Goldwater Scholarships Offered to UNLV Students

Students interested in a career in mathematics, natural science, or engineering are invited to apply for the Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship and Excellence in Education Program.

Established by Congress in 1986, the foundation operates an educational scholarship program designed to provide opportunities for outstanding college students with excellent academic records and demonstrated interest in, and potential for, careers in mathematics, the natural sciences, and engineering disciplines that contribute significantly to the technological advances of the United States.

In April 1995, the foundation will award scholarships to students who will be juniors or seniors during the 1995-96 academic year. In order to be considered for an award, students must be nominated by their department. The deadline is December 16, 1994.

The scholarship award covers eligible expenses up to a maximum of $7,000 per year. Junior scholarship recipients can expect to receive a maximum of two years of support, while Seniors are eligible for a maximum support of one year.

To be eligible, a student must be a current full-time sophomore or junior, and must be pursuing a baccalaureate degree, have a B average or equivalent, stand in the upper fourth of the class, and be a U.S. citizen, resident alien, or U.S. national.

Students interested should contact:

Lan Zane or Carol Jensen at 895-3537, by Tuesday, Nov. 15, 1994.
