With a 3-1 loss to George Mason and an 8-0 pounding by Air Force, the Rebel soccer team (2-6) finished fourth in a four-team tournament at the Air Force Academy Falcon Invitational last weekend.

Tourney host Air Force won their own tournament with a pair of shutout victories and George Mason finished second.

Two Rebels were named to the all-tournament team, senior midfielder Richie Louis and junior defender Artie Copeland. Louis is an All-America candidate and Copeland earned a spot in the starting lineup after an impressive performance coming off the bench against the Patriots of George Mason.

On Friday, UNLV played George Mason and lost 3-1.

The Patriots led 2-0 at intermission. UNLV came on strong in the second half, dominating the first 25 minutes as Bart Galia, a sophomore midfielder, brought the ball down the right side of the field and fed a cross to the penalty spot, where freshman P.J. Roberts tapped over to Tommy Miller. He laced it into the back of the net. But GMU put the nail in the coffin with a goal at 74:59 by Tamir Linhart.

Against Air Force, the Rebels again found themselves down 2-0 after the first half. The aggressive Falcons entered the second half in a complete scoring zone. The Cadets controlled the rest of the game from whistle to whistle netting six of nine shots for an 8-0 victory over the struggling Rebels.

The beating is the second worst in school history. UNLV lost at Cal State Fullerton a year ago, 9-0.

The Rebels will try to end their three game losing streak when they open Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Pacific Division play at New Mexico (5-3) on Friday at 7:30 p.m. UNLV will travel to the Albuquerque, N.M. campus as part of the UNM Craig Robertson Invitational. On Sunday, the Rebels will battle with Western Kentucky (3-5) at 11 a.m.

The UNLV Intramurals volleyball playoffs will begin Tuesday with championship games tabbed for next Thursday. A .500 winning percentage—which translates into three wins or more—is the prerequisite to qualifying.

With only tonight's games remaining, 15 teams from the four divisions have clinched a playoff berth. Five teams have the potential to earn a playoff bid tonight, which concludes the regular season.

In the Women's Division, Diggin' It (4-0), Zeta Tau Alpha (4-2), Island Girls (3-1) and Latter Day Saints Student Association (3-1) will participate in next week's playoff slate. Delta Kappa (1-3) can mathematically qualify by winning its two games tonight.

The Hawaiians (4-0), Orion (4-1) and SPS (4-1) in the Men's A Division have clinched berths while Bulldogs and Beach Bums—both 2-3—could reach the playoffs with a victory tonight.

Team FASA (5-0), Latter Day Saints Student Association (3-1), the Giants (3-1) and Rodman (3-2) have clinched berths in the Men's B Division. Dig This (2-3) can land a bid with a season-ending win.

In the Intra-Fraternity Council Division, Sigma Chi (4-0), Tau Kappa Epsilon (4-1), Kappa Sigma (4-2) and Lambda Chi (3-3) qualified for post-season play. Phi Delta Theta (2-3) is in a do-or-die situation tonight.

The Sports Officials Association Preseason Flag Football Tournament will be contested by 12 men's teams on Saturday.

The UNLV Intramurals regular football season begins Monday. A total of 46 teams are enlisted in both women's and men's brackets.

The UNLV Intramurals Team Superstars tri-event competition will start up Tuesday, Oct. 12. The three events are floor hockey, bench press and wallyball (a derivative of volleyball played in the racquetball court).

A mandatory captain's meeting will be held today at either 4 p.m. or 6 p.m. in Lounge 201 of the Moyer Student Union.

A $40 entry fee/forfeit fee must be paid at the mandatory meeting.
