Defensive Backs F I cannot even believe this grade. Usually this group is solid, but not in Reno. They got toasted for 538 passing yards. I wanted to give them a "D," but I could not justify it. Rodney Mazion and Dion Thompson were the only bright spots. A few weeks ago Rebel Yell columnist Chris Jones wrote "The Rebel defensive backs gave up more land than the French in the Louisiana Purchase." This time they gave up more land than the Iraqis in the Gulf War!

Coaching F Coach Strong earns his first truly low grade. After great coaching calls in his first four games, the Rebel coach failed to prepare his team for an inferior Wolf Pack club. The coaching staff in general earned this grade.

Coach Strong is not the sole recipient. Let's hope next week they get back on track.

Overall Grade D- the reason this grade was not an "F" was the inspirational play of Tiger Townes and Omar Love. They not only refused to give up, they tried to win even down by 49 points. That is what sports is truly about—never giving up. Lets hope the Rebels as a team do not give up. They need to play hard the rest of the season and earn respect externally and internally.

Until next week students: "Losing sucks!" Beavis and Butt-Head

* Special thanks to Tommy Sheppard and the UNLV Athletic Department for making it possible for the Rebel Yell to cover the game in Reno.
