in their win Saturday at Irvine. Last year UNLV split their two games against UNR, with both teams claiming home victories. The Rebels beat the Pack 97-93 on Jan. 20.

Stewart led the way for UNLV with 24 points and nine boards. Manuel added 17 points, while Sunshine had 15 and Savoy kicked in with 12.

UNR got its revenge on Feb. 5, as they dropped the Rebels 93-88. The win broke an 11-game losing streak to the Rebels.

Moore led the way for the Pack as he dropped in a game-high 29 points. O'Bryant had 16 points and nine assists.

Stewart and Savoy each had 20 points to lead UNLV. Manuel and Sunshine had 14 points apiece.

UNLV leads the overall series 42-11.

The Rebels then go to Utah State for a 6:05 match-up with coach Larry Eustachy's Aggies on Saturday.

Utah State gained its first victory against UNLV last year in Logan with a 82-81 overtime triumph on Feb. 3.

The Aggies fell 67-61 last year in the T&M on Jan. 22.

Don't be surprised if the Rebels fall again at the hands of the Aggies. Utah State comes into the game atop the Big West with a conference record of 5-0, their best start since the 1982-83 season.

They are 11-2 overall.

The Aggies go into their home contest tonight against Long Beach State which won eight in a row.

In Utah State's last game, a 93-87 win at Irvine, senior guard Corwin Woodard led the Aggies with 24 points. Woodard had 23 in the game before that, an 84-73 victory at Fullerton.

Junior Eric Franson, a second-team All-Big West performer last year, is the team's leader inside. He scored 13 points against the Titans and had 16 points and 10 rebounds against the Anteaters.

The forwards are juniors Silas Mills and John Wickizer. Nathan Wickizer supplies depth down low.

Senior Roddie Anderson runs the point for the Aggies. He averaged just under 10 ppg last year, and had 11 and 14 against Fullerton and Irvine.

Both games will be televised on KRLR TV-21 (Cable 2).

There. Consider yourself caught up now.

at a time when his teammates and the program needed him most, LT simply grew weary of the off-court distractions that are commonplace at UNLV.

Thomas never truly felt at home in Las Vegas, complaining of homesickness his first-year here. And when you recall that Thomas originally orally committed to Villanova before Massimino bailed to come to the desert and Thomas followed, it's easy to see why LT would have such a hard time adjusting to Gerg's style. The call here is for LT to transfer to Hofstra.

Henry Bailey assured himself of being drafted by an NFL team with his performance in the nationally televised Las Vegas Bowl III last month with his performance - four TD's, 180 total yards and the game's MVP trophy will serve Bailey well when draft day comes.

Calls of traitor hailed from the north before and after the UNLV-UNR football game, but after a conference championship and a bowl victory, the calls should be "miracle worker" here in the south. Horton sold a dream to the UNLV football team, 3-8 in 1993, when he came south. The players turned it to reality.
