

Jerry Tarkanian

In his 19 years at UNLV as Head Coach of the Runnin' Rebels, Jerry Tarkanian has never had a season with less than 20 wins. In his first season he guided the Rebels to a 20-6 season and has never looked back at the rest of the field.

Tarkanian's name has filled record books not only of the NCAA but of the Big West Conference. But probably the biggest achievement he captured was the 1990 National Championship.

→Tarkanian is the all-time winningest coach by percentage after this year's team posts their 19th win.

→He is second in wins behind North Carolina's Dean Smith.

→Tarkanian has averaged 26 wins in his 23 years of coaching at the major college level.

→He is the winningest coach in the Big West Conference with a 13-year history of 200-17 with one game to go.

→He is the only Big West coach to capture 100 conference wins.

→He has won 13 regular season championships in 14 seasons. The Rebels tied with New Mexico State during the 1989-90 season.

→He has been named Big West Coach of the Year six times: 1990, 1988, 1987, 1985, 1984 and 1983.

Tark runs the gambit of emotions during a game.

photo by JoAnn Pelaez

photo by JoAnn Pelaez

Tark shows that he has kept UNLV basketball at the top.

photo by JoAnn Pelaez

Tark's right-hand man at UNLV has been Assistant coach Tim Gogurich (far left.)

photo by JoAnn Pelaez

Tark with son Danny (background.)

photo by JoAnn Pelaez

H Waldman gets an earfull from Tark.

photo by JoAnn Pelaez

Tark has had to answer to the press many times at UNLV.

The Thomas & Mack center will no longer be known as the "Shark Tank."