."

Hobreigh Fisher
College of Liberal Arts
Student Health Fee: "I've never liked it. It's nice for some people, but for those of us that have health insurance or just pay for a doctor..."
Parking: "I know where they're planning on putting it (a parking garage), but I don't even know that there's anyone from Student Government on the Parking Committee."
His Role in the Senate: "I like the idea of the involvement. I do try to take the job seriously, but I think that a lot of people don't take the job seriously."

Andy Sabatini
College of Hotel Administration
Student Health Fee: "Right now we're working on a petition to get the fee demolished. It should be optional."
Parking: "If they can show me plans (for a garage) I'll consider them, but at this time, No. I don't want the $40 a semester fee I've been hearing about."
Goals for the Senate: "My aim is to better the communication between Hotel and CSUN and try to get more things cosponsored."

James Yohe
College of Business and Economics
Student Health Fee: "I've voted against everything that would increase bureaucracy..."
Parking: "I'm against anything that would increase student fees."
Senate Watchdog: "I've reinstated the policy of the E-board reporting all expenditures under $500 to the Senate. Also, I'm working to establish a way complaints can be brought to a grievance commission."

Willie Romero
College of Liberal Arts
Senate President Pro Tempore
Student Health Fee: "Yes, I do (support it), but there should be a reduction, or it should be voluntary after they complete the structure."
Parking: "I'll support it (a fee), only if we get something out of it."
Mission of the Senate: "Student Government should represent the whole university. It's important to have people who have been there."
