

Rebel Report Card

Week 4: vs. Kansas State

COMPILED BY:

B-

Another tough road loss for our Rebel football club. But the Rebels have played Clemson, UTEP and Kansas State tough on the road. It would be hard for any team to win all of those games let alone one. Hang in there guys and beat RENO! Here is this week's report card.

Quarterback - B- - Stockham looked phenomenal in the first half. He took the Rebels on two scoring drives without a misfire. He lost a little composure in the second half but still looked confident. Bob had the flu the week previous and it might have caught up with him in the second half. He threw for 223 yards. A good day.

Offensive Line - A+ - I wish I could find something to say about these guys. They are so good. They play solid and make it possible for the Rebels to win every outing. I'm giving all of them my REBEL OF THE WEEK award. Keep it up guys.

Running Backs - B+ - Omar Love had another solid performance. 64 yards and a touchdown is always welcomed. Robert Gi also contributed and should see more playing time. Put him in coach, he is ready to play.

Wide Receivers - B - A good performance by an always quality squad. Henry Bailey had one mistake but he will bounce back. The receivers accounted for two of the three touchdowns.

Tight Ends - C+ - Culp fumbled and the rest of the guys played well. Coach Strong should have them more involved. When they play hard they are tough to handle.

Kicking - A - Both Brad Faunce and Nick Gamitano both performed well.

They finally returned a kick-off that originated from the golden toe of Faunce.

Defensive Line - B- - The line played well but the evils of the road seem to be catching up to them. It's tough to maintain that performance. Look for them to bounce back completely in Reno.

Linebackers - C+ - This bunch needs some depth. Ramone Hilton was a scratch once more. Hopefully he can heal in time for the Reno matchup. Medlock may have dropped the ball but he is a solid player. The Rebels need him at the top of his game.

Defensive Backs - C - UNLV's talented squad of defensive backs is suspect lately. I don't know if it's the road or just a lack of concentration. They will need to play big at Nevada for the Rebels to win. They are capable of being dominating and will be.

Coaching - B - Bob Stockham was right. The Rebels were too conservative in the second half. Coach Strong called plays in the first half that were brilliant yet he got conservative in the second half. Why? Expect the coach to pull out all the stops when he travels to Northern Nevada.

Overall grade - B - The Rebels should be 3-1. They have played well on their massive road trip. The time is now gentlemen. All but one of their remaining games is against a conference foe. If they build on their mistakes of the first four weeks, they can still turn it around and win the Big West crown.

Until next week: "Losing builds character as long as it doesn't become a habit." - Mike Ditka

DOE Seeks Community Advisory Board Member Nominations

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) is seeking nominees for membership to a Community Advisory Board. This board will provide recommendations and advice to DOE throughout the decision-making process relating to the environmental restoration and waste management program in Nevada. The board will be comprised of local citizens, government officials, Native Americans, and interest group and organization representatives.

A draft charter for this group has been developed by a working group of concerned citizens in cooperation with the state of Nevada and DOE. If you are interested in becoming a member, DOE must receive a completed application by November 3, 1993. For more information about the formal nomination process, please contact:
