Adam Sandler will make a live appearance on campus at Artemus Ham Hall this Tuesday, Jan. 24 at 8:30 p.m. Ticket prices are only $20 but UNLV students with proper ID will receive a whole $5 off of the ticket price. The student discount is valid only on the first 500 tickets sold. Will the show sell 500 tickets probably not due to the fact that the their has hardly been any pre-publicity for the show. The show is also scheduled on a Tuesday night and even with a discount the show still is $15. For $15 you can buy Adam Sandler's album They're All Gonna Laugh At You and rent Airheads or go see his current hit film Lifesavers at the cheap theatres. Adam Sandler is funny but the ticket prices and the scheduled night are not; neither is the fact that CSUN sponsored this event.

in late February. The popular Color of Bruise was one of the invitees. The head of the MFA Play writing Program compared it to "being invited to the NCAA playoffs." The Festival will probably be the closest that UNLV will come to any playoffs this year.

Congratulations! Once again KUNV has been nominated as one of the top five college radio stations in the country. The award ceremony is at the Gavin Convention in New Orleans. KUNV won the award a few years ago and is a heavy favorite to win this year. The convention is a huge opportunity for those UNLV students who are involved with KUNV because, in the past, students have ended up with high-paying jobs for such big time companies as: Madonna and Maverick label, Geffen Records, Reprise Records, etc., but also because the convention is held during Mardi Gras. Green Day will also be performing—a secret none of the record executives or producers shared during the convention.

Las Vegas radio station, The Edge (that's right the station that lied about Tom Jones coming to Vegas), started the new year right continuing their streak as the worst radio station in Las Vegas with an announcement of an upcoming concert in May for R.E.M. and Sonic Youth. Tickets are only $40 and you know it is worth every cent. Once again another coup for the station that once reprimanded a DJ for playing Bad Religion on his late-night show. Ironically, now Bad Religion is a staple on their rotation list.

Auditions. The University Theatre at UNLV and Studebaker Studios will be holding auditions for David Mamet's tediously predictable and boring play, Glengarry Glen Ross this noon Saturday, Jan. 21 at the Paul Harris Theatre on campus. Actors should be prepared to deliver a one minute monologue with a various range of dramatic emotional abilities. Pre-registration is required in the Department of Theatre office in the lobby of the Judy Bailey Theatre.

Yo man! Sir Mix A Lot will star on "The Watcher" which is filmed in Vegas. In fact rumour has it that many UNLV film students have been abused as production assistants on the production of the show. Sir Lot narrates tales of lust and greed gone awry in a city whose characters symbolize the best and worst of America, dreamers, con men, crooks and former UNLV sport coaches.
