

Candidates

not just as a pretty face. I think the representative should show spirit, enthusiasm and pride for UNLV. That I can say I definitely have.

Why are you running?

I've worked within the community for Child Haven. I've set up fund raisers for battered women shelters, and for the VFW. I do a lot. I'm the president of my sorority, I've held many executive board positions. I could represent the school well. I could be more than just a face passing out flyers. I feel that I'm a qualified candidate to be queen.

Feelings about Greek housing?
I think that apartments aren't the best, but any kind of Greek housing is better than no Greek housing. I hope we get Greek housing soon. We've been saving money to get Greek housing. Participation in the present plan hasn't been decided by Panhellenic.

Goals if elected?

I feel I'm qualified to represent the university, by the things I've done, not only on campus, but through my off-campus achievements. I would be honored to represent my school and sorority.

Why are you running?

I'm running because my chapter felt that I would best represent the undergraduate Sigma Kappas. I've been very active, not just on campus but also in the community. Sigma Kappa has supported many causes, like the Victory Outlet Church anti-drug and gang dinner. Currently, I'm working on the Bilbray re-election campaign. I wouldn't look at it as a popularity contest, I'm just glad I did it. It's something that's fun, whether I finish first or dead last.

Feelings about Greek housing?
I think that if this campus is to reach full potential, we need Greek housing. It's desperately needed, not just for the Greeks, but for campus-wide activities, which we need more of. Right now only E&P's doing it, not that they're doing a bad job, but we need more.

Goals if elected?

It'll be exciting to get back to life, when all the campaigning's over. A couple of years down the line, they're not going to remember second, third fourth or fifth—but they will remember the house that the Homecoming King came from;

for me it would just be an honor to have my house remembered this way.

Why are you running?

The way it usually goes is that a fraternity will nominate a person who is most active in his fraternity. I've been active as secretary and fund-raising chairman for the Paradise Elementary School. In the past I've been in charge of doing the homecoming floats for my fraternity, and I've been named brother of the semester.

Feelings about Greek housing?

This is my sixth year here, and Greek housing has been pushed in the past, but never came through. I think it brings more students to the school. For housing, the apartment setup might be fine, but for meetings or exchanges, there is no 'big room', just bedrooms and living rooms.

Goals if elected?

The Homecoming King has never been expected to do anything, but whatever I'm needed as, I guess that's what I'll do. I know I'm supposed to represent the school at certain functions, and I'll do that as best I can.

Why are you running?

I've been very active participating in various areas of the UNLV community. I am presently a Student Ambassador for UNLV. The student ambassadors show potential new students and donors that UNLV is the best school around. I served as a senator in Student Government, and was Assistant Director of E&P for UNLV. Presently, I am President of the Inter-Fraternity Council, Treasurer of TKE Fraternity, Vice President of Order of Omega, a Greek honor society, and a referee for intramurals. I have received several awards: Greek Man of The Year 1992, Student Services Leadership Scholarship, Student Government Leadership Scholarship, and Top TKE, but I feel that Homecoming King would be the biggest award, because it represents who the school wants to represent UNLV.

Feelings about Greek housing?
I think it would help the campus environment, I'm glad its coming. Rather than being a commuter campus, it will make it feel more like a regular campus.

Goals if elected?
As a student ambassador, when I talk to donors or students, it will give me more credibility, because I'm trying to influence them to come to UNLV, and because it shows I'm more representative of the university. I'd be more the representative of the campus, of the students, rather than just a person who chose me.

Why are you running?

Four years of being involved in the campus in general gives me the experience. I've been voted as the most improved athlete in the fraternity, in football and softball. I've helped in the community with the homeless and with St. Vincent's.

Feelings about Greek housing?

I've sat on a couple of committees for it, I'm really for it. As for my fraternity, they're going to participate in whatever UNLV does for Greek housing. It would have been better if they built houses, but it's the best available. We'll still participate, but we prefer traditional housing.

Goals if elected?

If I'm elected king, I'd make it one more achievement we've, my fraternity, has done. I would like to take the power of being king to persuade others from doing drugs.

Why are you running?

I'm doing it just for fun and to let the campus know who we are. It's a well-known fact that as a group we're very apathetic, and we need warriors on all functions, and that's why I'm involved.

Feelings about Greek housing?

I have a big problem with the Greek system, period. But I'm not going to get into that.

Goals if elected?

If I should get elected, it will look good for the Black Student Association, that I ran, and that we're lucky enough to win, and people will want to know what I'm all about, and I'll be more than happy to say.

Why are you running?

If you represent the school, it's kind of a big responsibility. It's a responsibility I'm ready for. There's no power, and not much prestige. It's just a representation of the student population. I've held numerous positions; I'd like to hold it.

Feelings about Greek housing?

Hopefully, it will help the Greeks. It will be nice to have something to come back to, if I come back to Las Vegas after I graduate. It will be good if other chapters from another school come, because then there'll be one centralized location to go to. As far as improvements, you'd have to see how they run it first.

Goals if elected?

I'd just do what was required of the homecoming king to do—to best represent the school. Hopefully, I'd like to help enhance the Greek image on campus and to promote Greek life.

Kevin Stead

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Why are you running?

Well, I'm President of the fraternity, and Chairman of the March of Dimes "fourth down and five hundred miles to go for healthier babies" for my fraternity.

From Sigma Nu fraternity in Reno, we're passing and running a football through Nevada, which will come to the Silver Bowl at 6:40 on Saturday. These kinds of activities have pushed me to run.

Feelings about Greek housing?

It seems like it really wouldn't be Greek housing. There won't be any chapter meeting rooms. There won't be any chapter dining facilities. As far as getting a house there, we're going to look into it some more.

Goals if elected?

I'd like to help us get real fraternity houses—ones that we design on our own, and a real Greek Week. The sports they play at Greek Week aren't really sports. At Greek Week, we need more competitive sports. We need more competitiveness back in there.

Dave Wagner

Lambda Chi Alpha

Why are you running?

I'm Vice President of my fraternity, and Chairman of the Executive Board. I'm active in all kinds of community service. We go out and donate time and money to all kinds of people in need. We just had a thing in the paper where we went to the youth hostel and repainted the place with Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. This kind of motivates me.

Feelings about Greek housing?

I'm only slightly satisfied—Greek housing shouldn't be apartment style. They're going to be run like dorms. Every fraternity has insurance through nationals. I think the fraternities should be held liable, so the regulation of the dorms wouldn't be so strong. That way, the school administration wouldn't be so involved.

Goals if elected?

I'd like to represent the university, as well as my fraternity, in all activities that involve being Homecoming King. I think it would be a good way to boost the fraternity, the visual aspect, more or less. It would be a good start to win.
