The UNLV swimming and diving teams split dual meets against UC Santa Barbara last weekend at Buchanan Natatorium.

While the women managed to gain victories in Saturday and Sunday's meets, the men fell to the Gauchos both days.

The women, who prevailed 117-99 and 109-58, were led by senior Xiaohong Wang.

Wang, the silver medalist in the 200-yard butterfly at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain, gained victories in the 200 butterfly (2:05.66), 100 butterfly (56.58) and 100 freestyle (52.70).

Senior Dawn Emery triumphed in the 200 individual medley (2:07.60) and the 100 backstroke (58.83).

Other individual victories included senior Julie Mroziak in the 200 backstroke (2:03.04), sophomore Cindy Marion in the 400 IM (4:38.29), freshman Jennifer Crowder in the 200 breaststroke (2:24.00) and sophomore Sandy Scott in the 100 breaststroke (1:06.00).

The men lost their two meets to the Gauchos by scores of 162.5-57.5 and 95.5-71.5.

Freshman Mike Mintenko continued his impressive rookie campaign by grabbing victories in the 200 freestyle (1:40.99), 500 freestyle (4:42.35) and 100 butterfly (51.55).

Other Splashin' Rebels worth noting are juniors Matt Cardwell, who captured the 1650 freestyle (16:41.66), and Chris Reichert, who won the 3-meter diving with 165.65 points.

Freshman Bryan Schuerman grabbed the 400 IM (4:10.29). Schuerman leads the Big West Conference in the 500 freestyle (4:37.67), 1000 freestyle (9:58.84) and 400 IM (4:10.08).

The Splashin' Rebels travel to Irvine, Calif. this weekend for dual meets against UC Irvine and Fresno State at noon Saturday.

had rushed for almost 1,900 yards and had scored 22 touchdowns in the regular season.

"No excuses," Central Michigan coach Dick Flynn said. "We got beat. You saw what happens when you make too many mistakes against an outstanding football team."

Linebackers Brittney Posey (nine tackles) and Mark Byers (two sacks) placed some of the hardest hits of the season on Chippewa running back Eric Johnson.

"I wanted to prove to the nation that I can play football," said Posey, still stinging from being snubbed in the Big West honors.

UNLV's 7-5 record marks only the second time in eight years the team has posted a winning record.

Gatewood capped his prolific season by scoring two touchdowns in the East-West Shrine game last Saturday in Palo Alto, Calif.

GIVEN A GOOD LIE AND A RELATIVELY FLAT BUNKER WITH A LOW LIP, PUTTING THE BALL CAN BE A HIGH PERCENTAGE SHOT.

USE YOUR REGULAR PUTTING STROKE, BUT TRY TO CONTACT THE BALL ON THE TOE OF THE PUTTER BLADE TO GIVE THE BALL A BETTER ROLLING ACTION.

REMEMBER TO STROKE A LITTLE MORE FIRMLY TO COUNTER THE OFF-CENTER STRIKE.
