Special Library Hours for Finals — Fall 1992

Thanks to the generous funding support received from CSUN, the Library will maintain special extended hours during the Fall 1992 final exam period beginning Friday, Dec. 11 through Friday, Dec. 18. The only areas available for use after the regular library hours will be the Reserve Reading Room, first floor lobby and snack area, and the Library Computer Lab. THE RESERVE ROOM WILL BE OPEN CONTINUOUSLY AS A DESIGNATED QUIET STUDY AREA. Reserve materials will NOT be available during extended hours. Although the Computer Lab will be accessible after regular hours, there will be NO tutors on duty, and the laser printer will NOT be available for use. Special Collections and the Curriculum Materials Library will maintain their normal hours during this period.

Since only UNLV students may use the library as a study hall during the extended hours, student identification will be required.
