Rebels pull out the broom in four-game sweep of Southern Utah.

Heading into tonight's game at perennial power Arizona State, this past weekend's four-game set against Southern Utah gave the UNLV baseball team some much-needed positive momentum.

The Rebels pulled out their brooms and swept the Thunderbirds at Barnson Field, 9-5, 11-1, 22-4, and 7-5.

Sunday's two-run victory improved the Rebels' record to 17-18 on the year.

The T-Birds drew first blood Sunday, jumping all over a jittery Kevin Downey by scoring three times in the initial frame. Downey lasted just two innings, giving up three runs (one earned) on five hits and two walks.

UNLV grabbed the lead in the second with a four-run outburst.

Lino Diaz singled to lead off before Brian Anthony drew a base on balls. Mike Hubel then pushed a bunt through the right side of the infield that made its

Blake Feeney then tried to bunt but the attempt was caught on the fly by T-Bird first baseman, Mickey Houston for the first out. Demond Thompkins then singled to drive Anthony in.

No. 9 hitter Steve Biermann promptly doubled down the right field line to clear the bases as UNLV took the lead and would never look back.

Dennis DeMartini took over mound duties in the third and picked up the win after going five innings, giving up one unearned run on three hits and striking out one.

The Rebels added a run in the third on Hubel's sac fly to bring in Diaz.

Southern Utah closed the gap to one with a score in the fourth before the Rebels added solo scores in the seventh and eighth frames.

Derek Cotton picked up his first save of the year, pitching the last two innings. Cotton surrendered one run on four hits and a walk and K'd three.

Biermann paced the Rebel offense Sunday with two hits and three RBIs.
