

KUNV offers a student's perspective to Rebel athletics

BY PAUL GUTIERREZ
SPORTS EDITOR

UNLV students have the opportunity to hear Rebel sports over the airwaves courtesy of the efforts of KUNV 91.5.

A four-man team rotates and supplies local listeners with game action, KUNV Assistant Sports Director Chris Jones said.

"For baseball and softball we're the only place to tune to hear the game," Jones said. "We offer a little bit more of a student's perspective on the game at hand."

The crew of Jones, Matt and Scott Gulbransen and Jay Sapo-

Following is the remaining schedule for broadcast:

- Saturday baseball vs. UC Santa Barbara
- Sunday softball vs. New Mexico St.
- Mon. 2 softball vs. Cal Poly Pomona
- May 8 baseball vs. NMSU
- May 14 baseball vs. San Jose St.

vits have a rotating system of color and play-by-play Jones said.

The KUNV crew has broadcast Rebel basketball as well as both diamond sports. KUNV has already broadcast baseball games from the Cal State Fullerton series as well as Southern Utah. The Lady Rebel softball game against Pacific also went live.

In addition, the crew hosts Sportstalk, every Friday morning at 10.

Intramurals Corner

No. 5 Rebel golfers travel to BYU for Cougar Classic

Fresh from their fifth place finish in Arizona, the No. 5 UNLV golf team travels to Utah this weekend for the 31st Annual BYU Cougar Classic.

Other competing squads include BYU, No. 8 New Mexico, San Jose State, Pacific, and Utah St.

The tourney is the last regular season event of the year for the Rebel linksters as UNLV squad hosts the Big West Conference Championships at the Spanish Trail Country Club May 3-5.

VanDerveer to speak on campus today

Tara VanDerveer, head coach for the Stanford University women's basketball team, will speak tonight in Meeting Room D of the Thomas & Mack Center.

Her talk, titled, "Building a Winning Team: Courtside with Coach Tara VanDerveer," will begin at 7 p.m. and is open and free to the public.

VanDerveer has compiled a win-loss record of 196-53 and led the Lady Cardinal to two NCAA championships, in 1990 and '92.

She has also been named head coach of the U.S. National women's basketball team that will compete in the World Games this summer in Brazil.

The talk is sponsored by the Stanford Club of Southern Nevada.

Student-athletes of the year

Swimmers Robert Smale and Mary Alice Torgerson were both honored as UNLV's most outstanding student-athletes Monday as part of the 14th Annual Student-Athlete Honors Convocation.

Student-athletes from all 14 intercollegiate sports programs at the university were honored at the event. More than 90 student-athletes were honored as the qualification was to maintain a 3.0 grade-point average.

Both Smale and Torgerson had GPA's of 4.0.
