

The Los Angeles Lakers defeated their crosstown rivals, the Los Angeles Clippers, in an NBA exhibition Wednesday night at the Thomas & Mack Center, 119-99. A couple of former Rebels, Dexter Boney and Elmore Spencer, made their return to their collegiate stomping grounds. Boney, trying to catch on with the Lakers, scored 16 points in the win while Spencer scored five points and grabbed four rebounds as the Clippers' starting center.

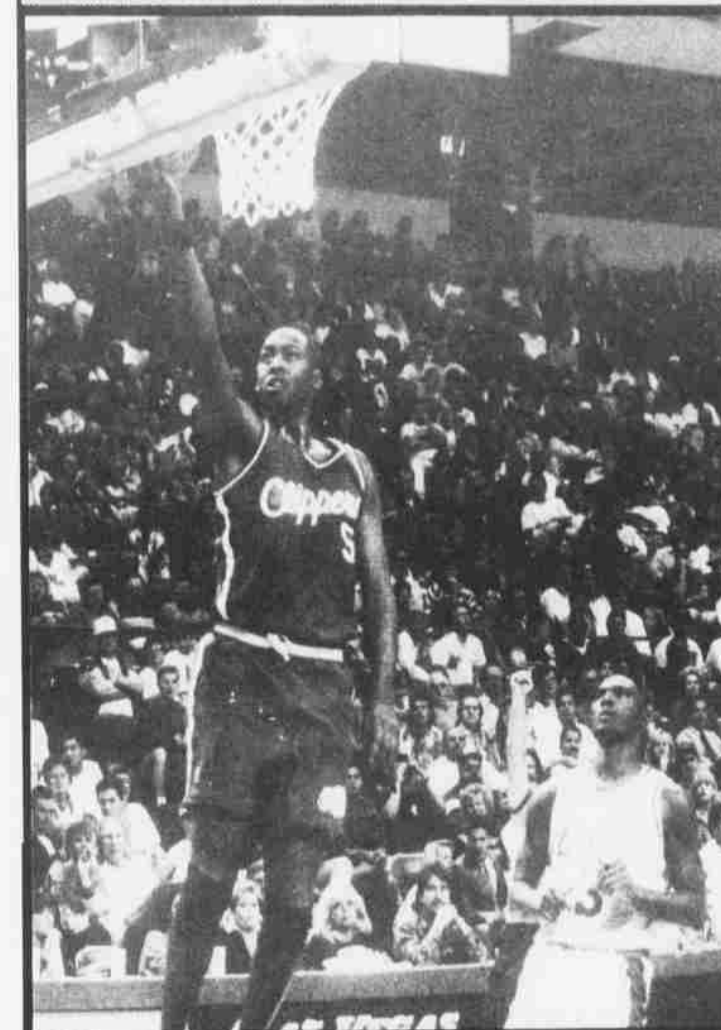

119

Top Laker scorers
 James Worthy - 19 points
 Dexter Boney - 16 points
 George Lynch - 13 points
 Tony Campbell - 13 points

99

Top Clipper scorers
 Danny Manning - 29 points
 Ron Harper - 13 points
 Wayne Tinkle - 9 points

Top left: Dexter Boney drives for a layup; Top right: The Laker Girls kept the crowd entertained; Bottom right: Elmore Spencer battles Vlade Divac for a rebound; Bottom left: Danny Manning glides in for a basket; Center: James Worthy gets two of his Laker-high 19 points.

Photos by Paul Gutierrez

