

BARBER

from page 1

of player you can push around." And, with America hosting the World Cup in 1994, there is still a chance the sport will finally catch on.

"There are some leagues for me in the United States," Barber said. "You get paid but it's not big bucks. Hopefully within a couple of years they'll be full blown and have some good backers—people that put the money in needed to get it going.

"I think (U.S. soccer) can go nowhere but up. The players are getting better at younger ages, which will only enhance the soccer play in the United States."

IMPROVE YOUR VOICE

use the PROVEN method
 "Able to direct a singer toward to a healthier, more extensive use of his voice." Michael Jackson
 "My ear, power, and vocal production have improved greatly" Bette Midler
 "A valuable addition to making your styling easy, always available" Luther Van Dross

• Over 86 Grammy Wins
 • 4 Metropolitan Opera Wins
 • ALL styles, ANY level

call 876-3220
 a local Seth Riggs Associate

HORNETS

from page 5

young player lacked in experience, he made up for in effort.

"He's active. The guys have a lot of confidence in him (Bennett)," Bristow said.

But Charlotte failed to dominate the perimeter, despite a knee injury that kept Portland's all-star guard Clyde Drexler on the sidelines all game. Kendall Gill was the only prominent contributor outside for the Hornets, hitting 9 of 15 and totaling 26 points.

The real success came from inside where the Hornets were expected to match up against longtime NBA veterans like Kevin Duckworth, Jerome Kersey and Buck Williams. While Charlotte lost the rebound battle 66-61, they won the shootout, hitting 52 percent of field goal attempts to the Blazers 44 percent. Portland fell behind early and was forced to play catch-up for the rest of the game.

"Portland is one of those banging type teams with the big front line," Johnson said. "Kenny (Gill) and J.R. (Reid) and myself really stood up and outplayed those guys down the stretch."

Perhaps Charlotte's biggest setback on the night was the ejection of Bristow. The second year coach was slapped with two technical fouls in a row after getting in a shouting match with Referee Bernie Fryer. Bristow led all coaches last year with 15 technicals.

"I was out a little bit too far on the court and we started exchanging a few words," Bristow said. "That's the way it goes in the NBA. Can't say too much, can't do too much."

The Hornets aren't in danger of doing too much with their defense, however. Last season, only the Golden State Warriors allowed more points. For Charlotte to become competitive, they'll need better defense to go along with their running offense.

"We have guys that can put the ball in the hole," Johnson said. "Now we've got to have guys who can trap when it comes to crunch time to keep the other guys from scoring."

Charlotte opens its regular season slate next Friday when they host the Washington Bullets.

Campus Calendar

STUDENT ORGANIZATION ACTIVITIES

Black Tie Optional is a social organization for Jewish singles. The organization consists of approximately 350 Jewish singles, ages 18-35. Call for more information; 876-2125.

The UNLV Student Chapter of the International Association of Hospitality Accountants will hold their meeting on today at 4:30 p.m. in Beam Hall, Room 120. Guest Speakers include Cindi Kiser, VP of Human Resources of the MGM Grand Hotel and Theme Park and Steve Haulk, VP of Finance of the MGM Grand Hotel and Theme Park. Seating is limited. Priority seating given to IAHA members. Please RSVP by contacting Tony Llanos at 739-3478 or 739-3933. Refreshments will be served.

READINGS AND LECTURES

Pulitzer Prize winning author, David Shaw, will lecture on "The Election 1992: The Press and the Process," Nov. 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the HFA auditorium. Shaw is the media critic for the Los Angeles Times.

WORKSHOPS

The Division of Continuing Education will conduct a course to prepare for the Graduate Record Examination. The course will focus on building self confidence by reviewing the verbal, mathematical and analytical skills tested in the GRE. Dates include Nov. 7, 14 and 21. Times vary. Call 739-3394 for details.

Extended Education will present a workshop titled "Processing Black and White Film," at 12 p.m. Sunday in White Life Sciences, Room 105. Cost is $30. Call 895-3394 for more information.

FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS

Chamber Music Southwest presents "Music for 1, 2 & 3; The Solid Brass Trio," tonight at 7:30 in Artemus Ham Concert Hall. The concert will feature combinations of brass instruments in a concert ranging from the baroque era to the 20th century. Call 739-3801 for more information.

The UNLV Community Concert Band will perform Wednesday in Artemus Ham Hall at 8 p.m. The Community Band, under the direction of Anthony LaBounty, will team up with the University Wind Ensemble in a massed band performance. Admission is free.

The eighth-annual Madrigal-Chamber Choir Festival will be held Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Artemus Ham Concert Hall. The UNLV Chamber Chorale will be featured. For more information call 895-3801.

IF YOU THINK SHAKESPEARE IS TOUGH, WAIT 'TIL YOU MEET WOLVERINE!

Or the Punisher. Ghost Rider. Spider-Man. The X-Men.

You'll find them in the most unexpected place of all: your campus bookstore. Nestled between Sartre's Nausea and Introduction to Statistics. Just in time, too: Milton and Nietzsche leave a little to be desired in the adrenaline department.

And while we're at it, you've been working too hard. Come hang out with Spidey at Marvel's Booth at the Barnes & Noble Campus America College Tour. Get your picture taken with Spidey and show your parents what you're really doing at college. Because you know what they say about all work and no play...

DATE: November 5 & 6
 LOCATION: Horseshoe Drive

MARVEL
COMICS